THE WHOLE BOOK
OF
P S A L M S:

Collected into English Metre,
By THOMAS STERNHOLD, JOHN HOPKINS
and others: Confer'd with the Hebrew.

Set forth and allowed to be Sung in all Churches, of all the People together, before and after Morning and Evening Prayer, and also before and after Sermons; and moreover in Private Houses, for their godly solace and comfort, laying apart all ungodly Songs and Ballads, which tend only to the nourishing of Vice, and corrupting of Youth.

JAMES V.

If any be afflicted, let him pray: and if any be merry, let him sing Psalms.

COLOS. III.

Let the word of God dwell plenteously in you, in all wisdom, teaching and exhorting one another in Psalms, Hymns, and Spiritual Songs, singing unto the Lord in your hearts.

VENI CREATOR.

Come holy Ghost, eternal God,
proceeding from above,
Both from the Father and the Son,
the God of peace and love.
Visit our minds, and into us
thy heavenly grace inspire:
That in all truth and godliness,
we may have true desire.

Thou art the very Comforter
in all woe and distress;
The heavenly gift of God most high,
which no tongue can express:
The fountain and the lively spring
of joy celestial:
The fire so bright, the love so clear,
and unction spiritual.

Thou in thy gifts art manifold,
whereby Christ's Church doth stand:
In faithful hearts writing thy law,
the finger of God's hand.
According to thy promise made,
thou givest speech of grace:
That through thy help the praise of God
may stand in every place.

O holy Ghost, into our vit's
send down thy heavenly light:
Kindle our hearts with fervent love,
to serve God day and night.
Strength and stablish all our weakness,
so feeble and so frail:
That neither flesh, the world, nor devil
against us do prevail.

Put back our enemies far from us,
and grant us to obtain Peace in our hearts with God and man,
without grudge or disdain.
And grant, O Lord, that thou being
our leader and our guide,
We may eschew the snares of sin,
and from thee never slide.

To us such plenty of thy grace,
good Lord, grant we thee pray,
That thou may'st be our Comforter
at the last dreadful day.

Of all strife and dissension.
O Lord, dissolve the bands;
And make the knots of peace and love
throughout all Christian lands.

Grant us, O Lord, through thee to know
the Father most of might:
That of his dear beloved Son
we may attain the sight:
And that with perfect faith also
we may acknowledge thee,
The Spirit of them both alway,
one God in Persons three.

Laud and praise be to the Father,
and to the Son equal,
And to the Holy Spirit also,
one God coeternal.
And pray we that the onely Son vouchsafe his Spirit to send
To all that do profess his Name,
even unto the world's end.

The humble suit of a sinner. M.

O Lord of whom I do depend,
behold my careful heart:
And when thy will and pleasure is,
release me of my sinart.
Thou seest my sorrows what they are,
my grief is known to thee:
And there is none that can remove,
or take the same from me;
But onely thou whose aid I crave,
whose mercy still is prest
To ease all those that come to thee
for succour and for rest.
And sith thou seest my restless eyes,
my tears and grievous groan;
Attend unto my suit, O Lord,
mark well my plaint and moan.

For sin hath so enclosed me,
and compass't me about,
That I am now remediless,
if mercy help not out.
For mortal man cannot release,
or mitigate this pain:
But even thy Christ, my Lord and God,
who for my sins was slain.

Whose bloody wounds are yet to see,
though not with mortal eye:
Yet do thy saints behold them all,
and so I trust shall I.
Though sin doth hinder me a while,
when thou shalt see it good

I shall enjoy the sight of him,
and see his wounds and blood.

And as thine angels and thy saints
do now behold the same:

So trust I to possess that place,
with them to praise thy Name.
But whilst I live here in this vale
where sinners do frequent,
Assist me ever with thy grace,
my sins still to lament.

Left that I tread the sinners trace,
and give them my consent
To dwell with them in wickedness,
whereto nature is bent.

Onely thy grace must be my stay,
lest that I fall down flat:
And being down, then of my self cannot recover that.

Wherefore this is yet once again
my suit and my request,
To grant me pardon for my sin,
that I in thee may rest.
Then shall my heart and tongue also be instruments of praise,
And in thy Church and house of saints:
sing psalms to thee always.

Venite, exultemus. Psal. xcvi.

O Come and let us now rejoice,
And sing unto the Lord,
And to our onely Saviour,
Also with one accord.

O let us come before his face.
With inward reverence,
Confessing all our former sins,
And that with diligence.

To thank him for his benefits
Always distributing:
Wherefore to him right joyfully
In psalms now let us sing.

And that because that God alone
Is Lord magnificent,
And eke above all other gods
A King omnipotent.

His people doth not he forsake
At any time or tide:
And in his hands are all the coasts
Of all the world so wide.

And with his loving countenance
He looketh every where,
And doth behold the tops of all
The mountains far and near.

The sea and all that is therein
Are his, for he them made:
And eke his hand hath fashioned
The earth which doth not fade.

O come therefore and worship him,
And down before him fall:
And let us kneel before the Lord,
The which hath made us all.

He is our God, our Lord, and King:
And we his people are,
His flock and sheep of his pasture,
Of whom he taketh care.

This day if ye will hear his voice,
Then harden not your heart,
As in the bitter murmuring,
When ye were in defaut.

Which thing was of their negligence
Committed in the time
Of trouble in the wilderness,
A great and grievous crime.

Whereas your fathers tempted me
And tri'd me every way;
They proved me, and saw my works,
What I could do or say.

These forty years I have been griev'd
With this generation:
And evermore I said, They err'd
In their imagination:

Wherewith their hearts were fore cumbred
Long time and many days:
Wherefore I said, Assuredly
They have not known my ways.

To whom I in mine anger swore,
That they should not be blest,
Nor see my joy celestial,
Nor enter in my rest.

Gloria Patri.

All laud and praise be to thee, Lord,
O that of might art most,
To God the Father and the Son,
And to the holy Ghost.
As it in the beginning was
For ever heretofore,
And is now at this present time,
And shall be evermore.

The song of S. Ambrose, called Te Deum.

WE praise thee, O God, we knowledge
the onely Lord to be; (thee)
And as eternal Father, all
the earth doth worship thee.
To thee all Angels cry, the heavens
and all the powers therein:
To thee Cherub and Seraphin
do cry they do not lin,

O holy, holy, holy Lord,
of Sabaoth Lord the God;
Through heaven and earth thy praise is spread,
and glory all abroad.
Th' Apostles glorious company
yield praises unto thee:

The Prophets goodly fellowship
praise thee continually.

The noble and victorious host of Martyrs found thy praise:
The holy Church throughout the world
doth knowledge thee always.

Father of endless Majesty
they do acknowledge thee:
Thy Christ thine honourable; true,
and onely Son to be.

The Holy Ghost the Comforter;
of Glory thou art King,
O Christ, and of the Father art
the Son everlasting.

When sinful man's decay in hand
thou tookest to restore,
To be inclos'd in virgin's womb
thou diddest not abhor.

When thou hadst overcome of death
the sharp and cruel might,
Thou heaven's kingdom didst set ope
to each believing wight.

In glory of the Father thou
dost sit on God's right hand:
We trust that thou shalt come our Judge
our cause to understand.

Lord, help thy seryants whom thou hast bought with thy precious blood,
And in eternal glory set
them with thy saints so good.
O Lord, do thou thy people save,
blefs thine inheritance,
Lord, govern them, and Lord, do thou
for ever them advance.

We magnifie thee day by day,
and world without an end Adore thy holy name: O Lord, vouchsafe us to defend
From sin this day: have mercy, Lord,
have mercy on us all:
And on us, as we trust in thee,
Lord, let thy mercy fall.

O Lord, I have reposed all
my confidence in thee:
Put to confounding' shame therefore Lord, let me never be.

The song of the three Children.

O All ye works of God the Lord,
blefs ye the Lord, Praise him
and magnifie him for ever.
2 O ye the Angels of the Lord,
blefs ye the Lord, &c.
3 O ye the starry heavens high,
blefs ye the Lord, &c.
4 O ye waters above the skie,
blefs ye the Lord, &c.

5 O all ye powers of the Lord,
blefs ye the Lord, &c.
6 O ye the shining Sun and Moon,
blefs ye the Lord, &c.
7 O ye the glistering Stars of heaven,
blefs ye the Lord, &c.
8 O ye the Showres and dropping Dew,
blefs ye the Lord, &c.
9 O ye the blowing Winds of God,
blefs ye the Lord, &c.
10 O ye the Fire and warming Heat,
blefs ye the Lord, &c.
11 Ye Winter and the Summer-tide,
blefs ye the Lord, &c.
12 O ye the Dews and binding Frosts,
blefs ye the Lord, &c.
13 O ye the Frost and chilling Cold,
blefs ye the Lord, &c.
14 O ye congealed Ice and Snow,
blefs ye the Lord, &c.
15 O ye the Nights and lightsom Days,
blefs ye the Lord, &c.
16 O ye the Darknes and the Light,
blefs ye the Lord, &c.
17 O ye the Lightnings and the Clouds,
blefs ye the Lord, &c.
18 O let the earth eke blefs the Lord,
yea blefs the Lord, &c.
19 O ye the Mountains and the Hills,
blefs ye the Lord, &c.
20 O all ye green things on the earth,
blefs ye the Lord, &c.
21 O ye the ever-springing Wells,
blefs ye the Lord, &c.
22 O ye the Seas, and eke the Flouds,
blefs ye the Lord, &c.
23 Whales, and all that in waters move,
blefs ye the Lord, &c.
24 O all ye flying Fowls of th' air,
blefs ye the Lord, &c.
25 O all ye Beasts and Cattel eke,
blefs ye the Lord, &c.
26 O ye the Children of mankind,
blefs ye the Lord, &c.
27 Let Israel eke blefs the Lord,
yea blefs the Lord, &c.
28 O ye the Priests of God the Lord,
blefs ye the Lord, &c.
29 O ye the servants of the Lord,
blefs ye the Lord, &c.
30 Ye spirits and souls of righteous men,
blefs ye the Lord, &c.
31 Ye holy and ye meek of heart,
blefs ye the Lord, &c.
32 O Ananias, blefs the Lord,
blefs thou the Lord, &c.
33 O Azarias, blefs the Lord,
blefs thou the Lord, &c.
34 And Misael, eke blefs the Lord,
blefs thou the Lord, &c.

The song of Zacharias, called Benedictus.

THe onely Lord of Israel
 Be praised evermore:
 For through his vifitation
 And mercy kept in ftore,
 His people now he hath redeem'd,
 That long have been in thrall,
 And fspread abroad his faving health
 Upon his fervaunts all.

In David's houfe his fervant true
 According to his mind,
 And alfo his anointed King,
 As we in Scripture find.
 As by his holy Prophets all
 Oft-times he did declare,
 The which were fince the world began,
 His ways for to prepare.

That we might be delivered
 From thofe that make debate,
 Our enemies, and from the hands
 Of all that do us hate.

The mercy which he promifed
 Our fathers to fulfill,
 And think upon his covenant made
 According to his will.

And alfo to perform the Oath
 Which he before had fworn
 To Abraham our father dear,
 For us that were forlorn:

That he would give himfelf for us,
 And us from bondage bring
 Out of the hands of all our foes,
 To ferve our heavenly King.

And that without all manner fear,
 And eke in righteoufnefs:
 And alfo for to lead our lives
 In ftedfaft holinefs.

And thou, O Child, which now art born
 And of the Lord elef,ft,
 Shalt be the Prophet of the High'ft,
 His ways for to direct.

For thou shalt go before his face
 For to prepare his ways,
 And alfo for to teach his will
 And pleafure all thy days.

To give them knowledge how that their Salvation is near:
 And that remiffion of their fins
 Is through his mercy mere.

Whereby the day-fpring frow on high
 Is come us for to vifit,
 And thofe for to illuminate
 Which do in darknefs fit.

To lighten thofe that shadowed be
 With death, and eke oppreff:
 And alfo for to guide our feet
 The way to peace and reft.

The song of blessed Mary, called Magnificat.

MY foul doth magnifie the Lord,
 My fpirit eke evermore
 Rejoiceth in the Lord my God,
 Which is my Saviour.

And why? becaufe he did regard,
 And gave refpect unto
 So bafe eftate of his handmaid,
 And let the mighty go.

For now behold all nations
 And generations all,
 From this time forth for evermore
 Shall me right bleffed call:

Becaufe he hath me magnified,
 Which is the Lord of might;
 Whofe name be ever fantedified,
 And praifed day and night.

For with his mercy and his grace
 All men he doth inflame,
 Throughout all generations
 To fuch as fear his name.

He fhewed ftrengh with his great arm,
 And made the proud to ftart,
 With all imaginations
 That they bear in their heart.

He hath put down the mighty ones
 From their fupernal feat,
 And did exalt the meek in heart,
 As he hath thought it meet.

The hungry he replenifhed
 With all things that were good,
 And through his power he made the rich
 Oft-times to want their food.

And calling to remembrance
 His mercy every deal,
 Hath holpen up affiantly
 His fervant Ifrael.

According to his promife made
 To Abraham before,
 And to his feed fucceffively,
 To ftand for evermore.

The song of Simeon, called Nunc dimittis.

O Lord, becaufe my heart's defire
 Hath wifhed long to fee
 My onely Lord and Saviour,
 Thy Son before I die:

The joy and health of all mankind,
 Defired long before,
 Which now is come into the world,
 Of mercy bringing ftore:

Thou fuffereft thy fervant now
 In peace for to depart,
 According to thy holy Word,
 Which lighteneth my heart.

Becaufe mine eyes which thou haft made
 To give my body light,

Have now beheld thy saving health,
Which is the Lord of might.

Whom thou mercifully hast set,
Of thine abundant grace,
In open sight and visible
Before all peoples face,

The Gentiles to illuminate,
And Satan overquel,
And eke to be the glory of Thy people Israel.

The Symbol or Creed of Athanasius, called Quicunque vult.

WHat man soever he be that
salvation will attain,
The Catholick belief he must before all things retain.
Which faith unless he wholly keep,
and undefiledly,
Without all doubt eternally
he shall be sure to die.

The Catholick belief is this,
That God we worship one In Trinity, and Trinity
in Unity alone :
So as we neither do confound
the Persons of the three,
Nor yet the substance whole of one,
in sunder parted be.

One Person of the Father is,
another of the Son,
Another Person proper of the Holy Ghost alone.
Of Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
but one the Godhead is :
Like Glory coeternal eke
the Majesty likewise.

Such as the Father is, such is the Son in each degree :
And such also we do believe the Holy Ghost to be.
Uncreate is the Father, and
uncreate is the Son,
The Holy Ghost uncreate, so uncreate is each one.

Incomprehensible Father is, incomprehensible Son,
And comprehensible also is the Holy Ghost of none.
The Father is eternal, and the Son eternal so,
And in like sort eternal is
the Holy Ghost also.

And yet though we believe that each of these eternal be :
Yet there but one Eternal is,
and not Eternals three.

As ne incomprehensible we,
ne yet uncreate three,
But one incomprehensible, one uncreate hold to be.

Almighty so the Father is,
the Son Almighty so,
And in like sort Almighty is
the Holy Ghost also.
And albeit that every one of these Almighty be ;
Yet there but one Almighty is,
and not Almighties three.

The Father God is, God the Son,
God Holy Ghost also :
Yet are there not three Gods at all,
but one God, and no mo.
So likewise Lord the Father is,
and Lord also the Son,
And Lord the Holy Ghost : yet are there not three Lords, but one.

For as we are compell'd to grant
by Christian verity,
Each of the persons by himself
both God and Lord to be :
So Catholick Religion
forbiddeth us alway,
That either Gods be three, or that there Lords be three, to say.

Of none the Father is, ne made,
ne create, nor begot :
The Son is of the Father, not create, ne made, but got :
The Holy Ghost is of them both,
the Father and the Son ;
Ne made, ne create, nor begot,
but doth proceed alone.

So we one Father hold, not three,
one Son also, not three,
One Holy Ghost alone, and not three Holy Ghosts to be.
None in this Trinity before nor after other is :
Ne greater any than the rest,
ne lesser be likewise.

But every one among themselves
Of all the persons three,
Together coeternal all,
and all coequal be.
So Unity in Trinity,
as said it is before,
And Trinity in Unity
in all things we adore.

Therefore what man soever that
salvation will attain,
This faith touching the Trinity of force he must retain.

8 Quicunque vult. The Lamentation of a sinner. The Lord's Prayer.

And needful to eternal life
it is, that every wight
Of the incarnating of Christ
our Lord believe aright.

For this the right faith is, That we believe and eke do know,
That Christ our Lord the Son of God,
is God and Man also:
God of his Father's substance got
before the world began,
And of his Mother's substance born
in world a very man:

Both perfect God and perfect Man
in one, one Jesus Christ:
That doth of reasonable soul
and humane flesh subist.
Touching his Godhead, equal with his Father God is he:
Touching his Manhood, lower than his Father in degree.

Who though he be both very God
and very man also,
Yet is he but one Christ alone,
and is not persons two.
One not by turning of Godhead
into the flesh of Man;
But by taking manhood to God,
this being one began.

All one, not by confounding of
the substance into one;
But onely by the Unity
That is of one Person.
For as the reasonable soul
and flesh but one man is:
So in one Person God and Man
is but one Christ likewise.

Who suffered for to save us all,
to hell he did descend:
The third day rose again from death,
to heaven he did ascend.
He sits at the right hand of God
th' Almighty Father there:
From thence to judge the quick and dead
again he shall appear.

At whose return all men shall rise
with bodies new restor'd,
And of their own works they shall give account unto the Lord.
And they into eternal life
shall go that have done well:
Who have done ill, shall go into eternal fire to dwell.

This is the Catholick belief;
who doth not faithfully Believe the same, without all doubt
he saved cannot be,

To Father, Son, and holy Ghost,
all glory be therefore:
As in beginning was, is now,
and shall be evermore.

The Lamentation of a sinner.

O Lord, turn not away thy face
From him that lies prostrate,
Lamenting sore his sinful life
Before thy mercy gate.

Which gate thou openest wide to those
That do lament their sin:
Shut not that gate against me, Lord,
But let me enter in.

And call me not to mine account
How I have lived here:
For then I know right well, O Lord,
How vile I shall appear.

I need not to confesse my life,
I am sure thou canst tell:
What I have been, and what I am,
I know thou knowst it well.

O Lord, thou know'st what things be past,
And eke the things that be:
Thou know'st also what is to come,
Nothing is hid from thee.

Before the heavens and earth were made,
Thou know'st what things were then,
As all things else that have been since
Among the sons of men.

And can the things that I have done
Be hidden from thee then?
Nay, nay, thou know'st them all, O Lord,
Where they were done, and when.

Wherefore with tears I come to thee
To beg and to intreat,
Even as the child that hath done ill,
And feareth to be beat.

So come I to thy mercy gate,
Where mercy doth abound
Requiring mercy for my sin,
To heal my deadly wound.

O Lord, I need not to repeat
What I do beg or crave:
Thou know'st, O Lord, before I ask,
The thing that I would have.

Mercy, good Lord, mercy I ask,
This is the total sum:
For mercy, Lord, is all my suit,
Lord, let thy mercy come.

The Lord's Prayer, or Pater Noster.

O UR Father which in heaven art,
Lord Hallowed be thy Name:
Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, even as the same In heaven is. Give us, O Lord, our daily bread this day.

The X. Commandments. The Complaint of a sinner.

As we forgive our debtors, so forgive our debts we pray,
Into temptation lead us not,
from evil make us free.
For kingdom, power, and glory thine,
both now and ever be.

The X. Commandments.

Audi, Israel. Exod. 20.

HEark Israel, and what I say
give heed to understand;
I am the Lord thy God that brought thee out of Egypt land, Even from the house wherein thou didst
in thralldom live a slave.
None other Gods at all, before my presence shalt thou have.

No manner graven image shalt thou make at all to thee;
Nor any figure like by thee
shall counterfeited be,
Of any thing in heaven above,
nor in the earth below,
Nor in waters beneath the earth:
to them thou shalt not bowe,

Nor shalt them serve: the Lord thy God,
a jealous God am I,
That punish Parents faults unto
the third and fourth degree,
Upon their children that me hate:
and mercy do display
To thousands of such as me love,
and my precepts obey.

The Name thou of the Lord thy God
in vain shalt never use:
For him that takes his Name in vain
the Lord will not excuse.
Remember that thou holy keep
the sacred Sabbath-day:
Six days thou labour shalt, and do thy needful works alway.

The seventh day is set by the Lord
thy God to rest upon;
No work then shalt thou do in it,
ne thou, nor yet thy son,
Thy daughter, servant, nor thy maid,
thine ox, nor yet thine ass,
Nor stranger that within thy gates
hath his abiding-place:

For in six days God heaven and earth,
and all therein did make,
And after those his rest he did
upon the seventh day take.
Wherefore he blest the day that he
for resting did ordain,
And sacred to himself alone
appointed to remain.

Yield honour to thy Parents, that prolong'd thy days may be Upon the land the which the Lord
thy God hath given thee.
Thou shalt not murder. Thou shalt not commit adultery.
Thou shalt not steal. Nor witness false against thy neighbour be.
Thou shalt not covet house that to thy neighbour doth belong:
Ne covet shalt in having of his Wife to do him wrong.
Nor his man-servant, nor his maid,
nor ox, nor ass of his,
Nor any other thing that to thy neighbour proper is.

The Complaint of a sinner.

WHere righteousness doth say,
Lord, for my sinful part,
In wrath thou should'st me pay Vengeance for my desert:
I can it not deny,
But needs I must confess,
How that continually,
Thy laws I do transgress,
Thy laws I do transgress.

But if it be thy will
With sinners to contend,
Then all thy flock shall spill,
And be lost without end.
For who lives here so right,
That rightly he can say,
He sins not in thy sight
Full oft and every day? Full oft, &c.

The Scripture plain tells me,
The righteous man offendeth
Seven times a day to thee,
Whereon thy wrath dependeth:
So that the righteous man
Doth walk in no such path,
But he falls now and then
In danger of thy wrath, In danger, &c.

Then sith the case so stands,
That even the man right wise
Fall oft in sinful bands,
Whereby thy wrath may rise;
Lord, I that am unjust,
And righteousness none have,
Whereto then shall I trust
My sinful soul to save? My sinful, &c.

But truly to that post
Whereto I cleave and shall,
Which is thy mercy most,
Lord, let thy mercy fall,
And mitigate thy mood,
Nor else we perish all,
The price of this thy blood,
Wherein mercy I call, Wherein, &c.

B

The

The Complaint of a sinner.

The Scripture doth declare
No drop of blood in thee,
But that thou didst not spare
To shed each drop for me.
Now let those drops most sweet
So moist my heart so dry,
That I with sin replete,
May live, and sin may die, May live, &c.

That having mortified
This sin of mine in me,
I may be sanctified
By grace of thine in thee:

So that I never fall
Into such mortal sin,
That my foes infernal
Rejoice my death therein, Rejoice my, &c.

But vouchsafe me to keep
From those infernal foes,
And from that lake so deep,
Whereas no mercy grows.
And I shall sing the songs Confirmed with the just,
That unto thee belongs,
Which art my onely trust, Which art, &c.

THE

The PSALMS of DAVID in Metre.

Beatus vir. Psal. i. T. S.

TH E man is blest that hath not bent
to wicked read his ear:
Nor led his life as sinners do,
nor fate in scorn's chair.
2 But in the law of God the Lord
doth set his whole delight:
And in that law doth exercise
himself both day and night.

3 He shall be like the tree that grows
fast by the rivers side:
Which bringeth forth most pleasant fruit
in her due time and tide.

Whose leaf shall never fade nor fall,
but flourish still and stand:
Even so all things shall prosper well,
that this man takes in hand.

4 So shall not the ungodly men,
they shall be nothing so:

But as the dust which from the earth
the wind drives to and fro.

5 Therefore shall not the wicked men
in judgment stand upright:
Nor yet the sinners with the just
shall come in place or fight.

6 For why the way of godly men unto the Lord is known:
And eke the way of wicked men
shall quite be overthrown.

Quare fremuerunt? Psal. ii. T. S.

WH Y did the Gentiles tumults raise?
what rage was in their brain?
Why did the Jewish people muse,
seeing all is but vain?

2 The kings and rulers of the earth
conspire and are all bent Against the Lord and Christ his Son,
which he among us sent.

3 Shall we be bound to them? say they;
let all their bonds be broke:
And of their doctrine and their law
let us reject the yoke.

4 But he that in the heaven dwells,
their doings will deride:
And make them all as mocking-stocks
throughout the world so wide.

5 For in his wrath the Lord will say
to them upon a day:
And in his fury trouble them,
and then the Lord will say,

6 I have anointed him my King
upon my holy hill:
I will therefore, Lord, preach thy law,
and eke declare thy will.

7 For in this wise the Lord himself
did say to me I wot, Thou art my dear and onely Son,
to day I thee begot.

8 All people I will give to thee,
as heirs at thy request:
The ends and coasts of all the earth
by thee shall be possesst.

9 Thou shalt them bruise even with a mace,
as men under foot trod:
And as the potters sherds, shalt break
them with an iron rod.

10 Now ye, O Kings and Rulers all,
be wise therefore and learn'd,
By whom the matters of the world
be judged and discern'd.

11 See that ye serve the Lord above
in trembling and in fear:
See that with reverence ye rejoice
to him in like manner.

12 See that ye kiss and eke embrace
his blessed Son, I say, Left in his wrath ye suddenly perish in the mid-way.

13 If once his wrath never so small
shall kindle in his breast:
O then all they that trust in Christ
shall happy be and blest.

Domine, quid. Psal. iii. T. S.

O Lord, how are my foes increast,
which vex me more and more?
They kill my heart whereas they say,
God can him not restore.

2 But thou, O Lord, art my defence,
when I am hard bestead:

3 My worship and mine honour both,
and thou hold'st up my head.

4 Then with my voice upon the Lord
I did both call and cry:
And he out of his holy hill
did hear me by and by.

5 I laid me down, and quietly
I slept, and rose again:
For why? I know assuredly
the Lord will me sustain.

6 If ten thousand had hent'd me,
I could not be afraid:
For thou art still my Lord and God,
my Saviour and mine aid.

Rise up therefore, save me my God,
for now to thee I call,
7 For thou hast broke the cheeks and teeth
of these wicked men all.

- 8 Salvation only doth belong
to thee O Lord above: Thou dost bestow upon thy folk thy blessing and thy love.

Cum invocarem. Psal. iv. T. S.

O GOD that art my righteousness,
Lord hear me when I call.
Thou hast set me at liberty,
when I was bound and thrall.
2 Have mercy, Lord, therefore on me,
and grant me my request:
For unto thee unceasingly
to cry I will not rest.

3 O mortal men, how long will ye my glory thus despise?
Why wander ye in vanity,
and follow after lyes?

4 Know ye that good and godly men
the Lord doth take and chuse:
And when to him I make my plaint,
he doth me not refuse.

5 Sin not but stand in awe therefore examine well your heart:
And in your chamber quietly
see you your selves convert.

6 Offer to God the sacrifice
of righteousness, I say,
And look that in the living Lord
you put your trust alway.

7 The greater sort crave worldly goods,
and riches do embrace:

But, Lord, grant us thy countenance,
thy favour and thy grace.

8 For thou thereby shalt make my heart
more joyful and more glad,
Than they that of their corn and wine
full great increase have had.

9 In peace therefore lie down will I,
taking my rest and sleep:

For thou onely wilt me, O Lord,
alone in safety keep:

Verba mea auribus. Psal. v. T. S.

I Ncline thine ears unto my words,

O Lord, my plaint consider:

2 And hear my voice, my King, my God,
to thee I make my prayer.

3 Hear me betime, Lord, tarry not,
for I will have respect,

My prayer early in the morn
to thee for to direct:

4 And will trust through patience
in thee my God alone:

Thou art not pleas'd with wickedness,
and ill with thee dwells none,

5 And in thy sight shall never stand
these furious fools, O Lord:

Psal. iv, v, vi.

Vain workers of iniquity,
thou hast always abhorr'd.

6 The liars and the flatterers,
thou shalt destroy them than:
And God will hate the bloud-thirsty,
and the deceitful man.

7 Therefore will I come to thine house,
trusting upon thy grace:
And reverently will worship thee
toward thine holy place.

8 Lord, lead me in thy righteousness,
for to confound my foes:
And eke the way that I shall walk
before my face disclose.

9 For in their mouths there is no truth,
their heart is foul and vain:
Their throat an open sepulchre,
their tongues do glose and fain.

10 Destroy their false conspiracies,
that they may come to nought:
Subvert them in their heaps of sin,
which have rebellion wrought.

11 But those that put their trust in thee,
let them be glad always,
And render thanks for thy defence,
and give thy name the praise.

12 For thou with favour wilt increase the just and righteous still:
And with thy grace, as with a shield,
defend him from all ill.

Domine, ne in furore. Psal. vi. T. S.

L Ord, in thy wrath reprove me not,
though I deserve thine ire:
Ne yet correct me in thy rage,
O Lord, I thee desire.

2 For I am weak, therefore, O Lord,
of mercy me forbear:
And heal me, Lord; for why? thou know'st
my bones do quake for fear.

3 My soul is troubled very sore,
and vexed vehemently:
But Lord, how long wilt thou delay
to cure my misery?

4 Lord, turn thee to thy wonted grace,
my silly soul up take:

O save me, not for my deserts,
but for thy mercies sake.

5 For why? no man among the dead
remembreth thee one whit:

Or who shall worship thee, O Lord,
in the infernal pit?

6 So grievous is my plaint and moan,
that I wax wondrous faint:
All the night long I wash my bed
with tears of my complaint.

- 7 My ſight is dim, and waxeth old
with anguiſh of my heart,
For fear of thoſe that be my foes,
and would my ſoul ſubvert.
8 But now away from me, all ye
that work iniquity;
For why? the Lord hath heard the voice
of my complaint and cry.
9 He heard not only the requeſt
and prayer of my heart:
But it received at my hands,
and took it in good part.
10 And now my foes that vexed me
the Lord will ſoon deſame:
And ſuddenly confound them all,
to their rebuke and ſhame.

Domine Deus meus. Pſal. vii. T. S.

O Lord my God, I put my truſt
and confidence in thee:
Save me from them that me purſue,
and eke deliver me.

2 Left like a lion he me tear
and rend in pieces ſmall, While there is none to ſuccour me
and rid me out of thrall.

3 O Lord my God, if I have done
the thing that is not right,
Or elſe if I be found in fault,
or guilty in thy fight:

4 Or to my friend rewarded ill,
or left him in diſtreſs,
Which me purſu'd moſt cruelly,
and hated me cauſleſs:

5 Then let my foes purſue my ſoul,
and eke my life down thruſt Unto the earth, and alſo lay mine honour in the duſt.

6 Start up, O Lord, now in thy wrath,
and put my foes to pain:
Perform the Kingdom promiſed
to me which wrong ſuſtain.

7 Then ſhall great nations come to thee;
and know thee by this thing,
If thou declare for love of them,
thy ſelf as Lord and King.

8 And as thou art of all men Judge,
O Lord, now judge thou me
According to my righteouſneſs
and mine integrity.

The ſecond part.

9 Lord, ceaſe the hate of wicked men,
and be the juſt man's guide:

10 By whom the ſecrets of all hearts
are ſearched and deſcry'd.

11 I take my help to come of God,
in all my pain and ſmart,

That doth preſerve all thoſe that be
of pure and perfect heart.

12 The juſt man and the wicked both
God judgeth by his power:
So that he feels his mighty hand
even every day and hour.

13 Except he change his mind, I die;
for even as he ſhould ſmite,
He whets his ſword, his bow he bends,
aiming where he may hit:

14 And doth prepare his mortal darts,
his arrows keen and ſharp,
For them that do me perſecute,
whiſt he doth miſchief warp.

15 But lo, though he in travail be
of his devilish forecaſt,
And of his miſchief once conceiv'd
yet brings forth nought at laſt.

16 He digs a ditch and delves it deep;
in hope to hurt his brother:
But he ſhall fall into the pit
that he dig'd up for other.

17 Thus wrong returneth to the hurt
of him in whom it bred,
And all the miſchief that he wrought
ſhall fall upon his head.

18 I will give thanks to God therefore that judgeth righteouſly,
And with my ſong will praiſe the name
of him that is moſt high.

Domine Deus noſter. Pſal. viii. T. S.

O God our Lord, how wonderful
are thy works every where,
Whoſe ſame ſurmounts in dignity
above the heavens clear:

2 Even by the mouth of ſucking babes
thou wilt confound thy foes:
For in thoſe babes thy might is ſeen,
thy graces they diſcloſe.

3 And when I ſee the heavens high,
the works of thine own hand,
The Sun, the Moon, and all the Stars,
in order as they ſtand:

4 What thing is man, Lord, think I then,
that thou doſt him remember?
Or what is mans poſterity,
that thou doſt it conſider?

5 For thou haſt made him little leſſ
than angels in degree:
And thou haſt crown'd him alſo
with glory and dignity.

6 Thou haſt preferr'd him to be lord
of all thy works of wonder:
And at his feet haſt ſet all things,
that he ſhould keep them under.

7 As ſheep, and neat, and all beaſts elſe,
that in the fields do feed:

- 8 Fowls of the air, fiſh in the ſea,
and all that therein breed.
9 Therefore muſt I ſay once again,
O God that art our Lord,
How famous and how wonderful
are thy works through the world!

Confuebor tibi, Domine. Pſal. ix. T. S.

With heart and mouth unto the Lord
will I ſing laud and praiſe:
And ſpeak of all thy wondrous works,
and them declare always.

- 2 I will be glad and much reioice
in thee, O God moſt high:
And make my ſongs extol thy name
above the ſtarry ſky.
3 For that my foes are driven back
and turned unto flight:
They fall down flat, and are deſtroyc'd
by thy great power and might.
4 Thou haſt revenged all my wrong,
my grief and all my grudge:
Thou doſt with juſtice hear my cauſe,
moſt like a righteous judge.
5 Thou doſt rebuke the heathen folk,
and wicked ſo confound,
That afterward the memory
of them cannot be found.
6 My foes thou haſt made good diſpatch,
and all their towns deſtroyc'd:
Thou haſt their fame with them deſac'd,
through all the world ſo wide.
7 Know thou that he which is above
for evermore ſhall reign,
And in the ſeat of equity
true judgment will maintain.
8 With juſtice he will keep and guide
the world and every wight:
And ſo will yield with equity
to every man his right.
9 He is proteſtour of the poor
what time they be oppreſt:
He is in all adverſity
their refuge and their reſt.
10 And they that know thy holy Name,
therefore ſhall truſt in thee:
For thou forſakeſt not their ſuit
in their neceſſity.

The ſecond part.

- 11 Sing pſalms therefore unto the Lord
that dwells on Sion hill, Publish among all nations
his noble acts and will.
12 For he is mindful of the bloud
of thoſe that be oppreſt:
Forgetting not th' afflicted heart
that ſeeks to him for reſt.

- 13 Have mercy, Lord, on me poor wretch,
whoſe enemies ſtill remain,
Which from the gates of death are wont
to raiſe me up again.

- 14 In Sion that I might ſet forth
thy praiſe with heart and voice,
And that in thy ſalvation, Lord,
my ſoul might ſtill reioice.

- 15 The heathen ſtick faſt in the pit
that they themſelves prepar'd,
And in the net that they did ſet
their own feet faſt are ſnar'd.

- 16 God ſhews his judgments which were good for every man to mark,
When as ye ſee the wicked man
lie trapt in his own wark.

- 17 The wicked and deceitful men
go down to hell for ever.
And all the people of the world,
that will not God remember.

- 18 But ſure the Lord will not forget
the poor man's grief and pain:
The patient people never look for help of God in vain.

- 19 O Lord ariſe leſt men prevail,
that be of worldly might:
And let the heathen folk receive,
their judgment in thy ſight.

- 20 Lord ſtrike ſuch terror, fear, and dread
into the hearts of them:
That they may know aſſuredly,
they be but mortal men.

Ut quid, domine. Pſal. x. T. S.

What is the cauſe that thou, O Lord,
art now ſo far from thine?

- And keep'eſt cloſe thy countenance
from us this troublous time?

- 2 The poor do periſh by the proud
and wicked mens deſire:

- Let them be taken in the craft
that they themſelves conſpire.

- 3 For in the luſt of his own heart
th' ungodly doth delight,
So doth the wicked praiſe himſelf,
and doth the Lord deſpise.

- 4 He is ſo proud that right and wrong
he ſetteth all apart:

- Nay, nay, there is no God, ſaith he,
for thus he thinks in heart.

- 5 Becauſe his ways do proſper ſtill,
he doth thy laws neglect:
And with blaſt doth puff againſt
ſuch as would him correct.

- 6 Tuſh, tuſh, ſaith he, I have no dread
leſt mine eſtate ſhould change:
And why? for all adverſity
to him is very ſtrange.

- 7 His mouth is full of cursedness,
of fraud, deceit, and guile:
Under his tongue doth mischief sit,
and travail all the while.
8 He lieth hid in ways and holes
to slay the Innocent:
Against the poor that pass him by his cruel eyes are bent.
9 And like a lion privily
lies lurking in his den,
If he may snare them in his net,
to spoil poor simple men.
And for the nonce full craftily
he croucheth down, I say:
11 So are great heaps of poor men made by his strong power his prey.

The second part.

- 12 Tush, God forgetteth this, saith he,
therefore I may be bold:
His countenance is cast aside,
he doth it not behold.
13 Arise, O Lord, O God in whom the poor mans hope doth rest:
Lift up thy hand, forget not, Lord,
the poor that be oppressed.
14 What blasphemy is this to thee,
Lord, dost thou not abhor it?
To hear the wicked in their heart
say, tush thou canst not for it?
15 But thou seest all their wickedness
and well dost understand,
That friendless and poor fatherless
are left into thy hand.
16 Of wicked and malicious men,
then break the power for ever:
That they with their iniquity
may perish altogether.
17 The Lord shall reign for evermore,
as King and God alone:
And he will chase the heathen folk,
out of the land each one.
18 Thou hear'st, O Lord, the poor mens plaint,
their prayers and request:
Their hearts thou wilt confirm until thine ears to hear be prest.
19 To judge the poor and fatherless,
and help them to their right:
That they may be no more oppressed
by men of worldly might.

In Domino confido. Psal. xi. T. S.

- I Trust in God, how dare ye then say thus my soul until?
Fly hence as fast as any fowl,
and hide you in your hill.
2 Behold the wicked bend their bows,
and make their arrows prest,

To shoot in secret, and to hurt
the sound and harmless brest.

3 Of worldly hope all stays were shrunk,
and clearly brought to nought:
Alas, the just and righteous man,
what evil hath he wrought?

4 But he that in his temple is most holy and most high,
And in the heavens hath his seat
of royal majesty,

The poor and simple mans estate
considereth in his mind,
And searcheth out full narrowly
the manners of mankind;
5 And with a chearful countenance
the righteous man will use:
But in his heart he doth abhor
all such as mischief muse;

6 And on the sinners casteth snares
as thick as any rain,
Fire and brimstone, and whirlwinds thick,
appointed for their pain.

7 Ye see then how a righteous God
doth righteousness embrace,
And to the just and upright men
shews forth his pleasant face.

Saluum me fac. Psal. xii. T. S.

Help, Lord, for good and godly men
do perish and decay:
And faith and truth from worldly men
is parted clean away.

2 Whoso doth with his neighbour talk,
his talk is all but vain:
For every man bethinketh how to flatter, lye, and feign.

3 But flattering and deceitful lips,
and tongues that be so stout
To speak proud words and make great brags
the Lord soon cuts them out.

4 For they say still, We will prevail,
our tongues shall us extol:
Our tongues are ours, we ought to speak;
what Lord shall us controul?

5 But for the great complaint and cry
of poor and men oppressed, Arise will I now, saith the Lord,
and them restore to rest.

6 Gods word is like to silver pure,
that from the earth is tri'd,
And hath no less than seven times
in fire been purif'd.

7 Now sith thy promise is to help,
Lord, keep thy promise then:
And save us now and evermore
from this ill kind of men.

8 For now the wicked world is full of mischiefs manifold,

When

When vanity with worldly men
so highly is extoll'd.

Usque quo, Domine. Psal. xiii. T. S.

HOW long wilt thou forget me Lord,
shall I ne'er be remembered?

How long wilt thou thy visage hide,
as though thou wert offended?

2 In heart and mind how long shall I with care tormented be?

How long eke shall my deadly foes
thus triumph over me?

3 Behold me now, my Lord my God,
and hear me sore oppress,

Lighten mine eyes, lest that I sleep
as one by death posselt:

4 Lest that mine enemy say to me,
behold, I do prevail:

Lest they also that hate my soul,
rejoice to see me quail.

5 But from thy mercy and goodness
my hope shall never start:

In thy relief and saving health
right glad shall be my heart.

6 I will give thanks unto the Lord,
and praises to him sing:

Because he hath heard my request,
and granted my wishing.

Dixit insipiens. Psal. xiv. T. S.

THere is no God, as foolish men
affirm in their mad mood:

Their drifts are all corrupt and vain,
not one of them doth good:

2 The Lord beheld from heaven high
the whole race of mankind;

And saw not one that sought indeed
the living God to find.

3 They went all wide and were corrupt,
and truly there was none

That in the world did any good,
I say, there was not one.

4 Is all their judgment so far lost,
that all work mischief still?

Eating my People even as bread,
not one to seek God's will:

5 When they thus rage, then suddenly great fear on them shall fall:

For God doth love the righteous men,
and will maintain them all.

6 Ye mock the doings of the poor,
to their reproach and shame:

Because they put their trust in God,
and call upon his Name.

7 But who shall give thy people health,
and when wilt thou fulfil

Thy promise made to Israel,
from out of Zion hill?

8 Even when thou shalt restore again
such as were captive led,
Then Jacob shall therein rejoice,
and Israel shall be glad.

Domine, quis. Psal. xv. T. S.

O Lord, within thy tabernacle
who shall inhabit still?

Or whom wilt thou receive to dwell
in thy most holy hill?

2 The man whose life is uncorrupt,
whose works are just and streight:
whose heart doth think the very truth,
whose tongue speaks no deceit.

3 Nor to his neighbour doth none ill
in body, goods, or name,

Nor willingly doth move false tales,
which might impair the same.

4 That in his heart regardeth not malicious wicked men:

But those that love and fear the Lord
he maketh much of them.

5 His oath and all his promises
that keepeth faithfully,
Although he make his covenant so that he doth lose thereby.

6 That putteth not to usury
his money and his coin, Ne for to hurt the innocent
doth bribe or else purloin.

7 Who doth all things as you see that here is to be done,
Shall never perish in this world,
nor in the world to come.

Conserua me. Psal. xvi. T. S.

Lord, keep me; for I trust in thee,
and do confess indeed

Thou art my God and of my goods,
O Lord, thou hast no need.

2 I give my goods unto the saints
that in the world do dwell,
And namely to the faithful flock
in virtue that excel.

3 They shall heap sorrows on their heads
which run as they were mad
To offer to the idol gods,
alas it is too bad.

4 As for their bloody sacrifice,
and offerings of that sort,
I will not touch, nor yet thereof
my lips shall make report.

5 For why? the Lord the portion is of mine inheritance:
And thou art he that dost maintain
my rent, my lot, my chance.

6 The place wherein my lot did fall,
in beauty did excel.

Mine heritage assign'd to me
doth please me wondrous well.

7 I thank the Lord that caused me
to understand the right :
For by his means my secret thoughts
do teach me every night.
8 I set the Lord still in my sight,
and trust him over all :
For he doth stand on my right hand,
therefore I shall not fall.

9 Wherefore my heart and tongue also do both rejoice together :
My flesh and body rest in hope,
when I this thing consider :
10 Thou wilt not leave my soul in grave,
for, Lord, thou lovest me :
Nor yet wilt give thy holy one corruption for to see.

11 But wilt me teach the way to life ;
for all treasure and store
Of perfect joy are in thy face,
and power for evermore.

Exaudi, Domine. Psal xvii. T. S.

O Lord, give ear to my just cause,
attend when I complain :
And hear the prayer that I put forth
with lips that do not fain.

2 And let the Judgment of my cause proceed always from thee :
And let thine eyes behold and clear
this my simplicity.

3 Thou hast well try'd me in the night,
and yet could'st nothing find
That I have spoken with my tongue
that was not in my mind.

4 As for the works of wicked Men,
and paths perverse and ill,
For love of thy most holy Name,
I have refrained still.

5 Then in thy paths that be most pure
stay me, Lord, and preserve :
That from the way wherein I walk
my steps may never swerve :

6 For I do call to thee, O Lord,
surely thou wilt me aid :

Then hear my prayer, and weigh right well
the words that I have said.

7 O thou the Saviour of all them
That put their trust in thee,
Declare thy strength on them that spurn,
against thy Majesty.

8 O keep me as thou wouldst keep
the apple of thine eye :
And under covert of thy wings
defend me secretly.

The second part.

9 From wicked Men that trouble me
and daily me annoy,
And from my foes that go about
my soul for to destroy :

10 Which wallow in their worldly wealth,
so full and eke so fat,
That in their pride they do not spare
to speak they care not what.

11 They lie in wait where I should pass,
with craft me to confound :
And musing Mischief in their minds,
to cast me to the ground.

12 Much like a lion greedily,
that would his prey embrace :
Or lurking like a lion's whelp
within some secret place.

13 Up Lord in haste, prevent my foe,
and cast him at thy feet :
Save thou my soul from the ill Man,
and with thy sword him smite.

14 Deliver me, Lord, by thy power
out of these tyrants hands :
Which now so long time reigned have,
and kept us in their bands.

15 I mean from worldly men, to whom
all worldly goods are rife,
That have no hope nor part of joy
but in this present life.

16 Thou of thy store their bellies fill'st
with pleasure to their mind :
Their children have enough, and leave
to theirs the rest behind.

17 But I shall with pure conscience
behold thy gracious face :
So when I wake I shall be full of thine image and grace.

Diligam te, Dom. Psal. xviii. T. S.

O God my strength and fortitude,
of force I must love thee :
Thou art my castle and defence
in my necessity.

2 My God, my rock in whom I trust,
the worker of my wealth :
My refuge, buckler, and my shield,
the horn of all my health.

3 When I sing laud unto the Lord
most worthy to be served,
Then from my foes I am right sure that I shall be preserved.

4 The pangs of death did compass me,
and bound me every where :
The flowing waves of wickedness
did put me in great fear.

5 The fly and subtil snares of hell
were round about me set :

And for my death there was prepar'd
a deadly trapping net.

6 I thus beset with pain and grief,
did pray to God for grace :
And he forthwith did hear my plaint
out of his holy place.

7 Such is his power that in his wrath
he made the earth to quake, Yea, the foundation of the mount
of Basan for to shake.

8 And from his nostrils came a smoke,
when kindled was his ire :
And from his mouth came kindled coals
of hot consuming fire.

9 The Lord descended from above,
and bow'd the heavens high ;
And underneath his feet he cast
the darkness of the skie.

10 On cherubs and on cherubims
full royally he rode :
And on the wings of all the winds
came flying all abroad.

The second part.

11 And like a den most dark he made his hid and secret place :
With waters black and airy clouds
environed he was.

12 But when the presence of his face
in brightness shall appear :
Then clouds consume, and in their stead
come hail and coals of fire.

13 The fiery darts and thunderbolts,
disperse them here and there :
And with his often lightnings :
he puts them in great fear.

14 Lord, at thy wrath and threatenings,
and at thy chiding cheer,
The springs and the foundations
of all the world appear.

15 And from above the Lord sent down
to fetch me from below,
And pluckt me out of waters great,
that would me overflow.

16 And me delivered from my foes
that would have made me thrall :
Yea, from such foes as were too strong
for me to deal withall.

17 They did prevent me to oppress
in time of my great grief :
But yet the Lord was my defence,
my succour and relief.

18 He brought me forth in open place,
whereas I might be free,
And kept me safe, because he had a favour unto me.

19 And as I was an innocent,
so did he me regard,

And to the cleanness of my hands
he gave me my reward :

20 For that I walked in his ways,
and in his paths have trod,
And have not wavered wickedly
against my Lord and God.

The third part.

21 But evermore I have respect
to his law and decree :
His statutes and commandments
I cast not out from me.

22 But pure and clean, and uncorrupt
appear'd before his face,
And did refrain from wickedness
and sin in any case.

23 The Lord therefore will me reward
as I have done aright :
And to the cleanness of my hands,
appearing in his sight.

24 For, Lord, with him that holy is wilt thou be holy too,
And with the good and vertuous men
right virtuously wilt do.

25 And to the loving and clef
thy love thou wilt reserve :
And thou wilt use the wicked men
as wicked men deserve.

26 For thou dost save the simple folk
in trouble when they lie,
And dost bring down the countenance
of them that look full high.

27 The Lord will light my candle so that it shall shine full bright :
The Lord my God will make also
my darkness to be light.

28 For by thy help an host of men discomfit, Lord, I shall :
By thee I scale and overleap
the strength of any wall.

29 Unspotted are the ways of God,
his word is purely tri'd :
He is a sure defence to such as in his faith abide.

30 For who is God except the Lord ?
for other there is none :
Or else who is omnipotent,
saving our God alone ?

The fourth part.

31 The God that girdeth me with strength,
is he that I do mean,
That all the ways wherein I walk
did evermore keep clean.

32 That made my feet like to the harts
in swiftness of my pace,
And for my surety brought me forth
into an open place.

33 He did in order put my hands
to battle and to fight :
To break in sunder bars of brass
he gave my arms the might.
34 Thou teachest me thy saving health,
thy right hand is my tower :
Thy love and familiarity
doth still increase my power.

35 And under me thou makest plain
the way where I should walk,
So that my feet shall never slip,
nor stumble at a balk.

36 And fiercely I pursue and take
my foes that me annoy'd :
And from the field do not return
till they be all destroy'd.

37 So I suppress and wound my foes,
that they can rise no more :
For at my feet they fall down flat,
I strike them all so sore.

38 For thou dost gird me with thy strength
to war in such a wise,
That they be all scatter'd abroad
that up against me rise.

39 Lord, thou hast put into my hands
my mortal enemies yoke :
And all my foes thou dost divide
in sunder with thy stroke.

40 They call'd for help, but none gave ear,
nor help them with relief :
Yea, to the Lord they call'd for help,
yet heard he not their grief.

The fifth part.

41 And still like dust before the wind
I drive them under feet,
And sweep them out like filthy clay
that sticketh in the street.

42 Thou keep'st me from seditious folk that still in strife are led :
And thou dost of the heathen folk appoint me to be head.

43 A people strange to me unknown,
and yet they shall me serve :
And at the first obey my word,
whereas mine own will swerve.

44 I shall be irksome to mine own,
they will not see my light :
But wander wide out of the way,
and hide them out of sight.

45 But blessed be the living Lord,
most worthy of all praise,
That is my rock and saving health,
praised be he always

46 For God it is that gave me power, revenged for to be,
And with his holy word subdu'd
the people unto me.

47 And from my foe delivered me,
and set me higher than those
That cruel and ungodly were,
and up against me rose.

48 And for this cause, O Lord my God,
to thee give thanks I shall,
And sing out praises to thy Name
among the Gentiles all.

49 That gavest great prosperity
unto the king, I say,
To David thine anointed king,
and to his seed for ay.

Celi enarrans. Psal. xix. T. S.

THE heavens and the firmament
do wondrously declare
The glory of God omnipotent,
his works and what they are.

2 The wondrous works of God appear
by every days success:

The nights likewise which their race run,
the self-same thing express.

3 There is no language, tongue, or speech,
where their found is not heard,
In all the earth and coasts thereof
their knowledge is conferr'd.

4 In them the Lord made for the sun
a place of great renown,
Who like a bridegroom ready trimm'd
doth from his chamber come.

5 And as a valiant champion,
who for to get a prize,
With joy doth haste to take in hand
some noble enterprize.

6 And all the sky from end to end
he compasseth about :
Nothing can hide it from his heat,
but he will find it out.

7 How perfect is the law of God,
how is his covenant sure,
Converting souls, and making wise
the simple and obscure !

8 Just are the Lords commandements,
and glad both heart and mind :
His precept's pure, and giveth light to eyes that be full blind.

9 The fear of God is excellent,
and doth endure for ever :
The judgments of the Lord are true
and righteous altogether ;

10 And more to be embrac'd alway
than fined Gold, I say :
The honey and the honey-comb
are not so sweet as they.

11 By them thy servant is forewarn'd
to have God in regard,
And in performance of the same
there shall be great reward.

12 But Lord, what earthly man doth know
the errors of his life?
Then cleanse me from my secret sins,
which are in me most rife.

13 And keep me that presumptuous sins
prevail not over me:
And so shall I be innocent,
and great offences flee.

14 Accept my mouth and eke my heart,
my words and thoughts each one:
For my redeemer and my strength,
O Lord, thou art alone.

Exaudiat te Dominus. Pſal. xx. T. S.

IN trouble and adversity
the Lord God hear thee still,
The Majesty of Jacob's God
defend thee from all ill;
2 And send thee from his holy place
his help at every need,
And so in Sion stablish thee
and make thee strong indeed.

3 Remembring well the sacrifice
that now to him is done:
And so receive right thankfully thy burnt-off rings each one.

4 According to thy hearts desire
the Lord grant unto thee,
And all thy counsel and device
full well perform may he.

5 We shall rejoice when thou us sav'st,
and our banners display Unto the Lord, which thy requests fulfilled hath alway.

6 The Lord will his anointed save,
I know well by his grace,
And send him help by his right hand
out of his holy place.

7 In chariots some put confidence,
and some in horses trust:
But we remember God our Lord,
that keepeth promise just.

8 They fall down flat, but we do rise,
and stand up stedfastly.
9 Now save and help us, Lord and King,
on thee when we do cry.

Domine, in virtute. Pſal. xxi. T. S.

O Lord, how joyful is the king
in thy strength and thy power!
How vehemently doth he rejoice
in thee his Saviour!
2 For thou hast given unto him
his godly hearts desire:
To him nothing thou hast deny'd
of that he did require.

3 Thou didst prevent him with thy gifts
and blessings manifold,

And thou hast set upon his head
a crowne of perfect gold.

4 And when he asked life of thee,
thereof thou mad'st him sure,
To have long life, yea such a life
as ever shall endure.

5 Great is his glory by thy help,
thy benefit and aid:
Great worship and great honour both thou hast upon him laid.

6 Thou wilt give him felicity
that never shall decay,
And with thy cheerful countenance
wilt comfort him alway.

7 For why? the King doth strongly trust
in God for to prevail:
Wherefore his goodness and his grace
will not that he shall quail.

8 But let thine enemies feel thy force,
and those that thee withstand:
Find out thy foes, and let them feel
the power of thy right hand.

9 And like an oven burn them, Lord,
in fiery flame and fume:
Thine anger shall destroy them all,
and fire shall them consume.

10 And thou shalt root out of the earth
their fruit that should increase:
And from the number of thy folk
their seed shall end and cease.

11 For why? much mischief did they muse
against thy holy Name:
Yet did they fail, and had no power
for to perform the same.

12 But as a mark thou shalt them set
in a most open place,
And charge thy bow-strings readily
against thine enemies face.

13 Be thou exalted, Lord, therefore in thy strength every hour:
So shall we sing right solemnly,
praising thy might and power.

Deus, Deus meus. Pſal. xxii. T. S.
O God, my God, wherefore dost thou forsake me utterly,
And helpest not when I do make,
my great complaint and cry?

2 To thee my God even all day long
I do both cry and call:
I cease not all the night, and yet
thou hearest not at all.

3 Even thou that in thy sanctuary
and holy place dost dwell,
Thou art the comfort and the joy,
and glory of Israel:

4 And he in whom our fathers old
had all their hope for ever:

And when they put their trust in thee,
thou didst them ay deliver.

5 They were delivered ever when they called on thy Name :
And for the faith they had in thee
they were not put to shame.

6 But I am now become a worm
more like than any Man :
An out-cast whom the people scorn
with all the spite they can.

7 All men despise as they behold
me walking on the way :
They grin, they mow, they nod their heads,
and on this wife they say,

8 This man did glory in the Lord,
his favour and his love,
Let him redeem and help him now,
his power if he will prove.

9 But Lord, out of my mother's womb
I came by thy behest :
Thou didst preserve me still in hope,
while I did suck her breast.

10 I was committed from my birth
with thee to have abode :
Since I was in my mother's womb,
thou hast been e'er my God.

The second part.

11 Then, Lord, depart not now from me
in this my present grief,
Since I have none to be my help,
my succour and relief.

12 So many bulls do compass me:
that be full strong of head :
Yea bulls so fat as though they had in Bathan field been fed.

13 They gape upon me greedily,
as though they would me slay ;
Much like a lion roaring out,
and ramping for his prey.

14 But I drop down like water shed,
my joints in sunder break,
My heart doth in my body melt
like wax against the heat.

15 And like a pottsherd dry'th my strength,
my tongue it cleaveth fast Unto my jaws, and I am brought to dust of death at last.

16 And many dogs do compass me,
and wicked counsel eke
Conspire against me curfildy ;
they pierce my hands and feet.

17 I was tormented so that I might all my bones have told :
Yet still upon me they do look,
and still they me behold.

18 My garments they divided eke
in parts among them all :

And for my coat they did cast lots
to whom it might befall.

19 Therefore, I pray thee, be not far from me at my great need :
But rather, sith thou art my strength,
to help me, Lord, make speed.

20 And from the sword, Lord, save my soul
by thy might and thy power :
And keep my soul thy darling dear,
from dogs that would devour.

21 And from the lions mouth, that would me all in sunder shiver,
And from the horns of unicorns,
Lord, safely me deliver.

22 Then shall I to my brethren all thy majesty record :
And in thy Church shall praise the Name
of thee the living Lord.

The third part.

23 All ye that fear him praise the Lord,
thou Jacob honour him :

And all ye seed of Israel
with reverence worship him.

24 For he despiseth not the poor,
he turneth not awry
His countenance when they do call,
but granteth to their cry.

25 Among the folk that fear the Lord:
I will therefore proclaim Thy praise, and keep my promise made for setting forth thy Name.

26 The poor shall eat and be suffic'd,
and those that do their deaver
To know the Lord, shall praise his Name;
their hearts shall live for ever.

27 All coasts of th' earth shall praise the Lord:
and turn to him for grace :
The heathen folk shall worship him
before his blessed face.

28 The kingdom of the heathen folk the Lord shall have therefore :
And he shall be their Governour
and King for evermore.

29 The rich men of his goodly gifts
shall feed and taste also :
And in his presence worship him
and bow their knees full low.

30 And all that shall go down to dust,
of life by him shall taste :
My seed shall serve and praise the Lord
while any world shall last.

31 My seed shall plainly shew to them
that shall be born hereafter,
His justice and his righteousness,
and all his works of wonder.

Dominus regit me. Pſal. xxiii. W. W.

THE Lord is onely my ſupport,
and he that doth me feed :
How can I then lack any thing
whereof I ſtand in need :
2 He doth me fold in coats moſt ſafe
the tender graſs faſt by :
And after drives me to the ſtreams
which run moſt pleaſantly.
3 And when I feel my ſelf near loſt,
then doth he me home take,
Conducting me in his right paths
even for his own Name's ſake.
4 And though I were even at death's door,
yet would I fear none ill :
For with thy rod and ſhepherd's crook
I am comforted ſtill.
5 Thou haſt my table richly deckt
in deſpite of my foe :
Thou haſt my head with balm reſreſht,
my cup doth overflow.
6 And finally while breath doth laſt,
thy grace ſhall me defend.
And in the houſe of God will I
my life for ever ſpend.

Another of the ſame, by T. S.

MY ſhepherd is the living Lord,
nothing therefore I need ;
In paſtures fair with waters calm
he ſets me forth to feed.
2 He did convert and glad my ſoul,
and brought my mind in frame,
To walk in paths of righteouſneſs,
for his moſt holy Name.
3 Yea, though I walk in vale of death,
yet will I fear none ill :
Thy rod, thy ſtaff doth comfort me,
and thou art with me ſtill.
4 And in the preſence of my foes
my table thou ſhalt ſpread :
Thou ſhalt, O Lord, fill full my cup,
and eke anoint my head.
5 Through all my life thy favour is ſo frankly ſhewed to me
That in thy houſe for evermore
my dwelling-place ſhall be.

Dominus eſt terra. Pſal. xxiv. J. H.

THE earth is all the Lord's, with all her ſtore and furniture :
Yea, his is all the world, and all that therein doth indure.
2 For he hath faſtly founded it
above the ſeas to ſtand ;
And laid aſlow the liquid floods,
to flow beneath the land.

3 For who is he, O Lord, that ſhall
aſcend into thy hill,
Or paſs into thy holy place,
there to continue ſtill ?
4 Whoſe hands are harmleſs, and whoſe heart
no ſpot there doth deſile :
His ſoul not ſet on vanity,
who hath not ſworn to guile.
5 Him that is ſuch a one, the Lord
ſhall place in bliſſful plight,
And God his God and Saviour
ſhall yield to him his right.
6 This is the brood of travellers,
in ſeeking of his grace :
As Jacob did the Iſraelite,
in that time of his race.
7 Ye princes ope your gates, ſtand ope
the everlaſting gate :
For there ſhall enter in thereby
the King of glorious ſtate.
8 Who is the King of glorious ſtate ?
the ſtrong and mighty Lord,
The might Lord in battel ſtout,
and trial of the ſword.
9 Ye princes ope your gates, ſtand ope
the everlaſting gate :
For there ſhall enter in thereby
the King of glorious ſtate.
10 Who is the King of glorious ſtate ?
the Lord of hoſts it is :
The Kingdom and the royalty
of glorious ſtate is his.

Ad te, Domine. Pſal. xxv. T. S.

I Lift my heart to thee,
my God and guide moſt juſt :
Now ſuffer me to take no ſhame,
for in thee do I truſt.
2 Let not my foes rejoice,
nor make a ſcorn of me :
And let them not be overthrowen
that put their truſt in thee.
3 But ſhame ſhall them befall
which harm them wrongfully :
Therefore thy paths and thy right ways
unto me, Lord, deſcry.
4 Direct me in thy truth,
and teach me I thee pray :
Thou art my God and Saviour,
on thee I wait alway.
5 Thy mercies manifold
I pray thee, Lord, remember ;
And eke thy pity plentiful,
for they have been for ever.
6 Remember not the faults
and frailty of my youth :
Remember not how ignorant
I have been of thy truth.

Nor after my deserts
 let me thy mercy find :
 But of thine own benignity
 Lord have me in thy mind.
 7 His mercy is full sweet,
 his truth a perfect guide :
 Therefore the Lord will sinners teach,
 and such as go aside.
 8 The humble he will teach his precepts for to keep :
 He will direct in all his ways
 the lowly and the meek 9 For all the ways of God
 are truth and mercy both,
 To them that keep his testament
 the witness of his troth.

The second part.

10 Now for thy holy Name,
 O Lord, I thee intreat
 To grant me pardon for my sin,
 for it is wondrous great.
 11 Who so doth fear the Lord,
 the Lord will him direct To lead his life in such a way
 as he doth best accept.
 12 His soul shall evermore
 in goodness dwell and stand,
 His seed and his posterity
 inherit shall the Land.
 13 All those that fear the Lord
 know his secret intent :
 And unto them he doth declare his will and testament.
 14 Mine eyes and eke my heart
 to him I will advance,
 That pluckt my feet out of the snare
 of sin and ignorance.
 15 With mercy me behold,
 to thee I make my mone :
 For I am poor and desolate,
 and comfortless alone.
 16 The troubles of my heart
 are multiply'd indeed : Bring me out of this misery,
 necessity and need.
 17 Behold my poverty,
 mine anguish and my pain :
 Remit my sin and mine offence,
 and make me clean again.
 18 O Lord, behold my foes,
 how they do still increase,
 Pursuing me with deadly hate,
 that fain would live in peace.
 19 Preserve and keep my soul,
 and eke deliver me :
 And let me not be overthrown,
 because I trust in thee.

20 Let my simple pureness
 me from mine enemies shend :
 Because I look as one of thine,
 that thou should'st me defend.
 21 Deliver, Lord, thy folk,
 and send them some relief,
 I mean thy chosen Israel,
 from all their pain and grief.

Judica me, Domine. Psal. xxvi. T. S.

Lord, be my Judge, and thou shalt see my paths be right and plain :
 I trust in God, and hope that he will strength me to remain.
 2 Prove me my God, I thee desire
 my ways to search and try :
 As Men do prove their Gold with fire,
 my reins and heart espy.
 3 Thy goodness laid before my face
 I durst behold always :
 For of thy truth I tread the trace,
 and will do all my days.
 4 I do not lust to haunt or use with Men whose deeds are vain :
 To come in house I do refuse
 with the deceitful train.
 5 I much abhor the wicked sort,
 their deeds I do despise :
 I do not once to them resort
 that hurtful things devise.
 6 My hands I wash, and do proceed
 in works to walk upright :
 Then to thine altar I make speed,
 to offer there in sight.
 7 That I may speak and preach the praise
 that doth belong to thee,
 And so declare how wondrous ways
 thou hast been good to me.
 8 O God, thy house I love most dear,
 to me it doth excel :
 I have Delight and would be near
 whereas thy grace doth dwell.
 9 O shut not up my soul with them
 in sin that take their fill ;
 Nor yet my life among those Men
 that seek much blood to spill.
 10 Whose hands are heapt with craft and guile,
 their lives thereof are full :
 And their right hand with wretch and wile
 for bribes doth pluck and pull.
 11 But I in righteousness intend
 my time and days to serve :
 Have mercy, Lord, and me defend
 so that I do not swerve.
 12 My foot is staid for all assays,
 it standeth well and right :
 Wherefore to God will I give praise
 in all the peoples sight.

Dominus illuminatio. Psal. xxvii. J. H.

- THE Lord is both my health and light,
 shall man make me dismayed?
 Sith God doth give me strength and might,
 why should I be afraid?
 2 While that my foes with all their strength
 begin with me to brall,
 And think to eat me up at length
 themselves have caught the fall.
 3 Though they in camp against me lie,
 my heart is not afraid:
 In battel pight if they will try,
 I trust in God for aid
 4 One thing of God I do require,
 that he will not deny:
 For which I pray, and will desire
 till he to me apply:
 5 That I within his holy place
 my life throughout may dwell,
 To see the beauty of his face,
 and view his temple well.
 6 In time of dread he shall me hide
 within his place most pure;
 And keep me secret by his side,
 as on a rock most sure.
 7 At length I know the Lord's good grace
 shall make me strong and stout,
 My foes to foil and clean deface,
 that compass me about.
 8 Therefore within his house will I give sacrifice of praise:
 With psalms and songs I will apply to laud the Lord always.

The second part.

- 9 Lord, hear the voice of my request,
 for which to thee I call:
 Have mercy, Lord, on me oppress,
 and send me help-withall.
 10 My heart doth knowledge unto thee,
 I sue to have thy grace:
 Then seek my face, say'st thou to me;
 Lord, I will seek thy face.
 11 In wrath turn not thy face away,
 nor suffer me to slide:
 Thou art my help still to this day,
 be still my God and guide.
 12 My parents both their son forsook,
 and cast me off at large:
 And then the Lord himself yet took
 of me the care and charge.
 13 Teach me, O Lord, the way to thee,
 and lead me on forth right,
 For fear of such as watch for me,
 to trap me if they might.
 14 Do not betake me to the will
 of them that be my foes:

For they surmise against me still false witness to depose.

- 15 My heart would faint, but that in me
 this hope is fixed fast,
 The Lord God's good grace shall I see
 in life that ay shall last.
 16 Trust still in God whose whole thou art,
 his will abide thou must,
 And he shall ease and strength thy heart,
 if thou in him do trust.

Ad te, Dom. clamabo. Psal. xxviii. T. S.

- THou art, O Lord, my strength and stay,
 the succour which I crave:
 Neglect me not, lest I be like
 to them that go to grave.
 2 The voice of thy suppliant hear,
 that unto thee doth cry,
 When I lift up my hands unto thy holy ark most high.
 3 Repute me not among the sort of wicked and pervert,
 That speak right fair unto their friends,
 and think full ill in heart.
 4 According to their handy-work,
 as they deserve indeed,
 And after their inventions
 let them receive their meed.
 5 For they regard nothing God's works,
 his law, nor yet his lore:
 Therefore will he them and their seed destroy for evermore.
 6 To render thanks unto the Lord
 how great a cause have I,
 My voice, my prayer, and my complaint
 that heard so willingly!
 7 He is my shield and fortitude,
 my buckler in distress:
 My hope, my help, my hearts relief,
 my song shall him confess.
 8 He is our strength and our defence,
 our enemies to resist:
 The health and the salvation
 of his elect by Christ.
 9 Thy people and thine heritage
 Lord, bless, guide, and preserve:
 Increase them, Lord, and rule their hearts,
 that they may never swerve.

Afferte Domino. Psal. xxix. T. S.

- GIVE to the Lord, ye potentates,
 ye rulers of the world,
 Give ye all praise, honour, and strength
 unto the living Lord.
 2 Give glory to his holy Name,
 and honour him alone:
 Worship him in his Majesty
 within his holy throne.

- 3 His voice doth rule the waters all,
even as himself doth please :
He doth prepare the thunder claps,
and governs all the seas.
- 4 The voice of God is of great force,
and wondrous excellent :
It is most mighty in effect,
and most magnificent.
- 5 The voice of God doth rend and break
the cedar-trees so long ;
The cedar-trees of Lebanon,
which are most high and strong :
- 6 And makes them leap like as a calf,
or else the unicorn.
- Not onely trees, but mountains great whereon the trees are born.
- 7 His voice divides the flames of fire,
and shakes the wilderness :
- 8 It makes the desert quake for fear,
that called is Cades.
- 9 It makes the hinds for fear to calve,
and makes the coverts plain :
Then in his temple every man
his glory doth proclaim.
- 10 The Lord was set above the fouds,
ruling the raging sea :
So shall he reign as Lord and King
for ever and for ay.
- 11 The Lord will give his people power
in vertue to increase :
The Lord will bleis his chosen flock
with everlasting peace.

Exaltabate, Domine. Psal. xxx. 7. H.

- A L L laud and praise with heart and voice,
O Lord, I give to thee,
Which didst not make my foes rejoice,
but hast exalted me.
- 2 O Lord my God, to thee I cry'd
in all my pain and grief :
Thou gav'st an ear and didst provide
to ease me with relief.
- 3 Of thy good will thou hast call'd back
my soul from hell to save :
Thou didst revive when strength did lack,
and kept'st me from the grave.
- 4 Sing praise, ye saints, that prove and see
the goodness of the Lord :
In memory of his majesty
rejoice with one accord.
- 5 For why ? his anger but a space
doth last, and slack again :
But in his favour and his grace
always doth life remain.
- Though gripes of life and pangs full sore
shall lodge with us all night,
The Lord to joy shall us restore
before the day be light.

- 6 When I enjoy'd the world at will,
thus would I boast and say,
Tush, I am sure to feel none ill,
this wealth shall not decay.
- 7 For thou, O Lord, of thy good grace
hadst sent me strength and aid :
But when thou turn'd'st away thy face,
my mind was sore dismay'd.
- 8 Wherefore again yet did I cry
to thee, O Lord of might :
My God with plaints I did apply,
and pray'd both day and night.
- 9 What gain is in my blood, said I,
if death destroy my days ?
Doth dust declare thy majesty,
or yet thy truth doth praise ?
- 10 Wherefore my God some pity take,
O Lord, I thee desire :
Do not this simple soul forsake,
of help I thee require.
- 11 Then didst thou turn my grief and wo
into a chearful voice :
The mourning weed thou took'st me fro,
and mad'st me to rejoice.
- 12 Wherefore my soul incessantly
shall sing unto thy praise :
My Lord my God, to thee will I give laud and thanks always.

In te, Domine. Psal. xxxi. 7. H.

- O Lord, I put my trust in thee,
let nothing work me shame !
As thou art just, deliver me,
And set me quit from blame.
- 2 Hear me, O Lord, and that anon,
to help me make good speed :
Be thou my rock and house of stone,
my fence in time of need.
- 3 For why ? as stones thy strength is tri'd,
thou art my fort and tower :
For thy Name's sake be thou my guide,
and lead me in thy power.
- 4 Pluck thou my feet out of the snare
which they for me have laid :
Thou art my strength and all my care
is for thy might and aid.
- 5 Into thy hands, Lord, I commit
my spirit which is thy due :
For why ? thou hast redeemed it,
O Lord my God most true.
- 6 I hate such folk as will not part
from things to be abhorr'd :
When they on trifles set their heart,
my trust is in the Lord.
- 7 For I will in thy mercy joy,
I see it doth excell :
Thou seest when ought would me annoy,
and know'st my soul full well.

8 Thou haſt not left me in their hand
that would me overcharge :
But thou haſt ſet me out of band,
to walk abroad at large.

The ſecond part.

9 Great grief, O Lord, doth me affail, ſome pity on me take :
Mine eyes wax dim, my ſight doth fail,
my womb for wo doth ake.
10 My life is worn with grief and pain,
my years in wo are paſt,
My ſtrength is gone, and through diſdain
my bones corrupt and waſte.

11 Among my foes I am a ſcorn,
my friends are all diſmaid :
My neighbours and my kinfmen born
to ſee me are afraid.
12 As men once dead are out of mind,
ſo am I now forgot :
As ſmall effect in me they find
as in a broken pot.

13 I heard the brags of all the rout,
their threats my mind did fray,
How they conſpir'd and went about
to take my life away.

14 But, Lord, I truſt in thee for aid
not to be overtrod :
For I confeſs and ſtill have ſaid,
thou art my Lord and God.

15 The length of all my life and age,
O Lord, is in thy hand :
Defend me from the wrath and rage
of them that me wiſtand.

16 To me thy ſervant, Lord, expreſs
and ſhew thy joyful face :
And ſave me, Lord, for thy goodneſs,
thy mercy and thy grace.

The third part.

17 Lord, let me not be put to blame,
for that on thee I call :
But let the wicked bear the ſhame,
and in the grave to fall.

18 O Lord, make dumb their lips outright,
which are addiſt to lyes,
And cruelly with pride and ſpight
againſt the juſt deviſe.

19 O how great good haſt thou in ſtore
laid up full ſure for them
That fear and truſt in thee therefore,
before the ſons of men !
20 Thy preſence ſhall them fence and guide
from all proud brags and wrongs :
Within thy place thou ſhalt them hide
from all the ſtrife of tongues.

21 Thanks to the Lord that hath declar'd
on me his grace ſo far,

Me to defend with watch and ward,
as in a town of War.

22 Thus did I ſay both day and night,
when I was fore oppreſt,

Lo, I was clean caſt out of ſight,
yet heard'ſt thou my requeſt.

23 Ye ſaints love ye the Lord, I ſay,
The faithful he doth guide :
And to the proud he doth repay
according to their pride.

24 Be ſtrong, and God ſhall ſtay your heart,
be bold and have a luſt :

For ſure the Lord will take your part,
ſith ye on him do truſt.

Beati quorum. Pſal. xxxii. T. S.

THE Man is bleſt whoſe wickedneſs
the Lord hath clean remitted :

And he whoſe ſin and wickedneſs
is hid and alſo covered.

2 And bleſt is he to whom the Lord
imputeth not his ſin :

Which in his heart hath hid no guile,
nor fraud is found therein.

3 For whilſt that I kept cloſe my ſin
in ſilence and conſtraint,
My bones did wear and waſte away
With daily moan and plaint.

4 For night and day thy hand on me
ſo grievous was and ſmart,
That all my blood and humours moiſt
to dryneſs did convert.

5 I did therefore confeſs my fault,
and all my ſins diſcover :
Then thou, O Lord, diſt me forgive
and all my ſins paſs over.

6 The humble man ſhall pray therefore,
and ſeek thee in due time :

So that the floods of waters great
ſhall have no power on him.

7 When trouble and adverſity
do compaſs me about,
Thou art my refuge and my joy,
and thou doſt rid me out.

8 Come hither, and I will thee teach
how thou ſhalt walk aright :
I will thee guide as I my ſelf
have learn'd by proof and fight.

9 Be not ſo rude and ignorant
as is the horſe and mule, Whoſe mouth without a rein or bit
from harm thou canſt not rule.

10 The wicked man ſhall manifold ſorrows and griefs ſuſtain :
But unto him that truſts in God
his goodneſs ſhall remain.

11 Be merry therefore in the Lord,
ye juſt liſt up your voice :

And ye of pure and perfect heart,
be glad and eke rejoyce.

Exultate iusti. Psal. xxxiii. J. H.

YE righteous in the Lord rejoyce;
it is a seemly sight,

That upright men with thankful voice
should praise the Lord of might.

2 Praise ye the Lord with harp and song,
in psalms and pleasant things:

With lute and instrument among
that foundeth with ten strings.

3 Sing to the Lord a song most new,
with courage give him praise:

4 For why? his word is ever true,
his works and all his ways.

5 To judgment, equity, and right
he hath a great good will:

And with his gifts he doth delight
the earth throughout to fill.

6 For by the word of God alone
the heavens all were wrought:

Their hosts and powers every one
his breath to pass hath brought.

7 The waters great gathered hath he
on heaps within the shore:

And hid them in the depth to be,
as in a house of store.

8 All men on earth both least and most fear God and keep his law:

Ye, that inhabit in each coast,
dread him and stand in awe.

9 What he commanded wrought it was at once with present speed:

What he doth will is brought to pass
with full effect indeed.

10 The counsels of the nations rude
the Lord doth bring to nought:

He doth defeat the multitude of their device and thought.

11 But his decrees continue still,
they never slack nor swage:

The motions of his mind and will take place in every age.

The second part.

12 And blest are they to whom the Lord
as God and guide is known:

Whom he doth chuse of meer accord
to take them as his own.

13 The Lord from heaven cast his sight
on men mortal by birth:

14 Considering from his feat of might
the dwellers of the earth.

15 The Lord, I say, whose hand hath wrought
man's heart, and doth it frame:

For he alone doth know the thought
and working of the same.

16 A King that trusteth in his host shall nought prevail at length:
The man that of his might doth boast shall fall for all his strength.

17 The troops of horsemen eke shall fail,
their sturdy steed shall serve:

The strength of horse shall not prevail
the rider to preserve.

18 But lo, the eyes of God intend
and watch to aid the just:

With such as fear him to offend,
and on his goodness trust.

19 That he of death and great distress
may set their souls from dread:

And if that dearth the land oppress,
in hunger them to feed.

20 Wherefore our soul doth whole depend on God our strength and stay:

He is our shield us to defend,
and drive all darts away.

21 Our soul in God hath joy and game, rejoicing in his might:

For why? in his most holy Name
we hope and much delight.

22 Therefore let thy goodness, O Lord,
still present with us be:

As we always with one accord
do only trust in thee.

Benedicam Dom. Psal. xxxiv. T. S.

I Will give laud and honour both unto the Lord always,

And eke my mouth for evermore
shall speak unto his praise.

2 I do delight to laud the Lord
in soul and eke in voice:

That humble men and mortifi'd
may hear and so rejoyce.

3 Therefore see that ye magnifie
with me the living Lord,

And let us now exalt his Name
together with one accord.

4 For I my self besought the Lord,
he answered me again,

And me delivered incontinent
from all my fear and pain.

5 Whoso they be that him behold,
shall see his light most clear:

Their countenance shall not be dash't,
they need it not to fear.

6 This silly wretch for some relief
unto the Lord did call;

Who did him hear without delay,
and rid him out of thrall.

7 The angel of the Lord doth pitch
his tents in every place,

To save all such as fear the Lord,
that nothing them deface.

8 Taſte and conſider well therefore that God is good and juſt :
O happy man that maketh him
his onely ſtay and truſt.

9 Fear ye the Lord, ye holy ones,
above all earthly thing :

For they that fear the living Lord,
are ſure to lack nothing.

10 The lions ſhall be hunger-bit,
and pin'd with famine much :
But as to them that fear the Lord,
no lack ſhall be to ſuch.

The ſecond part.

11 Come near therefore, my children dear,
and to my words give ear :

I ſhall you teach the perfect way,
how ye the Lord ſhould fear.

12 Who is the man that would live long,
and lead a godly life ?

13 See thou refrain thy tongue and lips
from all deceit and ſtrife.

14 Turn back thy face from doing ill,
and do the godly deed :

Enquire for peace and quietneſs,
and follow it with ſpeed.

15 For why ? the eyes of God above
upon the juſt are bent :

His ears likewiſe do hear the plaint
of the poor innocent.

16 But he doth frown and bend his brows
upon the wicked train :

And cuts away the memory
that ſhould of them remain.

17 But when the juſt do call and cry,
the Lord doth hear them ſo,

That out of pain and miſery
forthwith he lets them go.

18 The Lord is kind and ſtraight at hand
to ſuch as be contrite :

He ſaves alſo the ſorrowful,
the poor and meeke in ſprite,

19 Full many be the miſeries that righteous men do ſuffer :

But out of all adverſities
the Lord doth them deliver.

20 The Lord doth ſo preſerve and keep His very bones alway,

That not ſo much as one of them
doth periſh or decay.

21 The ſin ſhall ſlay the wicked man,
which he himſelf hath wrought :

And ſuch as hate the righteous man,
ſhall ſoon be brought to nought.

22 But they that fear the living Lord,
the Lord doth ſave them ſound :

And who that put their truſt in him,
nothing ſhall them confound.

Judica me, Domine. Pſal. xxxv. 7. H.

L Ord, plead my cauſe againſt my foes,
confound their force and might :
Fight on my part againſt all thoſe
that ſeek with me to fight.

2 Lay hand upon the ſpear and ſhield,
thy ſelf in armour drefs :

Stand up for me, and fight the field,
to help me from diſtreſs.

3 Gird on thy ſword, and ſtop the way,
mine enemies to withſtand :

That thou unto my ſoul mayſt ſay,
Lo I thy help at hand.

4 Confound them with rebuke and blame;
that ſeek my ſoul to ſpill :

Let them turn back and flee with ſhame,
that think to work me ill.

5 Let them diſperſe and flee abroad,
as wind doth drive the duſt :

And that the angel of our God
their might away may thruſt:

6 Let all their ways be void of light,
and ſlippery like to fall :

And ſend thine angel with thy might,
to perſecute them all.

7 For why ? without my fault they have
in ſecret ſet their grin :

And for no cauſe have digg'd a cave
to take my ſoul therein.

8 When they think leaſt and have no care,
O Lord, deſtroy them all :

Let them be trapt in their own ſnare,
and in their miſchief fall.

9 And let my ſoul, my heart and voice,
in God have joy and wealth :

That in the Lord I may rejoice,
and in his ſaving health.

10 And then my bones ſhall ſpeak and ſay,
my parts ſhall all agree :

O Lord, though they do ſeem full gay,
what man is like to thee ?

The ſecond part.

11 Thou doſt defend the weak from them
that are both ſtout and ſtrong :

And rid the poor from wicked men,
that ſpoil and do them wrong.

12 My cruel foes againſt me riſe
to witneſs things untrue :

And to accuſe me they deviſe
of things I never knew.

13 Where I to them did owe good will,
they quit me with diſdain :

That they ſhould pay my good with ill,
my ſoul doth ſore complain.

14 When they were ſick I mourn'd therefore and clad my ſelf in ſack :

With fasting I did faint full fore,
to pray I was not slack.

15 As they had been my brethren dear,
I did my self behave :

As one that maketh woful chear
about his mother's grave.

16 But they at my disease did joy,
and gather on a rout :

Yea, abject slaves at me did toy,
with mocks and checks full stout.

17 The belly-gods and flattering train,
that all good things deride,
At me do grin with great disdain,
and pluck their mouths aside.

18 Lord, when wilt thou amend this gear?
why dost thou stay and pause?

O rid my soul, mine onely dear,
out of these lions claws.

19 And then will I give thanks to thee
before the church always :

And where most of the people be,
there will I shew thy praise.

20 Let not my foes prevail on me,
which hate me for no fault :

Nor yet to wink or turn their eye,
that causless me assault.

The third part.

21 Of peace no word they think or say,
their talk is all untrue :

They still consult and would betray
all those that peace ensue.

22 With open mouth they run at me,
they gape, they laugh, they flee :
Well, well, say they, our eye doth see
the thing that we desire.

23 But, Lord, thou see'st what ways they take,
cease not this gear to mend :

Be not far off, nor me forsake,
as men that fail their friend.

24 Awake, arise, and stir abroad,
defend me in my right :
Revenge my cause, my Lord, my God,
and aid me with thy might.

25 According to thy righteousness,
my Lord God, set me free :
And let them not their pride express,
nor triumph over me.

26 Let not their hearts rejoyce and cry,
There, there, this gear goes trim :
Nor give them cause to say on high,
We have our will on him.

27 Confound them with rebuke and shame,
that joy when I do mourn :
And pay them home with spite and blame,
that brag at me with scorn.

28 Let them be glad and eke rejoyce,
which love mine upright way :

And they all times with heart and voice
shall praise the Lord, and say,

29 Great is the Lord, and doth excell,
for why? he doth delight

To see his servants prosper well ;
that is his pleasant sight.

30 Wherefore my tongue I will apply
thy righteousness to praise :
Unto the Lord my God will I sing laud and praise always.

Dixit injustus. Psal. xxxvi. J. H.

THE wicked with his works unjust
doth thus perfwade his heart,
That of the Lord he hath no trust,
his fear is set apart.

2 Yet doth he joy in his estate,
to walk as he began,
So long till he deserve the hate
of God and eke of man.

3 His words are wicked, vile, and naught :
his tongue no truth doth tell :
Yet at no hand will he be taught
which way he may do well.

4 When he should sleep, then doth he muse,
his mischiefs to fulfill :
No wicked ways doth he refuse,
nor nothing that is ill.

5 But, Lord, thy goodness doth ascend
above the heavens high :
So doth thy truth it felt extend unto the cloudy skie.

6 Much more than hills so high and steep,
thy justice is exprest :
Thy judgments like to seas most deep,
thou sav'st both man and beast.

7 Thy mercy is above all things,
O God, it doth excell :
In trust whereof, as in thy wings,
the sons of men shall dwell.

8 Within thy house they shall be fed with plenty at their will :
Of all delights shall they be sped,
and take thereof their fill.

9 For why? the well of life so pure
doth ever flow from thee,
And in thy light we are full sure
the lasting light to see.

10 From such as thee desire to know
let not thy grace depart :
Thy righteousness declare and show
to men of upright heart.

11 Let not the proud on me prevail,
O Lord, of thy good grace :
Nor let the wicked me assail,
to throw me out of place.

12 But they in their device shall fall,
that wicked works maintain :

They ſhall be overthrowen withall,
and never riſe again.

Noli amulari. Pſal. xxxvii. W. W.

GRudge not to ſee the wicked men
in wealth to flouriſh ſtill :

Nor yet envy ſuch as to ill
have bent and ſet their will.

2 For as green graſs and flouriſhing herbs
are cut, and wither away :

So ſhall their great proſperity
ſoon paſs, fade, and decay.

3 Truſt thou therefore in God alone,
to do well give thy mind :

So ſhalt thou have the land as thine,
and there ſure food ſhalt find.

4 In God ſet all thy hearts delight,
and look what thou wouldeſt have,
Or elſe canſt wiſh in all the world,
— thou needſt it not to crave.

5 Caſt both thy ſelf and thine affairs
on God with perfect truſt,
And thou ſhalt ſee with patience
th' effect both ſure and juſt.

6 Thy perfect life and godly Name
he will clear as the light :

So that the ſun even at noon-day
ſhall not ſhine half ſo bright.

7 Be ſtill therefore, and ſtedfaſtly
on God ſee thou wait them,
Not ſhrinking for the prosperous ſtate
of lewd and wicked men.

8 Shake off deſpite, envy, and hate,
at leaſt in any wiſe :

Their wicked ſteps avoid and flee,
and follow not their guiſe.

9 For every wicked man will God
deſtroy both more and leſs :
But ſuch as truſt in him are ſure
the land for to poſſeſs.

10 Watch but a while, and thou ſhalt ſee
no more the wicked train,
No not ſo much as houſe or place
where once he did remain.

The ſecond part.

11 But merciful and humble men
enjoy ſhall ſea and land :
In reſt and peace they ſhall rejoyce,
for nought ſhall them withſtand.

12 The lewd men and malicious
againſt the juſt conſpire :

They gnath their teeth at him, as men
which do his bane deſire.

13 But while that lewd men thus do think,
the Lord laughs them to ſcorn :
For why ? he ſees their term approach,
when they ſhall ſigh and mourn.

14 The wicked have their ſword out drawn,
their bow eke have they bent,
To overthrow and kill the poor,
as he the right way went.

15 But the ſame ſword ſhall pierce their heart
which was to kill the juſt :

Likewiſe the bow ſhall break to ſhivers,
wherein they put their truſt.

16 Doubtleſs the juſt man's poor eſtate
is better a great deal more Than all theſe lewd and wicked mens rich pomp and heaped ſtore.

17 For be their power never ſo ſtrong,
God will it overthrow :

Where contrary he doth preſerve
the humble men and low.

18 He ſees by his great providence
the good mens trade and way :
And will give them inheritance
which never ſhall decay.

19 They ſhall not be diſcouraged,
when ſome are hard beſted :
When others ſhall be hunger-bit,
they ſhall be clad and fed.

20 For whoſoever wicked is,
and enemy to the Lord.
Shall quail, yea melt even as lamb's greaſe,
or ſmoke that flies abroad.

The third part.

21 Behold, the wicked borrows much,
and never pays again :

Whereas the juſt by liberal gifts
makes many glad and fain.

22 For they whom God doth bleſs, ſhall have the land for heritage :
And they whom he doth curſe, likewiſe
ſhall periſh in his rage.

23 The Lord the juſt man's ways doth guide,
and gives him good ſucceſs :
To every thing he takes in hand
he ſendeth good addreſs.

24 Though that he fall, yet is he ſure
not utterly to quail :
Be cauſe God ſtretcheth out his hand
at need, and doth not fail.

25 I have been young, and now am old,
yet did I never ſee
The juſt man leſt, nor yet his ſeed
to beg for miſery.

26 But gives always moſt liberally,
and lends whereas is need :
His children and poſterity receive of God their need.

27 Flee vice therefore and wickedneſs,
and vertue do embrace :
So God ſhall grant thee long to have
on earth a dwelling-place.

- 28 For God so loveth equity,
and shews to his such grace,
That he preserveth them alway,
but 'stroyes the wicked race.
- 29 Whereas the good and godly men
inherit shall the land,
Having as lords all things therein
in their own power and hand.
- 30 The just man's mouth shall ever speak
of matters wise and high:
His tongue doth talk to edifice,
with truth and equity.
- 31 For in his heart the law of God
his Lord doth still abide:
So that where ever he goes or walks,
his foot can never slide.
- 32 The wicked like a ravening wolf
the just man doth beset,
By all means seeking him to kill,
if he fall in his net.

The fourth part.

- 33 Though he should fall into his hands,
yet God would succour send:
Though men against him sentence give,
God would him yet defend.
- 34 Wait thou on God and keep his way,
he shall preserve thee then
The earth to rule, and thou shalt see destroy'd these wicked men.
- 35 The wicked have I seen most strong,
and plac'd in high degree,
Flourishing in all wealth and store,
as doth the Laurel-tree.
- 36 But suddenly he past away,
and lo, he was quite gone:
Then I him sought, but could not find
the place where dwelt such one.
- 37 Mark and behold the perfect man,
how God doth him increase:
For the just man shall have at length
great joy with rest and grace.
- 38 As for transgressours, wo to them,
destroy'd they shall all be:
God will cut off their budding race,
and rich posterity.
- 39 But the salvation of the just
doth come from God above,
Who in their trouble sends them aid,
of his meer grace and love.
- 40 God doth them help, save, and deliver
from lewd men and unjust:
And still will save them whilst that they
in him do put their trust.

Domine, ne. Psal. xxxviii. J. H.

PUT me not to rebuke, O Lord,
in thy provoked ire:

- Ne in thy heavy wrath, O Lord,
correct me, I desire.
- 2 Thine Arrows do stick fast in me,
thy hand doth press me fore:
And in my flesh no health at all appeareth any more.
- 3 And all this is by reason of thy wrath that I am in:
Nor any rest is in my bones
by reason of my sin.
- 4 For lo, my wicked doings, Lord,
above my head are gone:
A greater load than I can bear,
they lie me sore upon.
- 5 My wounds stink and are festered so,
as lothsom is to see:
Which all through mine own foolishness
betideth unto me.
- 6 And I in careful wise am brought
in trouble and distress:
That I go wailing all the day
in doleful heaviness.
- 7 My loyns are fill'd with sore disease,
my flesh hath no whole part:
8 I feeble am and broken sore,
I rore for grief of heart.
- 9 Thou know'st, Lord, my desire, my groans
are open in thy sight:
- 10 My heart doth pant, my strength doth fail,
mine eyes have lost their light.
- 11 My lovers and my wonted friends
stand looking on my wo:
And eke my kinsmen far away
are me departed fro.
- 12 They that did seek my life laid snares,
and they that fought the way
To do me hurt, spake lyes, and thought on mischief all the day.

The second part.

- 13 But as a deaf man I became,
that cannot hear at all:
14 And as one dumb, that opens not his mouth to speak withall.
- 15 For all my confidence, O Lord,
is wholly set on thee:
O Lord, thou Lord that art my God,
thou shalt give ear to me.
- 16 This did I crave, that they my foes
triumph not over me:
For when my foot did slip, then they did joy my fall to see.
- 17 And truly I poor wretch am set
in place a woful wight:
And eke my grievous heaviness
is ever in my sight.
- 18 For while that I my wickedness
in humble wise confess;

And

And while I for my ſinful deeds
my ſorrows do expreſs :

19 My foes do ſtill remain alive,
and mighty are alſo :

And they that hate me wrongfully,
in number hugely grow.

20 They ſtand againſt me that my good
with evil do repay :

Be cauſe that good and honeſt things
I do enſue alway.

21 Forſake me not, O Lord my God,
be thou not far away :

22 Haſte me to help, my Lord my God,
my ſafety and my ſtay.

Dixi, Cuſtodiam. Pſal. xxxix. 7. H.

I Said, I will look to my ways,
for fear I ſhould go wrong :

I will take heed all times that I offend not with my tongue.

2 As with a bit I will keep faſt
my mouth with force and might,
Not once to whiſper all the while
the wicked are in fight.

3 I held my tongue and ſpake no word,
but kept me cloſe and ſtill :

Yea, from good talk I did refrain,
but ſore againſt my will.

4 My heart waxt hot within my breaſt,
with muſing, thought, and doubt,
Which did increaſe, and ſtir the fire :
at laſt theſe words burſt out ;

5 Lord, number out my life and days
which yet I have not paſt,
So that I may be certiſ'd
how long my life ſhall laſt.

6 Lord, thou haſt pointed out my life
in length much like a ſpan :
Mine age is nothing unto thee,
ſo vain is every man.

7 Man walketh like a ſhade, and doth
in vain himſelf annoy

In getting goods, and cannot tell who ſhall the ſame enjoy.

8 Now, Lord, ſith things this wiſe do frame,
what help do I deſire ?

Of truth my help doth hang on thee,
I nothing elſe require.

The ſecond part.

9 From all the ſins that I have done,
Lord, quit me out of hand,
And make not me a ſcorn to fools
that nothing underſtand.

10 I was as dumb, and to complain
no trouble might me move :
Be cauſe I knew it was thy work,
my patience for to prove.

11 Lord, take from me thy ſcourge and plague,
I can them not withſtand :

I faint and pine away for fear
of thy moſt heavy hand.

12 When thou for ſin doſt man rebuke,
he waxeth wo and wan,
As doth a cloth that moths have fret,
ſo vain a thing is man.

13 Lord, hear my ſuit and give good heed,
regard my tears that fall :

I ſojourn like a ſtranger here,
as did my fathers all.

14 O ſpare a little, give me ſpace
my ſtrength for to reſtore,
Before I go away from hence,
and ſhall be ſeen no more.

Expeſtans expeſtavi. Pſal. xl. 7. H.

I Waited long and fought the Lord,
and patiently did bear :
At length to me he did accord
my voice and cry to hear.

2 He pluk't me from the lake ſo deep
out of the mire and clay :
And on the rock he ſet my feet,
and he did guide my way.

3 To me he taught a pſalm of praiſe,
which I muſt ſhew abroad,
And ſing new ſongs of thanks alway
unto the Lord our God.

4 When all the folk theſe things ſhall ſee,
as people much afraid,
Then they unto the Lord will flee,
and truſt upon his aid.

5 O bleſt is he whoſe hope and heart
doth in the Lord remain,
That with the proud doth take no part,
nor ſuch as lye and feign.

6 For, Lord, my God, thy wondrous deeds
in greatneſs far do paſs :
Thy favour towards us exceeds all things that ever was.

7 When I intend and do deviſe
thy works abroad to ſhow,
To ſuch a reckoning they do riſe,
thereof no end I know.

8 Burnt-Offerings thou delight'ſt not in,
I know thy whole deſire :
With ſacrifice to purge his ſin
thou doſt no man require.

9 Meat-offerings and ſacrifice
thou would'ſt not have at all :
But thou, O Lord, haſt open made mine ears to hear withall.

10 But then ſaid I, Behold and look,
I come a mean to be :
For in the volume of thy book
thuſ it is ſaid of me,

11 That I, O God, should do thy mind,
which thing doth like me well :
For in my heart thy law I find
fast placed there to dwell.
12 Thy justice and thy righteousness
in great resorts I tell:
Behold, my tongue no time doth cease,
O Lord, thou know'st full well.

The second part.

13 I have not hid within my breast
thy goodness as by stealth :
But I declare and have exprest
thy truth and saving health.
14 I kept not close thy loving mind,
that no man should it know :
The trust that in thy truth I find,
to all the Church I show.

15 Thy tender mercy, Lord, from me
withdraw thou not away :
But let thy love and verity
preserve me still for aye.

16 For I with mischiefs many a one am sore beset about :
My sins increase, and so come on,
I cannot spy them out.

17 For why? in number they exceed the hairs upon my head :
My heart doth faint for very dread,
that I am almost dead.

18 With speed send help and set me free,
O Lord, I thee require :
Make haste with aid to succour me,
O Lord, at my desire.

19 Let them sustain rebuke and shame
that seek my soul to spill :
Drive back my foes, and them defame
that wish and would me ill.

20 For their ill deeds do them descry
that would deface my name :
Always at me they rail and cry,
Fie on him, fie for shame.

21 Let them in thee have joy and wealth,
that seek to thee always :

That those that love thy saving health
may say, To God be praise.

22 But as for me, I am but poor,
opprest and brought full low :
Yet thou, O Lord, wilt me restore to health, full well I know.

23 For why? thou art my hope and trust,
my refuge, help and stay :
Wherefore my God, as thou art just,
with me no time delay.

Beatus qui intelligit. Psal. xli. T. S.

THE man is blest that careful is the needy to consider :

For in the season perillous
the Lord will him deliver.

2 The Lord will make him safe and sound,
and happy in the land :
And he will not deliver him
into his enemies hand.

3 And in his bed when he lies sick,
the Lord will him restore :
And thou, O Lord, wilt turn to health
his Sickness and his sore.

4 Then in my sickness thus said I,
have mercy, Lord, on me,
And heal my soul which is full wo
that I offended thee.

5 Mine enemies wish me ill in heart,
and thus of me did say :
When shall he die, that all his name
may vanish quite away?

6 And when they come to visit me,
they ask if I do well :
But in their hearts mischief they hatch,
and to their mates it tell.

7 They bite their lips and whisper so,
as though they would me charm,
And cast their fetters how to trap
me with some mortal harm.

8 Some grievous sin hath brought him to this sickness, say they plain :
He is so low that without doubt rise he can not again.

9 The man also that I did trust
with me did use deceit :
Who at my table ate my bread,
the same for me laid wait.

10 Have mercy, Lord, on me therefore,
and let me be preserved :
That I may render unto them
the things they have deserved.

11 By this I know assuredly
to be below'd of thee,
When that mine enemies have no cause
to triumph over me.

12 But in my right thou hast me kept,
and maintained alway :
And in thy presence place assign'd
where I shall dwell for aye.

13 The Lord the God of Israel
be praised evermore.
Even to be it (Lord) will I say,
even to be it therefore.

Quemadmodum. Psal. xlii. 7. A.

LIKE as the hart doth breathe and bray
the well-springs to obtain,
So doth my soul desire alway
with thee, Lord, to remain.

2 My soul doth thirst, and would draw near the living God of might :

Oh when shall I come and appear
in presence of his sight!

3 The tears all times are my repast
which from mine eyes do slide:
When wicked men cry out so fast,
where now is God thy guide?

4 Alas, what grief is it to think what freedom once I had!
Therefore my soul as at pits brink
most heavy is and sad.

When I did march in good array,
furnished with my train,
Unto the temple was our way,
with songs and hearts most fain.

5 My soul, why art thou sad always,
and frett'st thus in my breast?
Trust still in God; for him to praise
I hold it ever best.

By him I have succour at need
against all pain and grief:
He is my God, which with all speed
will haste to send relief.

6 And thus my soul within me, Lord,
doth faint to think upon
The land of Jordan, and record
the little hill Hermon.

The second part.

7 One grief another in doth call,
as clouds burst out their voice:
The floods of evil that do fall,
run over me with noise.

8 Yet I by day felt his goodness
and help at all assays:
Likewise by night I did not cease
the living God to praise.

9 I am perswaded thus to fly
to him with pure pretence,
O Lord, thou art my guide and stay,
my rock and sure defence.

Why do I then in pensiveness
hanging the head thus walk,
While that mine enemies me oppress,
and vex me with their talk?

10 For why? they pierce my inward parts
with pangs to be abhor'd,
When they cry out with stubborn hearts,
where is thy God thy Lord?

11 So soon why dost thou faint and quail,
my soul with pain oppress?
With thoughts why dost thy self assail
so sore within my breast?

12 Trust in the Lord thy God always,
and thou the time shalt see
To give him thanks with laud and praise,
for health restor'd to thee.

Judica me, Domine. Psal. xliii. T. S.

Judge and revenge my cause, O Lord,
from them that evil be:
From wicked and deceitful men,
O Lord, deliver me.

2 For of my strength thou art the God,
why putt'st thou me thee fro?
And why walk I so heavily oppressed with my foe?

3 Send out thy light, and eke thy truth,
and lead me with thy grace,
Which may conduct me to thy hill,
and to thy dwelling-place.

4 Then shall I to the altar go
of God my joy and cheer:
And on my harp give thanks to thee,
O God my God most dear.

5 Why art thou then so sad, my soul,
and frett'st thus in my breast?
Still trust in God; for him to praise
I hold it always best.

6 By him I have deliverance
against all pain and grief:
He is my God which doth alway
at need send me relief.

Deus auxilium. Psal. xliv. T. S.

OUR ears have heard our fathers tell,
and reverently record
The wondrous works that thou hast done
in older time, O Lord.

2 How thou didst cast the Gentiles out,
and stroy'dst them with strong hands:
Planting our fathers in their place,
and gav'st to them their land.

3 They conquer'd not by sword nor strength
the land of thy behest:
But by thy hand, thy arm, and grace;
because thou lov'st them best.

4 Thou art my King, O God, that help
Jacob in sundry wise.

5 Led with thy power, we threw down such as did against us rise.

6 I trusted not in bow nor sword,
they could not save me sound:

7 Thou kept'st us from our enemies rage,
thou didst our foes confound.

8 And still we boast of thee our God,
and praise thy holy Name:

9 Yet now thou go'st not with our host,
but leave'st us to shame.

10 Thou mad'st us flee before our foes,
and so were overtrod:
Our enemies robb'd and spoil'd our goods,
when we were spent abroad.

11 Thou hast us given to our foes,
as sheep for to be slain:

Amongst the heathen every where scatter'd we do remain.

- 12 Thy people thou hast fold like slaves,
and as a thing of nought :
For profit none thou hadst thereby,
no gain at all was fought.
- 13 And to our neighbours thou hast made
of us a laughing stock :
And those that round about us dwell,
at us do grin and mock.

The second part.

- 14 Thus we serve for none other use,
but for a common talk :
They mock, they scorn, they nod their heads
where-e'er they go or walk.
- 15 I am asham'd continually,
to hear these wicked men :
Yea, so I blush that all my face
with red is covered then.
- 16 For why? we hear such slanderous words,
such false reports and lyes:
That death it is to see their wrongs,
their threatnings and their cries.
- 17 For all this we forgot not thee,
nor yet thy covenant brake :
- 18 We turn not back our hearts from thee,
nor yet thy paths forsake.
- 19 Yet thou hast trod us down to dust,
where dens of dragons be,
And covered us with shade of death,
and great adversity.
- 20 If we had our Gods Name forgot,
and help of idols sought,
- 21 Would not God then have tri'd this out ?
for he doth know our thought.

- 22 Nay, nay, for thy Names sake, O Lord,
always are we slain thus :
As sheep unto the shambles sent,
right so they deal with us.
- 23 Up Lord, why sleepest thou? awake,
and leave us not for all :
- 24 Why hidest thou thy countenance,
and dost forget our thrall ?
- 25 For down to dust our soul is brought,
and we now at last cast :
Our belly, like as it were gl'd,
unto the ground cleaves fast.
- 26 Rise up therefore for our defence,
and help us, Lord, at need :
We thee beseech for thy goodness,
to rescue us with speed.

Erasmus. Psal. xlv. J. H.

MY heart doth take in hand
some godly song to sing :
The praise that I shall shew therein
pertaineth to the king.

- 2 My tongue shall be as quick
his honour to indite,
As is the pen of any scribe
that useth fast to write.
- 3 O fairest of all men,
thy speech is pleasant pure :
For God hath blessed thee with gifts
for ever to endure.
- 4 About thee gird thy sword,
O prince of might elect :
With honour, glory, and renown
thy person pure is deckt.
- 5 Go forth with godly speed,
with meekness, truth, and right :
And thy right hand shall thee instruct in works of dreadful might.
- 6 Thine arrows sharp and keen
their hearts so fore shall sting :
That folk shall fall and kneel to thee,
yea all thy foes, O king.

- 7 The royal seat, O Lord,
for ever shall remain :
Because the sceptre of thy realm
doth righteousness maintain.
- 8 Because thou lov'st the right,
and dost the ill detest,
God, even thy God hath nointed thee,
with joy above the rest.

- 2 With myrrh and favours sweet
thy clothes are all bespread :
When thou dost from thy palace pass,
therein to make thee glad.
- 10 Kings daughters do attend
in fine and rich array :
At thy right hand the queen doth stand
in gold and garments gay.

The second part.

- 11 O daughter, take good heed,
incline and give good ear :
Thou must forget thy kindred all,
and fathers house most dear.
- 12 Then shall the king desire
thy beauty fair and trim :
For why? he is the Lord thy God,
and thou must worship him.
- 13 The daughters then of Tyre,
with gifts full rich to see,
And all the wealthy of the land shall make their suit to thee.
- 14 The daughter of the king
is glorious to behold :
Within her closet she doth sit
all deckt in beaten gold.
- 15 In robes well wrought with needle,
and many pleasant thing :
With virgins fair on her to wait,
she cometh to the king.

- 16 Thus are they brought with joy
and mirth on every side,
Into the palace of the king,
and there they do abide.
- 17 In stead of parents left,
(O queen, the case so stands)
Thou shalt have sons whom thou mayest set
as princes in all lands.
- 18 Wherefore thy holy Name
all ages shall record:
The people shall give thanks to thee
for evermore, O Lord.

Deus noster. Psal. xli. 7. H.

- THE Lord is our defence and aid,
the strength whereby we stand:
When we with wo are much dismay'd,
he is our help at hand.
- 2 Though th' earth remove, we will not fear,
though hills so high and steep
Be thrust and hurled here and there,
within the sea so deep.
- 3 No, though the waves do rage so fore
that all the banks it spills:
And though it overflow the shore,
and beat down mighty hills.
- 4 For one fair flood doth fend abroad
his pleasant streams apace,
To fresh the city of our God,
and wash his holy place.
- 5 In midst of her the Lord doth dwell,
she can no whit decay:
All things against her that rebell
the Lord will truly slay.
- 6 The heathen folk, the kingdoms fear,
the people make a noise:
The earth doth melt and not appear,
when God puts forth his voice.
- 7 The Lord of hosts doth take our part,
to us he hath an eye:
Our hope of health with all our heart
on Jacob's God doth lie.
- 8 Come here and see with mind and thought
the working of our God:
What wonders he himself hath wrought
in all the world abroad.
- 9 By him all wars are hush'd and gone,
which countreys did conspire:
Their bows he brake and spears each one,
their chariots burnt with fire.
- 10 Leave off therefore (saith he) and know
I am a God most stout,
Among the heathen high and low,
and all the earth throughout.
- 11 The Lord of hosts doth us defend,
he is our strength and tower:
On Jacob's God we do depend,
and on his might and power.

Omnes gentes. Psal. xlii. 7. H.

- YE people all with one accord
clap hands and eke rejoice:
Be glad and sing unto the Lord
with sweet and pleasant voice.
- 2 For high the Lord and dreadful is,
with wonders manifold:
A mighty King he is truly,
in all the earth extoll'd.
- 3 The people shall he make to be unto our bondage thrall:
And underneath our feet shall he
the nations make to fall.
- 4 For us the heritage he chose
which we possess alone,
The flourishing worship of Jacob
his well-beloved one.
- 5 Our God ascended up on high
With joy and pleasant noise,
The Lord goes up above the sky
with trumpets royal voice.
- 6 Sing praises to our God, sing praise,
sing praises to our King:
7 For God is King of all the earth,
all skillful praises sing.
- 8 God on the heathen reigns, and sits
upon his holy throne:
The princes of the people have them joined every one To Abraham's people: for our God,
which is exalted high,
As with a buckler doth defend
the earth continually.

Magnus Dominus. Psal. xliiii. 7. H.

- Great is the Lord, and with great praise to be advanced still Within the city of our God,
upon his holy hill.
- 2 Mount Sion is a pleasant place,
it gladdeth all the land:
The city of the mighty King
on her north-side doth stand.
- 3 Within the palaces thereof
God is a refuge known:
For lo, the kings are gathered, and together they are gone.
- 4 But when they did behold it so,
they wondred, and they were Astonied much, and suddenly were driven back with fear.
- 5 Great terrour there on them did fall,
for very wo they cry,
As doth a woman when she shall go travail by and by.
- 6 As thou with eastern wind the ships
upon the sea dost break,

So they were 'stroy'd : and even as
we heard our fathers speak ;

7 So in the city of the Lord
we saw as it was told,
Yea, in the city which our God
for ever will uphold.

8 O Lord, we wait and do attend
on thy good help and grace :
For which we do all times attend
within thy holy place.

9 O Lord, according to thy Name
for ever is thy praise :
And thy right hand, O Lord, is full of righteousness always.

10 Let, for thy judgments, Sion mount fulfilled be with joys :
And eke of Judah grant, O Lord,
the daughters to rejoice.

11 Go walk about all Sion hill,
yea, round about her go ;
And tell the towres that thereupon
are builded on a row.

12 And mark ye well her bulwarks all,
behold her towres there :
That ye may tell thereof to them
that after shall be here.

13 For this God is our God, our God
for evermore is he :
Yea, and unto the death also our Guider shall be.

Audite hac, omnes. Psal. xlix. 7. H.

AL L people hearken and give ear
to that that I shall tell,

2 Both high and low, both rich and poor
that in the world do dwell.

3 For why? my mouth shall make discourse
of many things right wise :

In understanding shall mine heart
his study exercise.

4 I will incline mine ear to know
the parable so dark :

And open all my doubtful speech
in metre on my harp.

5 Why should I fear affliction,
or any careful toyl :

Or else my foes which at my heels
are prest my life to spoil?

6 For as for such as riches have,
wherein their trust is most ;
And they which of their treasures great
themselves do brag and boast ;

7 There is not one of them that can
his brothers death redeem,
Or that can give a price to God,
sufficient for him.

8 It is too great a price to pay,
none can thereto attain :

Or that he might his life prolong,
or not in grave remain.

9 They see wife men, as well as fools,
subject unto death's bands :
And being dead, strangers possess
their goods, their rents, their lands.

10 Their care is to build houses fair,
and so determine sure
To make their Name right great on earth
for ever to endure.

11 Yet shall no man always enjoy high honour, wealth, and rest ;

12 But shall at length taste of death's cup,
as well as the brute beast.

The second part.

13 And though they try their foolish thoughts
to be most lewd and vain :
Their children yet approve their talk,
and in like sin remain.

14 As sheep into the fold are brought,
so shall they into grave :
Death shall them eat, and in that day
the just shall lordship have.

15 Their image and their royal port shall fade and quite decay,
When as from house to pit they pass
with wo and well-away.

16 But God will surely preserve me
from death and endless pain :
Because he will of his good grace
my soul receive again.

17 If any man wax wondrous rich,
fear not, I say, therefore :
Although the glory of his house
increaseth more and more.

18 For when he dies, of all these things
nothing shall he receive :
His glory will not follow him,
his pomp will take her leave.

19 Yet in this life he takes himself
the happiest under sun :
And others likewise flatter him,
saying, All is well done.

20 And presuppose he live as long
as did his fathers old ;
Yet must he needs at length give place,
and be brought to death's fold.

21 Thus man to honour God hath brought,
yet doth he not consider :
But like brute beasts so doth he live,
which turn to dust and powder.

Deus deorum. Psal. l. W. W.

TH E mighty God,
th' eternal hath thus spoke,
And all the world
he will call and provoke :

Ever

Even from the east,
and so forth to the west.
2 From towards Sion,
which place he liketh best,
God will appear
in beauty most excellent:
Our God will come
before long time be spent.
3 Devouring fire
shall go before his face;
A great tempest
shall round about him trace.
4 Then shall he call
the earth and heavens bright,
To judge his folk
with equity and right:
5 Saying, Go to,
and now my saints assemble.
My past they keep,
their gifts do not dissemble.
6 The heavens shall declare his righteousness:
For God is Judge
of all things more and less.
7 Hear, my people,
for I will now reveal;
Lift, Israel,
I will thee nought conceal.
Thy God, thy God
am I, and will not blame thee 8 For giving not
all manner offerings to me.
9 I have no need to take of thee at all Goats of thy fold,
or calf out of thy stall:
10 For all the beast
are mine within the woods:
On thousand hills
cattel are mine own goods:
11 I know for mine
all birds that are on mountains:
All beasts are mine
which haunt the fields and fountains.
12 Hungry if I were,
I would not thee it tell:
For all is mine
that in the world doth dwell.
13 Eat I the flesh
of great bulls or bullocks?
Or drink the blood
of goats, or of the flocks?
14 Offer to God
praise and hearty thanksgiving,
And pay thy vows
unto God everliving.

15 Call upon me
when troubled thou shalt be:
Then will I help,
and thou shalt honour me.
16 To the wicked
thus saith th' eternal God,
Why dost thou preach
my laws and hefts abroad:
17 Seeing thou hast
them with thy mouth abused,
And hat'st to be
by discipline reformed?
My words, I say,
thou dost reject and hate:
18 If that thou see
a thief, as with thy mate,
Thou runn'st with him,
and so your prey do seek;
And art all one
with bawds and ruffians eke.
19 Thou giv'st thy self
to backbite and to slander:
And how thy tongue
deceives it is a wonder.
20 Thou sit'st musing
thy brother how to blame,
And how to put
thy mother's son to shame.
21 These things thou didst,
and whilst I held my tongue,
Thou didst me judge,
because I staid so long,
Like to thy self:
yet though I keep long silence,
Once shalt thou feel
of thy wrongs just recompence.
22 Consider this
ye that forget the Lord,
And fear not when
he threatneth with his word:
Lest without help
I spoil you as a prey.
23 But he that thanks
offereth, praiseth me ay,
Saith the Lord God:
and he that walketh this trace,
I will him teach
God's saving health to embrace.

Another of the same by J. H.

THE God of gods, the Lord,
hath call'd the earth by name:
From whence the Sun doth rise, unto
the setting of the same.
2 From Sion his fair place,
his glory bright and clear,
The perfect beauty of his grace,
from thence it did appear.

3 Our God shall come in haste,
to speak he shall not doubt:
Before him shall the fire waste,
and tempest round about.

4 The heavens from on high,
the earth below likewise
He will call forth, to judge and try his folk he doth devise.

5 Bring forth my faints, saith he,
my faithful flock so dear:
Which are in band and league with me,
my law to love and fear.

6 And when these things are tri'd,
the heavens shall record,
That God is just; and all must bide
the judgment of the Lord.

7 My people, O give heed,
Israel to thee I cry:

I am thy God, thy help at need,
thou canst it not deny.

8 I do not say to thee
thy sacrifice is slack:

Thou offerest daily unto me
much more than I do lack.

9 Think'st thou that I do need thy cattle young or old?

Or else so much desire to feed
on goats out of thy fold?

10 Nay all the beasts are mine,
in woods that eat their fill:

And thousands more of neat and kine,
that run wild on the hills.

The second part.

11 The birds that build on high,
in hills and out of sight:

And beasts that in the fields do lie,
are subject to my might.

12 Then though I hungred sore,
what need I ought of thine,

Sith that the earth with her great store,
and all therein is mine?

13 To bulls flesh have I mind
to eat it dost thou think?

Or such a sweetness do I find
the bloud of goats to drink?

14 Give to the Lord his praise,
with thanks to him apply:

And see thou pay thy vows always unto the God most high.

15 Then seek and call to me
when ought would work thee blame.

And I will sure deliver thee,
that thou mayst praise my Name.

16 But to the wicked train,
which talk of God each day,

And yet their works are foul and vain,
to them the Lord will say,

17 With what a face dar'st thou
my word once speak or name?

Why doth thy talk my law allow,
thy deeds deny the same?

18 Whereas for to amend
thy life thou art so slack:

My word the which thou dost pretend,
is cast behind thy back.

The third part.

19 When thou a thief dost see
by theft to live in wealth,

With him thou runn'st and dost agree
likewise to thrive by stealth.

20 When thou dost them behold
that wives and maids defile,

Thou lik'st it well, and waxest bold
to use that life most vile.

21 Thy lips thou dost apply
to slander and defame:

Thy tongue is taught to craft and lye,
and still doth use the same.

22 Thou studi'st to revile
thy friends to thee so near:

With slander thou wouldst needs defile
thy mother's son most dear.

23 Hereat while I do wink,
as though I did not see,

Thou go'st on still, and so dost think that I am like to thee.

24 But sure I will not let
to strike, when I begin:

Thy faults in order I will set,
and open all thy sin.

25 Mark this I you require,
that have not God in mind:

Lest when I plague you in mine ire,
your help be far to find.

26 He that doth give to me
the sacrifice of praise,

Doth please me well, and he shall see
to walk in godly ways.

Miserere mei. Psal. li. W. W.

O Lord, consider my distress,
and bow with speed some pity take:

My sins deface, my faults redress,
good Lord, for thy great mercies sake.

2 Wash me, O Lord, and make me clean
from this unjust and sinful age.

And purifie yet once again,
my hainous crimes and bloody fact.

3 Remorse and sorrow do constrain
me to acknowledge mine excess:

My sin alas doth still remain
before my face without release.

4 For thee alone I have offended,
committing evil in thy sight:

And if I were therefore condemned,
yet were thy judgments just and right.

5 It is too manifest alas
that first I was conceiv'd in sin:
Yea, of my mother so born was,
and yet vile wretch remain therein.

6 Also behold, Lord, thou dost love
the inward truth of a pure heart:
Therefore thy wisdom from above
thou hast reveal'd me to convert.

7 If thou with hyssop purge this blot,
I shall be clearer than the glass:

And if thou wash away my spot;
the snow in whiteness shall I pass.

8 Therefore, O Lord, such joy me send that inwardly I may find grace,
And that my strength may now amend,
which thou hast swag'd for my trespass.

9 Turn back thy face and frowning ire,
for I have felt enough thy hand:
And purge my sins, I thee desire,
which do in number pass the sand.

10 Make new my heart within my breast,
and frame it to thy holy will:
Thy constant Spirit in me let rest,
which may these raging enemies kill.

The second part.

11 Cast me not, Lord, out from thy face,
but speedily my torments end:

Take not from me thy Spirit of grace,
which may from dangers me defend.

12 Restore me to those joys again
which I was wont in thee to find:
And let me thy free Spirit retain,
which unto thee may stir my mind.

13 Thus when I shall thy mercies know,
I shall instruct others therein:

And men that are likewise brought low,
by mine example shall flee sin.

14 O God that of my health art Lord;
forgive me this my bloody vice:
My heart and tongue shall then accord
to sing thy mercies and justice.

15 Touch thou my lips, my tongue untie,
O Lord, which art the only key:

And then my mouth shall testify
thy wondrous works and praise alway.

16 And as for outward sacrifice,
I would have offered many a one:

But thou esteem'st them of no price,
and therein pleasure tak'st thou none.

17 The heavy heart, the mind oppress,
O Lord, thou never dost reject:

And, to speak truth, it is the best,
and of all sacrifice th' effect.

18 Lord, unto Zion turn thy face,
pour out thy mercies on thy hill,

And on Jerusalem thy grace,
build up the walls, and love it still.

19 Thou shalt accept then our off'rings
of peace and righteousness, I say:
Yea calves and many other things
upon thine altar will we lay.

Another of the same by J. H.

HAVE mercy on me, Lord, after thy great abounding grace:

After thy mercies multitude
do thou my sins deface.

2 Yea wash me more from mine offence,
and cleanse me from my sin:

For I do know my faults, and still
my sin is in mine eye.

3 Against thee, thee alone I have offended in this case:

And evil have I done before
the presence of thy face:

4 That in the things that thou hast done
upright thou may'st be tri'd,
And eke in judging, that the doom
may pass upon my side.

5 Behold, in wickedness my kind
and shape I did receive:

And lo my sinful mother eke
in sin did me conceive.

6 But lo, the truth in inward parts
is pleasant unto thee;
And secrets of thy wisdom thou revealed hast to me.

7 With hyssop, Lord, besprinkle me
I shall be cleansed so:

Yea wash thou me, and so I shall be whiter than the snow.

8 Of joy and gladness make thou me
to hear the pleasant voice:

That so the bruised bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

9 From the beholding of my sins,
Lord, turn away thy face:

And all my deeds of wickedness
do utterly deface.

10 O God, create in me a heart
unspotted in thy sight:

And eke within my bowels, Lord,
renew a stable spirit.

11 Ne cast me from thy sight, nor take thy holy Spirit away:

The comfort of thy saving health
give me again, I pray.

12 With thy free Spirit establish me,
and I will teach therefore

Sinners thy ways, and wicked shall be turned to thy lore.

The ſecond part.

- 13 O God that art God of my health,
from bloud deliver me:
That praifes of thy righteousneſs
my tongue may ſing to thee.
14 My lips that yet ſalt-cloſed be,
do thou, O Lord, unloofe:
The praifes of thy majeſty
my mouth ſhall lo diſcloſe.
15 I would have off' red ſacrifice,
if that had pleaſed thee:
But pleaſed with burnt-offerings
I know thou wilt not be.
16 A troubled ſpirit is ſacrifice delightful in God's eyes:
A broken and an humble heart,
God, thou wilt not deſpiſe.
17 In thy good will deal gently, Lord,
to Sion, and withall Grant that of thy Jeruſalem
uprear'd may be the wall.
18 Burnt-off-rings, gifts, and ſacrifice
of juſtice in that day
Thou ſhalt accept, and calves they ſhall
upon thine altar lay.

Quid gloriaris? Pſal. lii. J. H.

- WH Y doſt thou tyrant boaſt abroad
thy wicked works to praife?
Doſt thou not know there is a God,
whoſe mercies laſt always?
2 Why doſt thou mind yet ſtill deviſe
ſuch wicked wiles to warp?
Thy tongue untrue in forging lyes,
is like a razor ſharp.
3 On miſchief why ſet'ſt thou thy mind,
and wilt not walk upright?
Thou haſt more luſt falſe tales to find
than bring the truth to light.
4 Thou doſt delight in fraud and guile,
in miſchief, bloud, and wrong:
Thy lips have learn'd the flatt'ring ſtile,
O falſe deceitful tongue.
5 Therefore ſhall God for ay confound,
and pluck thee from thy place,
Thy ſeed root out from off the ground,
and ſo ſhall thee deſace.
6 The juſt when they behold they fall,
with fear will praife the Lord,
And in reproach of thee withall
cry out with one accord.
7 Behold the man that would not take
the Lord for his defence:
But of his goods his god did make,
and truſt his corrupt ſenſe.
8 But I as olive freſh and green
ſhall ſpring and ſpread abroad:

For why? my truſt all times hath been upon the living God.

- 9 For this therefore will I give praife
to thee with heart and voice:
I will ſet forth thy Name always,
wherein thy ſaints rejoyce.

Dixit inſipiens. Pſal. liii. T. S.

TH E fooliſh man in that which he within his heart hath ſaid,
That there is any God at all
hath utterly denaid.

- 2 They are corrupt, and they alſo
a hainous work hath wrought:

Among them all there is not one of good that worketh ought.

- 3 The Lord look'd down on ſons of men,
from heaven all abroad,

To ſee if any were that would be wiſe and ſeek for God.

- 4 They are all gone out of the way,
they are corrupted all:

There is not one doth any good,
there is not one at all.

- 5 Do not all wicked workers know,
that they do feed upon

My people, as they feed on bread?
the Lord they call not on.

- 6 Even there they were afraid, and ſtood
with trembling all diſmaid;

Where as there was no cauſe at all
why they ſhould be afraid.

- 7 For God his bones that thee beſieg'd
hath ſcatter'd all abroad:

Thou haſt confounded them, for they
rejeſted are of God:

- 8 O Lord, give thou thy people health,
and thou, O Lord, fulfill

Thy promiſe made to Iſrael;
from out of Sion hill.

- 9 When God his people ſhall reſtore:
that erſt was captive led,

Then Jacob ſhall therein rejoyce,
and Iſrael ſhall be glad.

Deus, in Nomine. Pſal. liv. J. H.

GOD, ſave me for thy holy Name,
and for thy goodneſs ſake:

Unto the ſtrength, Lord, of the ſame,
I do my cauſe betake.

- 2 Regard, O Lord, and give an ear
to me when I do pray:

Bow down thy ſelf to me, and hear
the words that I do ſay:

- 3 For ſtrangers up againſt me riſe,
and tyrants vex me ſtill,

Which have not God before their eyes:
they ſeek my ſoul to ſpill.

- 4 But lo, my God doth give me aid,
the Lord is straight at hand:
With them by whom my soul is staid
the Lord doth ever stand.
- 5 With plagues repay again all those
for me that lie in wait:
And in thy truth destroy my foes
with their own snare and bait.
- 6 An off ring of free heart and will then I to thee shall make,
And praise thy Name; for therein still great comfort I do take.
- 7 O Lord, at length do set me free
from them that craft conspire:
And now mine eye with joy doth see
on them my hearts desire.

Exaudi, Deus. Psal. lv. 7. H.

- O God, give ear, and do apply
to hear me when I pray:
And when to thee I call and cry,
hide not thy self away.
- 2 Take heed to me, grant my request,
and answer me again:
With plaints I pray full sore oppress'd,
great grief doth me constrain.
- 3 Because my foes with threats and cries
oppress me through despight:
And so the wicked sort likewise
to vex me have delight.
- 4 For they in counsel do conspire
to charge me with some ill:
So in their hasty wrath and ire
they do pursue me still.
- 5 My heart doth faint for want of breath,
it panteth in my breast:
The terrors and the dread of death
do work me much unrest.
- 6 Such dreadful fear on me doth fall,
that I therewith do quake:
Such horror overwhelm me withall,
that I no shift can make.
- 7 But I did say, Who will give me
the swift and pleasant wings
Of some fair dove, that I may flee,
and rest me from these things?
- 8 Lo then I would go far away,
to flee I would not cease:
And I would hide my self, and stay
in some great wilderness.
- 9 I would be gone in all the haste,
and not abide behind:
That I were quit and overpast
these blasts of boistrous wind.
- 10 Divide them, Lord, and from them pull
their devilish double tongue:
For I have spy'd their city full of rapine, strife and wrong.

Psal. lv.

- 11 Which things both night and day throughout,
do close her as a wall:
In midst of her is mischief stout,
and sorrow eke withall.
- 12 Her inward parts are wicked plain,
her deeds are much too vile:
And in her streets there doth remain
all crafty fraud and guile.

The second part.

- 13 If that my foes did seek my shame,
I might it well abide:
From open enemies check and blame
somewhere I could me hide.
- 14 But thou it was my fellow dear,
which friendship didst pretend,
And didst my secret counsel hear,
as my familiar friend.
- 15 With whom I had delight to talk
in secret and abroad,
And we together oft did walk
within the house of God.
- 16 Let death in haste upon them fall,
and send them quick to hell:
For mischief reigneth in the hall,
and parlour where they dwell.
- 17 But I unto my God will cry,
to him for help I flee:
The Lord will help me by and by,
and he will succour me.
- 18 At morning, noon, and evening-tide
unto the Lord I pray:
When I so instantly have cri'd,
he doth not say me nay.
- 19 To peace he shall restore me yet,
though war be now at hand:
Although the number be full great
that would against me stand.
- 20 The Lord that first and last doth reign,
both now and evermore,
Will hear when I to him complain,
and punish them full fore.
- 21 For sure there is no hope that they
to turn will once accord:
For why? they will not God obey,
nor yet do fear the Lord.
- 22 Upon their friends they laid their hands,
which were in covenant knit:
Of friendship to neglect the bands
they pass or care no whit.
- 23 While they have war within their hearts,
as butter are their words:
Although their words were smooth as oyl,
they cut as sharp as swords.
- 24 Cast thou thy care upon the Lord,
and he shall nourish thee:
For in no wise will he accord
the just in thrall to see.

25 But God shall cast them deep in pit,
that thirst for blood always:
He will no guileful man permit
to live out half his days.
26 Though such be quite destroy'd and gone,
in thee, O Lord, I trust:
I shall depend thy grace upon,
with all my heart and lust.

Miserere mei. Psal. lvi. J. H.

HAVE mercy, Lord, on me, I pray,
for man would me devour:
He fighteth with me day by day,
and troubleth me each hour.
2 Mine enemies daily enterprise
to swallow me outright:
To fight against me many rise,
O thou most high of might.
3 When they would make me most afraid
with boasts and brags of pride,
I trust in thee alone for aid,
by thee I will abide.
4 God's promise I do mind and praise,
O Lord, I stick to thee:
I do not care at all assays
what flesh can do to me.
5 What things I either did or spake,
they wrest them at their will:
And all the counsel that they take
is how to work me ill.
6 They all consent themselves to hide,
close watch for me to lay:
They spy my paths, and snares have tid
to take my life away.
7 Shall they thus scape on mischief set?
thou God on them wilt frown:
For in his wrath he doth not let
to throw whole kingdoms down.
8 Thou seest how oft they made me flee,
and on my tears dost look:
Reserve them in a glass by thee,
and write them in thy book.
9 When I do call upon thy Name,
my foes away do start:
I well perceive it by the same,
that God doth take my part.
10 I glory in the word of God,
to praise it I accord:
With joy I will declare abroad
the promise of the Lord.
11 I trust in God, and yet I say,
as I before began,
The Lord he is my help and stay,
I do not care for man.
12 I will perform with heart so free
to God my vows always:
And I, O Lord, all times to thee
will offer thanks and praise.

13 My soul from death thou dost defend,
and keep'st my feet upright:
That I before thee may ascend
with such as live in light.

Miserere mei. Psal. lvii. J. H.

TAKE pity for thy promise sake,
have mercy, Lord, on me:
For why? my soul doth her betake
unto the help of thee.
2 Within the shadow of thy wings,
I set my self full fast,
Till mischief, malice, and like things
be gone and overpast.
3 I call upon the God most high,
to whom I stick and stand:
I mean the God that will stand by the cause I have in hand.
4 From heaven he hath sent his aid,
to save me from their spite,
That to devour me have assay'd,
his mercy, truth, and might.
5 I lead my life with lions fell,
all set on wrath and ire:
And with such wicked men I dwell,
that fret like flames of fire.
6 Their teeth are spears and arrows long
as sharp as I have seen:
They wound and cut with their quick tongue
like swords and weapons keen.
7 Set up and shew thy self, O God,
above the heavens bright:
Exalt thy praise on earth abroad,
thy majesty and might.
8 They lay their net and do prepare a privy cave and pit:
Wherein they think my soul to snare,
but they are fall'n in it.
9 My heart is set to laud the Lord,
in him to joy always:
My heart, I say, doth well accord
to sing his laud and praise.
10 Awake, my joy, awake, I say,
my lute, my harp and string:
For I my self before the day
will rise, rejoice, and sing.
11 Among the people I will tell,
the goodness of my God,
And shew his praise that doth excell,
in heathen lands abroad.
12 His mercy doth extend as far as heavens all are high:
His truth as high as any star
that shineth in the sky.
13 Set forth and shew thy self, O God,
above the heavens bright:
Extol thy praise on earth abroad,
thy majesty and might.

Si aere urigue. Pſal. lviii. 7. H.

YE rulers that are put in truſt
to judge of wrong and right,
Be all your judgments true and juſt,
not knowing meed or might?

2 Nay, in your hearts ye mark and muſe
in miſchief to conſent,
And where ye ſhould true juſtice uſe,
your hands to bribes are bent.

3 The wicked ſort from their birth-day
have erred on this wiſe :
And from their mothers womb alway,
have uſed craft and lyes.

4 In them the poiſon and the breath
of ſerpents do appear :
Yea, like the adder that is deaf,
and ſaſt doth ſtop her ear.

5 Becauſe ſhe will not hear the voice
of one that charmeth well :
No though he were the chief of choice,
and did therein excell.

6 O God, break thou their teeth at once within their mouths throughout :
The tuſks that in their great jaw-bones
like lions whelps hang out.

7 Let them conſume away and waſte,
as water runs forth right :
The ſhafts that they do ſhoot in haſte,
let them be broke in flight.

8 As ſnails do waſte within the ſhell,
and unto ſlime do run :
As one before his time that fell,
and never ſaw the ſun.

9 Before the thorns that now are Young,
to buſhes big ſhall grow :
The ſtorms of anger waxing ſtrong
ſhall take them ere they know.

10 The juſt ſhall joy, it doth them good that God doth vengeance take :
And they ſhall waſh their feet in blood
of them that him forſake.

11 Then ſhall the world ſhew forth and tell,
that good men have reward ;
And that a God on earth doth dwell,
that juſtice doth regard.

Eripe me. Pſal. lix. 7. H.

SEnd aid and ſave me from my foes,
O Lord, I pray to thee :
Defend and keep me from all thoſe
that riſe and ſtrive with me.

2 O Lord, preſerve me from thoſe men,
whoſe doings are not good :
And ſet me ſure and ſafe from them
that thirſt ſtill after blood.

3 For lo, they wait my ſoul to take,
they rage againſt me ſtill :

Yea, for no fault that I did make,
I never did them ill.

4 They run and do themſelves prepare,
when I no whit offend :
Arise and ſave me from their ſnare,
and ſee what they intend.

5 O Lord of hoſts of Iſrael, ariſe and ſtrike all lands :
And pity none that do rebel,
and in their miſchiefs ſtands.

6 At night they ſtir and ſeek about,
as hounds they howl and grin :
And all the city clean throughout,
from place to place they run.

7 They ſpeak of me with mouth alway,
but in their lips are ſwords :
They 'greed my death, and then would ſay,
What? none doth hear our words.

8 But, Lord, thou haſt their ways eſpy'd,
and laugh't thereat apace :
The heathen folk thou doſt deride,
and mock them to their face.

9 The ſtrength that doth our foes withſtand,
O Lord, doth come from thee :
My God he is my help at hand,
a fort of fence to me.

10 The Lord to me doth ſhew his grace
in great abundance ſtill :
That I may ſee my foes in caſe ſuch as my heart doth will.

The ſecond part.

11 Deſtroy them not at once, O Lord,
leſt it from mind do fall :
But with thy ſtrength drive them abroad,
and ſo conſume them all.

12 For their ill words and truthleſs tongue
confound them in their pride :
Their wicked oaths with lyes and wrong,
let all the world deride.

13 Conſume them in thy wrath, O Lord,
that nought of them remain :
That men may know throughout the world
that Jacob's God doth reign.

14 At evening they return apace,
as dogs they grin and cry :
Throughout the ſtreets in every place
they run about and ſpy.

15 They ſeek about for meat, I ſay,
but let them not be fed :
Nor find a houſe wherein they may be bold to put their head.

16 But I will ſhew thy ſtrength abroad,
thy goodneſs I will praiſe :
For thou art my defence and God
at need in all affairs.

17 Thou art my ſtrength, thou haſt me ſtand'd ;
O Lord, I ſing to thee :

Thou

Thou art my fort, my fence, and aid,
a loving God to me.

Deus, repulſiſti. Pſal. lx. J. H.

O Lord, thou didſt us clean forſake,
and ſcatt' redſt us abroad:

Such great diſpleaſure thou didſt take;
return to us, O God.

2 Thy might did move the land ſo fore,
that it in ſunder brake:

The hurt thereof, O Lord, reſtore,
for it doth bow and quake.

3 With heavy chance thou plagueſt thus
the people that are thine:

And thou haſt given unto us
a drink of deadly wine.

4 But yet to ſuch as fear thy Name
a banner thou didſt ſhew:

That they might triumph in the ſame,
becauſe thy word is true.

5 So that thy might may keep and ſave
thy folk that favour thee:

That they thy help at hand may have,
O Lord, grant this to me.

6 The Lord did ſpeak from his own place,
this was his joyful tale,

I will divide Sichem by pace,
and mete out Succoth's vale.

7 Gilcad is given to my hand,
Manaſſes mine beſide:

Ephraim the ſtrength of all my land,
my law doth Judah guide.

8 In Moab I will waſh my feet,
o'er Edom throw my ſhoce:

And thou Paleſtine ought'ſt to ſeek
for favour me unto.

9 But who will bring me at this tide unto this city ſtrong?

Or who to Edom will me guide,
ſo that I go not wrong?

10 Wilt thou not God, which didſt forſake
thy folk, their land and coaſts?

Our wars in hand thou would'ſt not take,
nor walk among our hoſts.

11 Give aid, O Lord and us relieve from them that us diſdain:

The help that hoſts of men can give,
it is but all in vain.

12 But through our God we ſhall have might
to take great things in hand:

He will tread down and put to flight
all thoſe that us withſtand.

Exaudi Deus. Pſal. lxi. J. H.

Regard, O Lord, for I complain,
and make my ſuit to thee:
Let not my words return in vain,
but give an ear to me.

2 From out the coaſts and utmoſt parts
of all the earth abroad,
In grief and anguiſh of my heart
I cry to thee, O God.

3 Upon the rock of thy great power,
my woful mind reſoſe:
Thou art my hope, my fort and tower,
my fence againſt my foes.

4 Within thy tent I luſt to dwell,
for ever to endure:
Under thy wings I know right well,
I ſhall be ſafe and ſure.

5 The Lord doth my deſire regard,
and doth fulfill the ſame:
With godly gifts will he reward
all thoſe that fear his Name.

6 The king ſhall he in health maintain,
and ſo prolong his days:
That he from age to age ſhall reign,
for evermore always.

7 That he may have a dwelling-place
before the Lord for ay;
O let thy mercy, truth, and grace,
defend him from decay.

8 Then ſhall I ſing for ever ſtill
with praife unto thy Name:
That all my vows I may fulfill,
and daily pay the ſame.

Nonne Deo. Pſal. lxii. J. H.

MY ſoul to God ſhall give good heed,
and him alone attend:
For why? my health and hope to ſpeed
doth whole on him depend.

2 For he alone is my defence,
my rock, my health, and aid:
He is my ſtay, that no pretence
ſhall make me much diſmaid.

3 O wicked folk, how long will ye
uſe craft? ſure ye muſt fall:
For as a rotten hedge ye be,
and like a tott'ring wall.

4 Whom God doth love, ye ſeek always
to put him to the worſe:
Ye love to lye, with mouth ye praife,
and yet your heart doth curſe.

5 Yet ſtill my ſoul doth whole depend on God my chief deſire:
From all ill ſeats me to defend,
none but him I require.

9 He is my rock, my fort and tower,
my health is of his grace:
He doth ſupport me, that no power
can move me out of place.

7 God is my glory and my health,
my ſouls deſire and luſt:
My fort, my ſtrength, my ſtay, my wealth,
God is my onely truſt.

- 8 O have your truſt in him alway,
ye folk with one accord :
Pour out your hearts to him and fay,
our truſt is in the Lord.
- 9 The ſons of men deceitful are,
on balance but a ſleight :
With things moſt vain do them compare,
for they can keep no weight.
- 10 Truſt not in wrong, robb'ry, nor ſtealth,
let vain delights be gone :
Though goods well got flow in with wealth,
ſet not your hearts thereon.
- 11 The Lord long ſince one thing did tell,
which here to mind I call :
He ſpake it oft, I heard it well,
that God alone doth all.
- 12 And that thou, Lord, art good and kind,
thy mercy doth exceed :
So that all ſorts with thee ſhall find
according to their deed.

Deus, Deus meus. Pſal. lxiii. T. S.

- O God my God, I watch betime
to come to thee in haſte :
For why ? my ſoul and body both
do thiſt of thee to taſte.
And in this barren wilderneſs
where waters there are none,
My fleſh is parcht for thought of thee,
for thee I wiſh alone.
- 2 That I might ſee yet once again
thy glory ſtrength, and might,
As I was wont it to behold
within thy temple bright.
- 3 For why ? thy mercies far ſurmount
this life and wretched days :
My lips therefore ſhall give to thee
due honour, laud, and praiſe.
- 4 And whil'ſt I live, I will not fail
to worſhip thee alway :
And in thy Name I ſhall liſt up
my hands when I do pray.
- 5 My ſoul is filled with marrow,
which is both fat and ſweet :
My mouth therefore ſhall ſing ſuch ſongs
as are for thee moſt meet ;
- 6 When as in bed I think on thee,
and eke all the night-tide.
- 7 For under covert of thy wings,
thou art my joyful guide.
- 8 My ſoul doth ſurely ſtick to thee,
thy right hand is my power :
- 9 And thoſe that ſeek my ſoul to ſtroy,
them death ſhall ſoon devour.
- 10 The ſword ſhall them devour each one,
their carcaſes ſhall feed
The hungry foxes, which do run their prey to ſeek at need.

- 11 The King and all men ſhall rejoice,
that do profels God's word :
For liars mouths ſhall then be ſtopt,
which have the truth diſturb'd.

Exaudi, Deus. Pſal. lxiv. J. H.

- O Lord, unto my voice give ear,
with plaint when I do pray :
And rid my life and ſoul from fear
of foes that threat to ſlay.
- 2 Defend me from that fort of men
which in deceit do lurk :
And from the frowning face of them
that all ill ſeats do work.
- 3 Who whet their tongues as we have ſeen
men whet and ſharp their ſwords :
They ſhoot abroad their arrows keen,
I mean moſt bitter words.
- 4 With privy ſleights ſhoot they their ſhaft,
the upright man to hit :
The juſt un'wares to ſtrike by craft,
they care or fear no whit.
- 5 A wicked work they have decreed,
in counſel thus they cry,
To uſe deceit let us not dread,
what ? who can it eſpy ?
- 6 What way to hurt they talk and muſe
all times within their heart :
They all conſult what ſeats to uſe,
each doth invent his part.
- 7 But yet all this ſhall not prevail ;
when they think leaſt upon,
God with his dart ſhall ſure aſſail
and wound them every one.
- 8 Their crafts and their ill tongues withall
ſhall work themſelves ſuch blame,
That they which then behold their fall,
ſhall wonder at the ſame.
- 9 Then all that ſee ſhall know right well
that God the thing hath wrought,
And praiſe his witty works, and tell what he to paſs hath brought.
- 10 Yet ſhall the juſt in God rejoice,
ſtill truſting in his might :
So ſhall they joy with mind and voice,
whoſe hearts are pure and right.

Te decet hymnus. Pſal. lxv. J. H.

- THY praiſe alone, O Lord, doth reign
in Zion thine own hill :
Their vows to thee they do maintain,
and their becheſts fulfill.
- 2 For that thou doſt their prayers hear,
and doſt thereto agree :
The people all both far and near
with truſt ſhall come to thee.
- 3 Our wicked life ſo far exceeds,
that we ſhall fall therein :

But Lord forgive our great misdeeds,
and purge us from our sin.

4 The man is blest whom thou dost chuse
within thy courts to dwell :

Thy house and temple he shall use,
with pleasures that excell.

5 Of thy great justice hear us, God,
our health of thee doth rise :

The hope of all the earth abroad,
and the sea-coasts likewise.

6 With strength thou art beset about,
and compass with thy power :

Thou mak'st the mountains strong and stout,
to stand in every shower.

7 The swelling seas thou dost assuage,
and make their streams full still :

Thou dost restrain the peoples rage,
and rule them at thy will.

8 The folk that dwell full far on earth shall dread thy signs to see,

Which mourn and even in great mirth
do pass with praise to thee.

9 When that the earth is chapt and dry,
and thirsteth more and more,

Then with thy drops thou dost apply,
and much increase her store.

10 The flood of God doth overflow,
and so doth cause to spring

The seed and corn which men do sow,
for he doth guide the thing.

11 With wet thou dost her furrows fill,
whereby her clouds do fall :

Thy drops on her thou dost distill :
and bless her fruit withall.

12 Thou deck'st the earth of thy good grace
with fair and pleasant crop :

Thy clouds distill their dew apace,
great plenty they do drop :

13 Whereby the desert shall begin full great increase to bring :

The little hills shall joy therein,
much fruit in them shall spring.

14 In places plain the flocks shall feed,
and cover all the earth :

The vales with corn shall so exceed,
that men shall sing for mirth.

Jubilare Deo. Psalm lxvi. T. S.

YE men on earth in God rejoice,
with praise set forth his Name :

Extol his might with heart and voice,
give glory to the same.

8 How wonderful, O Lord, say ye,
in all thy works thou art :

Thy foes for fear shall seek to thee
full sore against their heart.

9 All men that dwell the earth throughout,
shall praise the name of God :

The laud thereof the world about
is shew'd and set abroad.

4 All folk come forth, behold and see what things the Lord hath wrought !

Mark well the wondrous works that he
for man to pass hath brought.

5 He laid the sea like heaps on high,
therein a way they had

On foot to pass both fair and dry,
whereof there hearts were glad.

6 His might doth rule the world alway,
his eyes all things behold :

All such as would him disobey,
by him shall be controul'd.

7 Ye people give unto our God
due laud and thanks alway :

With loyal voice declare abroad,
and sing unto his praise :

8 Which doth endue our soul with life,
and it preserve withall :

He stays our feet, so that no strife
can make us slip or fall.

9 The Lord doth prove our deeds with fire,
if that they will abide :

As workmen do when they desire to have their metals tri'd.

10 Although thou suffer us so long
in prison to be cast,

And there with chains and fetters strong
to lie in bondage fast.

The second part.

11 Although, I say, thou suffer men
on us to ride and reign :

Though we through fire and water run,
of very grief and pain :

12 Yet sure thou dost of thy good grace
dispose it to the best,

And bring us out into a place,
to live in wealth and rest.

13 Unto thy house resort will I
to offer and to pray,

And there I will my self apply
my vows to thee to pay.

14 The vows that with my mouth I spake
in all my grief and smart :

The vows, I say, which I did make
in dolour of my heart.

15 Burnt-offerings I will give to thee
of oxen fat, and rams :

Yea, this my sacrifice shall be of bullocks, goats, and lambs.

16 Come forth and hearken here full soon,
all ye that fear the Lord :

What he for my poor soul hath done
to you I will record.

17 Full oft I call to mind his grace,
this mouth to him doth cry :

And

And thou my tongue make speed apace
to praise him by and by.

18 But if I feel my heart within
in wicked works rejoice :

Or if I have delight to sin,
God will not hear my voice.

19 But surely God my voice hath heard,
and what I do require :

My prayer he doth well regard,
and granteth my desire.

20 All praise to him that hath not put
nor cast me out of mind :

Nor yet his mercy from me shut,
which I do ever find.

Deus miserator. Pſal. lxxvii. 7. H.

HAVE mercy on us, Lord,
and grant to us thy grace :

To shew to us do thou accord
the brightness of thy face :

2 That all the earth may know
the way to godly wealth :

And all the nations on a row
may see thy saving health.

3 Let all the world, O God,
give praise unto thy Name :

O let the people all abroad
extol and laud the same.

3 Throughout the world so wide
let all rejoice with mirth :

For thou with truth and right dost guide
the nations of the earth.

4 Let all the world; O God;
give praise unto thy Name :

O let the people all abroad
extol and laud the same.

6 Then shall the earth increase,
great store of fruit shall fall,

And then our God the God of peace shall bless us eke withal.

7 God shall us bless, I say,
and then both far and near,

The folk throughout the earth alway
of him shall stand in fear.

Exargat Deus. Pſal. lxxviii. 7. S.

LET God arise, and then his foes
will turn themselves to flight :

His enemies then will run abroad,
and scatter out of sight.

2 And as the fire doth melt the wax,
and wind blows smoke away :

So in the presence of the Lord
the wicked shall decay.

3 But righteous men before the Lord
shall heartily rejoice :

They shall be glad and merry all,
and cheerful in their voice.

4 Sing praise, sing praise unto the Lord,
who rideth on the skie :

Extol the Name of Jah our God,
and him do magnifie.

5 The same is he that is above
within his holy place,

That father is of fatherless,
and Judge of widows case.

6 Houses he gives and issue both unto the comfortless :

He bringeth bondmen out of thrall,
and rebels to distress.

7 When thou didst march before thy folk
th' Egyptians from among,
And brought'st them through the wilderness,
which was both wide and long :

8 The earth did quake, the rain pour'd down,
heard were great claps of thunder ;
The mount Sinai shook in such sort,
as it would break in sunder.

9 Thine heritage with drops of rain
abundantly was waft :

And if so be it barren waxt,
by thee it was refresht.

10 Thy chosen flock doth there remain,
thou hast prepar'd that place,

And for the poor thou dost provide
of thine especial grace.

The second part.

11 God will give women causes just
to magnifie his Name,

When as his people triumphs make,
and purchase bruit and fame.

12 For puissant kings for all their power,
shall see and take the foil,

And women which remain at home
shall help to part the spoil.

13 And though ye were as black as pots,
your hue shall pass the dove,

Whose wings and feathers seem to have silver and gold above.

14 When in this land God shall triumph
o'er kings both high and low,

Then shall it be like Salmon hill,
as white as any snow.

15 Though Babel be a fruitful hill
and in height others pass :

Yet Zion God's most holy hill
doth far excel in grace.

16 Why brag ye thus ye hills most high,
and leap for pride together :

The hill of Zion God doth love,
and there will dwell for ever.

17 God's army is two million
of warriours good and strong :

The Lord also in Sinai
is present them among.

18 Thou didst (O Lord) ascend on high,
and captives led'st them all,
Which in times past thy chosen flock
in bondage kept and thrall.

Thou mad'st them tribute for to pay;
and such as did repine
Thou didst subdue, that they might dwell
in thy temple divine.

19 Now praised be the Lord, for that he pours on us such grace:
From day to day he is the God
of our health and solace.

the third part.

20 He is the God from whom alone
salvation cometh plain:
He is the God by whom we scape
all dangers, death, and pain.

21 Thus God will wound his enemies head,
and break the hairy scalp
Of those that in their wickedness continually do walk.

22 From Babel will I bring, said he,
my people and my sheep:
And all mine own, as I have done,
from dangers of the deep.

23 And make them dip their feet in blood
of those that hate my Name:
And dogs shall have their tongues embrew'd
with licking of the same.

24 All men may see how thou, O God,
thine enemies dost deface:
And how thou go'st as God and King
into thine holy place.

25 The singers go before with joy,
the minstrels follow after:
And in the midst the damsels play
with timbrel and with taber.

26 Now in the congregation,
O Israel praise the Lord:
And Jacob's whole posterity,
give thanks with one accord.

27 Their chief was little Benjamin,
but Judah made their host,
With Zabulon and Nephthali,
which dwelt about their coast.

28 As God hath given power to thee,
so Lord make firm and sure
The thing that thou hast wrought in us,
for ever to endure.

29 And in thy temple gifts will we give unto thee, O Lord,
For thine unto Jerusalem
sure promise made by word.

The fourth part.

Yea, and strange kings to us subdu'd
shall do like in those days:

I mean to thee they shall present
their gifts of laud and praise.

30 He shall destroy the spear-mens ranks,
the calves and bulls of might:
And cause them tribute pay, and daunt
all such as love to fight.

31 Then shall the lords of Egypt come,
and presents with them bring:
The Moors most black shall stretch their hands
unto their Lord and King.

32 Therefore ye kingdoms of the earth,
give praise unto the Lord:
Sing psalms to God with one consent,
thereto let all accord.

33 Who though he ride and ever hath
above the heavens bright:
Yet by the fearful thunder-claps men may well know his might.

34 Therefore the strength of Israel
ascribe to God on high,
Whose might and power doth far extend above the cloudy sky.

35 O God, thy holiness and power
is dread for evermore:
The God of Israel give us strength,
—praised be God therefore.

Salvum me fac. Psal. lxxix. 7. R.

SAve me, O God, and that with speed,
the waters flow full fast:
So nigh my soul do they proceed,
that I am sore agast.

2 I stick full deep in mire and clay,
whereas I feel no ground:
I fall into such floods, I say,
that I am like be drown'd.

3 With crying oft I faint and quail,
my throat is hoarse and dry:
With looking up my sight doth fail,
for help to God on high.

4 My foes that guiltless do oppress
my soul, with hate are led:
In number sure they are no less than hairs are on my head.

5 Though for no cause they vex me sore,
they prosper and are glad:
They do compel me to restore the things I never had.

6 What I have done for want of wit,
thou, Lord, all times canst tell:
And all the faults that I commit
to thee are known full well.

7 O God of hosts, defend and stay
all those that trust in thee:
Let no man doubt or shrink away
for ought that chanceth me.

8 It is for thee and for thy sake
that I do bear this blame:

In spite of thee they would me make
to hide my face for shame.

9 My mother's sons, my brethren all forsake me on a row :

And as a stranger they me call,
my face they will not know.

10 Unto thy house such zeal I bear,
that it doth pine me much :

Their checks and taunts at thee to hear,
my very heart doth grutch.

The second part.

11 Though I do fast, my flesh to chafe,
yea, if I weep and moan :
Yet in my teeth this gear is cast,
they pass not thereupon.

12 If I for grief and pain of heart
in sackcloth use to walk,
Then they anon will it pervert,
thereof they jest and talk.

13 Both high and low, and all the throng
that sit within the gate,
They have me ever in their tongue ;
of me they talk and prate.

14 The drunkards which in wine delight,
it is their chief pastime,
To seek which way to work me spite ;
of me they sing and rhyme.

15 But thee the while, O Lord, I pray,
that when it pleaseth thee,
For thy great truth thou wilt alway
send down thine aid to me.

16 Pluck thou my feet out of the mire,
from drowning do me keep :
From such as owe me wrath and ire,
and from the waters deep.

17 Left with the waves I should be drown'd,
and depth my soul devour,
And that the pit should me confound,
and shut me in her power.

18 O Lord of hosts, to me give ear,
as thou art good and kind :
And as thy mercy is most dear,
Lord, have me in thy mind.

19 And do not from thy servant hide,
nor turn thy face away :
I am oppress'd on every side,
in haste give ear, I say.

20 O Lord, unto my soul draw nigh,
the same with aid repose :
Because of their great tyranny,
acquit me from my foes.

The third part.

21 That I abide rebuke and shame
thou know'st and thou canst tell :
For those that seek and work the same,
thou seest them all full well.

22 When they with brags do break my heart,
I seek for help anon :
But find no friends to ease my smart,
to comfort me not one.

23 But in my meat they gave me gall,
too cruel for to think :

And gave me in my thirst withall
strong vinegar to drink.

24 Lord, turn their table to a snare
to take themselves therein :
And when they think full well to fare,
then trap them in the gin.

25 And let their eyes be dark and blind,
that they may nothing see :
Bow down their backs and do them bind,
in thraldom for to be.

26 Pour out thy wrath as hot as fire,
that it on them may fall :
Let thy displeasure in thine ire
take hold upon them all.

27 As deserts dry their house disgrace,
their off-spring eke expel :
That none thereof possess their place,
nor in their tents do dwell.

28 If thou dost strike the man to tame,
on him they lay full sore :
And if that thou do wound the same,
they seek to hurt him more.

29 Then let them heap up mischief still,
(fith they are all pervert)
That of thy favour and good will they never have a part.

30 And raise them clean out of thy book
of life, of hope, of trust :
That for their names they never look
in number of the just.

The fourth part.

31 Though I, O Lord, with woe and grief
have been full sore oppress'd :
Thy help shall give me such relief,
that all shall be redrest.

32 That I may give thy Name the praise,
and shew it with a song :
I will extol the same always with hearty thanks among.

33 Which is more pleasant unto thee,
(such mind thy grace hath born)
Than either ox or calf can be,
that hath both hoof and horn.

34 When simple folk do this behold,
it shall rejoice them sure :
All ye that seek the Lord, behold,
your life for ay shall dure.

35 For why? the Lord of hosts doth hear
the poor when they complain :
His prisoners are to him full dear,
he doth them not disdain.

- 36 Wherefore the sky and earth below,
the sea, with floud and stream;
His praise they shall declare and show,
with all that live in them.
- 37 For sure our God will Sion save,
and Juda's cities build:
- 38 Much folk possession there shall have,
her streets shall all be fill'd.
His servants seed shall keep the same
all ages out of mind:
- 39 And there all they that love his Name;
a dwelling-place shall find.

Deus in adiutorium. Psal. lxx. J. H.

- O God to me take heed,
of help I thee require:
O Lord of hosts with haste and speed
help, help, I thee desire.
- 2 With shame confound them all
that seek my soul to spill:
Rebuke them back with blame to fall
that think and wish me ill.
- 3 Confound them that apply
and seek to work me shame:
And at my harm do laugh, and cry,
So, so, there goes the game.
- 4 But let them joyfull be
in thee with joy and wealth,
Which onely trust and seek to thee,
and to thy saving health.
- 5 That they may say always
in mirth and one accord,
All glory, honour, laud and praise
be given to thee, O Lord.
- 6 But I am weak and poor,
come, Lord, thine aid I lack.
Thou art my stay and help, therefore make speed, and be not slack.

In te, Domine. Psal. lxxi. J. H.

- MY Lord my God, in all distress
my hope is whole in thee:
Then let no shame my soul oppress,
nor once take hold on me.
- 2 As thou art just, defend me, Lord,
and rid me out of dread:
Give ear, and to my suit accord,
and send me help at need.
- 3 Be thou my rock, to whom I may
for aid all times resort:
Thy promise is to help alway,
thou art my fence and fort.
- 4 Save me, my God, from wicked men,
and from their strength and power:
From folk unjust, and eke from them
that cruelly devour.
- 5 Thou art the stay wherein I trust,
thou Lord of hosts art he:

- Yea, from my youth I had a lust
still to depend on thee.
- 6 Thou hast me kept even from my birth,
and I through thee was born:
Wherefore I will thee praise with mirth,
both evening and at morn.
- 7 As to a monster seldom seen,
much folk about me throng:
But thou art now, and still hast been my fence and aid so strong.
- 8 Wherefore my mouth no time shall lack
thy glory and thy praise:
And eke my tongue shall not be slack
to honour thee always.
- 9 Refuse me not, O Lord, I say,
when age my limbs doth take:
And when my strength doth waste away,
do not my soul forsake.
- 10 Among themselves my foes inquire
to take me through deceit:
And they against me do conspire,
that for my soul laid wait.

The second part.

- 11 Lay hand, and take him now, they said,
for God from him is gone:
Dispatch him quite, for to his aid
(I wis) there cometh none.
- 12 Do not absent thy self away,
O Lord, when need shall be:
But that in time of grief thou may in haste give help to me.
- 13 With shame confound and overthrow
all those that seek my life:
Oppress them with rebuke also,
that fain would work me strife.
- 14 But I will patiently abide thy help at all assays:
Still more and more, each time and tide,
I will set forth thy praise.
- 15 My mouth thy justice shall record,
that daily help doth send:
But of thy benefits, O Lord,
I know no count nor end.
- 16 Yet will I go and seek forth one,
with thy good help, O God,
The saving health of thee alone
to shew and set abroad.
- 17 For of my youth thou took'st the care,
and dost instruct me still:
Therefore thy wonders to declare
I have great mind and will.
- 18 And as in youth from wanton rage
thou didst me keep and stay:
Forsake me not unto mine age,
and till my head be gray.

The third part.

- 19 That I thy ſtrength and might may ſhow
to them that now be here:
And that our feed thy power may know
hereafter many a year.
- 20 O Lord, thy juſtice doth exceed
thy doings all may ſee:
Thy works are wonderful indeed,
oh! who is like to thee.
- 21 Thou mad'ſt me feel affliction fore,
and yet thou didſt me ſave:
Yea, thou didſt help, and me reſtore,
and took'ſt me from the grave.
- 22 And thou mine honour doſt increaſe,
my dignity maintain:
Yea, thou doſt make all grief to ceaſe,
and comfort'ſt me again.
- 23 Therefore thy faithfulneſs to praife
I will with viol ſing:
My harp ſhall ſound thy praife always,
O Iſrael's holy King.
- 24 My mouth will joy with pleaſant voice
when I ſhall ſing to thee:
And eke my ſoul will much rejoice,
for thou haſt made me free.
- 25 My tongue thy uprightneſs ſhall ſound,
and ſpeak it daily ſtill:
For grief and ſhame do them confound
that ſeek to work me ill.

Deus, judicium. Pſal. lxxii. J. H.

- LORD, give thy judgment to the king,
therein inſtruct him well:
And with his ſon that princely thing,
Lord, let thy juſtice dwell.
- 2 That he may govern uprightly,
and rule thy folk aright:
And ſo defend through equity
the poor that have no might.
- 3 And let the mountains that are high
unto thy folk give peace:
And eke let little hills apply,
in juſtice to increaſe.
- 4 That he may help the weak and poor
with aid, and make them ſtrong:
And eke deſtroy for evermore
all thoſe that do them wrong.
- 5 And then from age to age ſhall they regard and fear thy might:
So long as ſun doth ſhine by day,
or eke the moon by night.
- 6 Lord, make the king unto the juſt
like rain to fields new mown:
And like to drops that lay the duſt,
and freſh the land new ſown.
- 7 The juſt ſhall flouriſh in his time,
and all ſhall be at peace,

- Until the moon ſhall leave to prime,
waſte, change, and to increaſe.
- 8 He ſhall be lord of ſea and land,
from ſhore to ſhore throughout:
And from the flouds within the land,
through all the earth about.
- 9 The people that in deſerts dwell
ſhall kneel to him full thick:
And all his enemies that rebel
the earth and duſt ſhall lick.
- 10 The lords of all the iſles thereby great gifts to him ſhall bring:
The kings of Saba and Araby
give many a coſtly thing.

The ſecond part.

- 11 All kings ſhall ſeek with one accord
in his good grace to ſtand:
And all the people of the world
ſhall ſerve him at his hand.
- 12 For he the needy fort doth ſave
that unto him do call:
And eke the ſimple folk that have no help of man at all.
- 13 He taketh pity on the poor
that are with need oppreſt:
He doth preſerve them evermore,
and bring their ſouls to reſt.
- 14 He ſhall redeem their lives from dread,
from fraud, from wrong, from might:
And eke the blood that they ſhall bleed
is precious in his ſight.
- 15 But he ſhall live, and they ſhall bring to him of Saba's gold:
He ſhall be honour'd as a king,
and daily be extoll'd.
- 16 The mighty mountains of his land
of corn ſhall bear ſuch throng,
That it like cedar-trees ſhall ſtand
in Libanus full long.
- 17 Their cities eke full well ſhall ſpeed,
the fruits thereof ſhall paſs:
In plenty it ſhall far exceed,
and ſpring as green as graſs.
- 18 For ever they ſhall praife his Name,
while that the ſun is light:
And think them happy through the ſame,
all folk ſhall bleiſs his might.
- 19 Praiſe ye the Lord of hoſts and ſing,
to Iſrael's God each one:
For he doth every wondrous thing;
yea, he himſelf alone.
- 20 And bleſſed be his holy Name
all times eternally:
That all the earth may praife the ſame,
amen, amen, ſay I.

Quam bonus Deus. Psal. lxxiii. T. S.

HOwe'er it be, yet God is good and kind to Israel :

And to all such as safely keep their conscience pure and well.

2 Yet like a fool I almost slipt,
my feet began to slide :

And e'er I wist even at a pinch
my steps awry 'gan glide.

3 For when I saw such foolish men,
I grudg'd and did disdain
That wicked men all things should have without turmoil or pain.

4 They never suffer pangs nor grief,
as if death should them smite :
Their bodies are both stout and strong,
and ever in good plight :

5 And free from all adversity
when other men be shent :
And with the rest they take no part of plague or punishment.

6 Therefore presumption doth embrace their necks as doth a chain :
And are even wrapt as in a robe,
with rapine and disdain.

7 They are so fed that even for fat
their eyes oft-times out start :
And as for worldly goods they have more than can with their heart.

8 Their life is most licentious,
boasting much of the wrong
Which they have done to simple men,
and ever pride among.

9 The heavens and the living Lord
they spare not to blaspheme :
And prate they do of worldly things,
no wight they do esteem.

10 The people of God oft-times turn back to see their prosperous state :
And almost drink the self-same cup,
and follow the same rate.

The second part.

11 How can it be that God, say they,
should know or understand These worldly things, sith wicked men
be lords of sea and land ?

12 For we may see how wicked men
in riches still increase,
Rewarded well with worldly goods,
and live in rest and peace.

13 Then why do I from wickedness
my fantasie refrain,
And wash my hands with innocents,
and cleanse my heart in vain ?

14 And suffer scourges every day,
as subject to all blame :

And every morning from my youth sustain rebuke and shame ?

15 And I had almost said as they,
misliking mine estate :
But that I should thy children judge
as folk unfortunate.

16 Then I bethought me how I might
this matter understand :
But yet the labour was too great
for me to take in hand :

17 Until the time I went into thine holy place, and then I understood right perfectly
the end of all these men.

18 And namely, how thou settest them
upon a slippery place :
And at thy pleasure and thy will thou dost them all deface.

19 Then all men muse at that strange sight,
to see how suddenly
They are destroy'd, dispatch'd, consum'd,
and dead so horribly.

20 Much like a dream when one awakes,
so shall their wealth decay :
Their famous names in all mens sight
shall ebb and pass away.

The third part.

21 Yet thus my heart was grieved then,
my mind was much oppress :
22 So fond was I and ignorant,
and in this point a beast.

23 Yet nevertheless by my right hand
thou hold'st me always fast :
24 And with thy counsel dost me guide
to glory at the last.

25 What thing is there that I can wish
but thee in heaven above ?
And in the earth there is nothing
like thee that I can love.

26 My flesh and eke my heart doth fail,
but God doth fail me never ;
For of my health God is the strength,
my portion eke for ever.

27 And lo, all such as thee forsake
thou shalt destroy each one :
And those that trust in any thing
saying in thee alone.

28 Therefore will I draw near to God,
and ever with him dwell :
In God alone I put my trust,
thy wonders I will tell.

Ut quid, Deus. Psal. lxxiv. T. H.

WHY art thou, Lord, so long from us
in all this danger deep ?
Why doth thine anger kindle thus
at thine own pasture-sheep ?

- 2 Lord, call the people to thy thought
which have been thine so long,
The which thou hast redeem'd and brought from bondage fore and strong.
- 3 Have mind therefore and think upon,
remember it full well,
Thy pleasant place, thy mount Sion,
where thou wast wont to dwell.
- 4 Lift up thy feet and come in haste,
and all thy foes deface:
Which now at pleasure rob and waste
within thy holy place.
- 5 Amid thy congregations all thine enemies rore, O God:
They set as signs on every wall
their banners spald abroad.
- 6 As men with axes hew down trees
that on the hills do grow:
So shine the bills and swords of these within thy temple now.
- 7 The cieling saw'd, the carved boards,
the goodly graven stones,
With axes, hammers, bills, and swords
they beat them down at once.
- 8 Thy places they consume with flame,
and eke in all this toil
The house appointed to thy Name
they rase down to the foil.
- 9 And thus they say within their heart,
Dispatch them out of hand:
Then burnt they up in every part
God's houses through the land.
- 10 Yet thou no sign of help dost send,
our prophets all are gone:
To tell when this our plague shall end
among us there is none.
- 11 When wilt thou, Lord, once end this shame,
and cease thine enemies strong?
Shall they always blaspheme thy Name,
and rail on thee so long?
- 12 Why dost thou draw thy hand aback,
and hide it in thy lap?
Oh pluck it out, and be not slack
to give thy foes a rap.

The second part.

- 13 O God, thou art our King and Lord,
and evermore hast been:
Yea, thy good grace throughout the world
for our good help hath seen.
- 14 The seas that are so deep and dead,
thy might did make them dry:
And thou didst break the serpents head,
that he therein did die.
- 15 Yea, thou didst break the heads so great
of whales that are so fell:
And gav'st them to the folk to eat
that in the deserts dwell.

- 16 Thou mad'st a spring with streams to rise
from rock both hard and high:
And eke thy hand hath made likewise
deep rivers to be dry.
- 17 Both day and eke the night are thine,
by thee they were begun:
Thou sett'st to serve us with their shine,
the light and eke the sun.
- 18 Thou didst appoint the ends and coasts
of all the earth about:
Both summer-heats, and winter-frosts,
thy hand hath found them out.
- 19 Think on, O Lord, no time forget
thy foes that thee defame:
And how the foolish folk are set
to rail upon thy Name.
- 20 O let no cruel beasts devour
thy turtle that is true:
Forget not always in thy power
the poor that much do rue.
- 21 Regard thy covenant, and behold,
thy foes possess the land:
All sad and dark, foreworn and old
our realm as now doth stand.
- 22 Let not the simple go away,
nor yet return with shame:
But let the poor and needy ay
give praise unto thy Name.
- 23 Rise, Lord, let be by thee maintain'd
the cause that is thine own:
Remember how that thou blasphem'd
art by the foolish one.
- 24 The voice forget not of thy foes,
for the presumption high
Is more and more increast of those that hate thee spitefully.

Confitebimur tibi. Psal. lxxv. J. H.

- UNto thee, God, will we give thanks,
we will give thanks to thee:
Sith thy Name is so near, declare thy wondrous works will we.
- 2 I will uprightly judge when get convenient time I may:
The earth is weak, and all therein,
but I her pillars stay.
- 3 I did to the mad people say,
deal not so furiously:
And unto the ungodly ones,
set not your horns on high;
- 4 I said unto them, Set not up
your raised horns on high;
And see that you do with stiff neck
not speak presumptuously.
- 5 For neither from the eastern parts,
nor from the western side,
Nor from forsaken wilderness,
promotion doth proceed.

6 For why? the Lord our God he is the righteous Judge alone:
He putteth down the one, and sets
another in the throne.

7 For why? a cup of mighty wine
is in the hand of God:

And all the mighty wine therein
himself doth pour abroad.

8 As for the lees and filthy dregs that do remain of it,

The wicked of the earth shall drink
and suck them every whit.

9 But I will talk of God, I say,
of Jacob's God therefore:

And will not cease to celebrate his praise for evermore.

10 In sunder break the horns of all ungodly men will I:

But then the horns of righteous men
shall be exalted high.

Gloria Patri.

To Father, Son, and holy Ghost
all glory be therefore:
As in beginning was, is now
and shall be evermore.

In Judaa. Pfal. lxxvi. 7. H.

TO all that now in Jewry dwell,
the Lord is clearly known:
His Name is great in Israel,
a people of his own.

2 At Salem he his tents hath pight,
to tarry there a space:

In Zion eke he hath delight
to make his dwelling-place.

3 And there he brake both shaft and bow,
the sword, the spear, and shield:

And brake the ray to overthrow
in battel on the field.

4 Thou art more worthy honour, Lord,
more might in thee doth lie,
Than in the strongest of the world,
that rob on mountains high.

5 But now the proud are spoil'd through thee,
and they are fall'n on sleep:

Through men of war no help can be,
themselves they could not keep.

6 At thy rebuke, O Jacobs's God,
when thou didst them reprove:

As half on sleep their chariots stood,
no horsemen once did move.

7 For thou art dreadful, Lord, indeed;
what man the courage hath

To bide thy sight and doth not dread
when thou art in thy wrath?

8 When thou dost make thy judgments heard from heaven through the ground,

Then all the earth full fore afraid
in silence shall be found.

9 And that when thou, O God, dost stand
in judgment for to speak,

To save th' afflicted of the land,
on earth that are full weak.

10 The fury that in man doth reign
shall turn unto thy praise:

Hereafter, Lord, do thou restrain their wrath and threats always.

11 Make vows and pay them to our God,
ye folk that nigh him be:

Bring gifts all ye that dwell abroad,
for dreadful sure is he.

12 For he doth take both life and might
from princes great of birth:

And full of terror is his sight
to all the kings on earth.

Voce mea. Pfal. lxxvii. 7. H.

I With my voice to God do cry,
with heart and hearty cheer:

My voice to God I lift on high,
and he my suit doth hear.

2 In time of grief I sought to God,
by night no rest I took:

But stretcht my hands to him abroad,
my soul comfort forsook.

3 When I to think on God intend,
my trouble then is more:

I spake, but could not make an end,
my breath was stopt so fore.

4 Thou hold'st mine eyes always from rest,
that I always awake:

With fear I am so fore oppress,
my speech doth me forsake.

5 The days of old in mind I cast,
and oft did think upon

The times and ages that are past
full many years ago.

6 By night my songs I call to mind,
once made thy praise to show:

And with my heart much talk I find,
my spirits do search to know.

7 Will God, said I, at once for all cast off his people thus,

So that henceforth no time he shall be friendly unto us?

8 What? is his goodness clean decay'd
for ever and a day?

Or is his promise now delay'd,
and doth his truth decay?

9 And will the Lord our God forget his mercies manifold?

Or shall his wrath increase so hot,
his mercies to withhold?

10 At last I said, My weakness is the cause of this mistrust:

God's mighty hand can help all this,
and change it when he luſt.

The ſecond part.

- 11 I will regard and think upon
the working of the Lord :
Of all his wonders paſt and gone
I gladly will record.
- 12 Yea, all his works I will declare,
and what he did deviſe :
To tell his facts I will not ſpare,
and eke his counſel wiſe.
- 13 Thy works, O Lord, are all upright,
and holy all abroad :
What one hath ſtrength to match the might
of thee, O Lord our God ?
- 14 Thou art a God that doſt forth ſhow
thy wonders every hour :
And ſo doſt make the people know
thy vertue and thy power.
- 15 And thine own folk thou doſt defend with ſtrength and ſtretched arm,
The ſons of Jacob that deſcend,
and Joſeph's ſeed from harm.
- 16 The waters, Lord, perceived thee,
the waters ſaw thee well :
And they for fear away did flee,
the depths on trembling fell.
- 17 The clouds that were both thick and black,
did rain full plenteouſly :
The thunder in the air did crack,
thy ſhafts abroad did fly.
- 18 Thy thunder in the air was heard,
thy lightnings from above
With flaſhes great made men afraid,
the earth did quake and move.
- 19 Thy ways within the ſea do lie,
thy paths in waters deep :
Yet none can there thy ſteps eſpy,
nor know thy paths to keep.
- 20 Thou led'ſt thy folk upon the land
as ſheep on every ſide :
Through Moſes and through Aaron's hand
thou didſt them ſafely guide.

Attendite populi. Pſal. lxxviii. 7. H.

- Attend my people to my law,
and to my words incline :
2 My mouth ſhall ſpeak ſtrange parables,
and ſentences divine.
- 3 Which we our ſelves have heard and learn'd
even of our fathers old ;
And which for our Inſtruction
our fathers have us told.
- 4 Becauſe we ſhould not keep it cloſe
from them that ſhould come after :
Who ſhould God's power to their race praiſe,
and all his works of wonder.

5 To Jacob he commandment gave
how Iſrael ſhould live, Willing our fathers ſhould the ſame unto their children give.

6 That they and their poſterity
that were not ſprung up tho,
Should have the knowledge of the law,
and teach their ſeed alſo.

7 That they might have the better hope
in God that is above :
And not forget to keep his laws
and his precepts in love.

8 Not being as their fathers were,
rebelling in God's ſight :
And would not frame their wicked hearts
to know their God aright.

9 How went the people of Ephraim their neighbours for to ſpoil :
Shooting their darts the day of war,
and yet they took the ſpoil.

10 For why ? they did not keep with God
the covenant that was made,
Nor yet would walk or lead their lives
according to his trade :

11 But put into oblivion
his counſel and his will,
And all his works moſt magnifick,
which he declared ſtill.

The ſecond part.

12 What wonders to our forefathers
did he himſelf diſcloſe
In Egypt land within the field
that call'd is Thaneos ?

13 He did divide and cut the ſea,
that they might paſs at once :
And made the waters ſtand as ſtill
as doth an heap of ſtones.

14 He led them ſecret in a cloud
by day when it was bright :
And in the night when dark it was,
with fire he gave them light.

15 He brake the rocks in wilderneſs,
and gave the people drink :
As plentiful as when the deeps
do flow up to the brink.

16 He drew out rivers out of rocks
that were both dry and hard,
Of ſuch abundance, that no floods
to them might be compar'd.

17 Yet for all this againſt the Lord
their ſin they did increaſe :
And ſtirred him that is moſt high
to wrath in wilderneſs.

18 They tempted God within their hearts,
like people of miſtruſt ;
Requiring ſuch a kind of meat
as ſerved to their luſt :

19 Saying with murmuration

In their unfaithfulness,
What! can this God prepare for us
a feast in wilderness?

20 Behold, he strake the stony rock,
and fountains forthwith did flow:

Eut can he now give to his folk
both bread and flesh also?

21 When God heard this, he waxed wroth
with Jacob and his seed;
So did his indignation
on Israel proceed.

The third part.

22 Because they did not faithfully believe, and hope that he Could always help and succour them
in their necessity.

23 Wherefore he did command the clouds,
forthwith they brake in sunder:

24 And rain'd down manna for to eat,
a food of mickle wonder.

25 When earthly men with angels food
were fed at their request,

26 He bade the east-wind blow away,
and brought in the south-west.

27 He rain'd down flesh as thick as dust,
and fowls as thick as sand:

28 Which he did cast amid the place
where all their tents did stand.

29 Then did they eat exceedingly,
and all men had their fills:

Yet more and more they did desire to serve their lusts and wills.

30 But as the meat was in their mouths,
his wrath upon them fell,

31 And slew the power of all their youth,
and choice of Israel.

32 Yet fell they to their wonted sin,
and still they did him grieve:

For all the wonders that he wrought,
they would him not believe.

33 Their days therefore he shortened,
and made their honour vain:

Their years did waste and pass away
with terror and with pain.

34 But ever when he plagued them,
they sought him by and by,

35 Remembring that he was their strength,
their help, and God most high.

36 Though in their mouths they did but glorie
and flatter with the Lord:

And with their tongues and in their hearts
dissembled every word.

The fourth part.

37 For why? their hearts were nothing bent,
to him nor to his trade:

Nor yet to keep or to perform
the covenant that was made.

38 Yet was he still so merciful,
when they deserv'd to die,
That he forgave them their misdeeds,
and would not them destroy.

Yea, many a time he turn'd his wrath,
and did himself advise:
And would not suffer all his whole displeasure to arise.

39 Considering that they were but flesh,
and even as a wind
Passing away, and cannot well
return by his own kind.

40 How often times in wilderness
did they the Lord provoke!
How did they move and stir the Lord
to plague them with his stroke!

41 Yet did they turn again to sin,
and tempted God oft soon, Prescribing to the holy Lord
what things they would have done.

42 Not thinking of his hand and power
nor of the day when he Delivered them out of the hands of the fierce enemy.

43 Nor how he wrought his miracles
(as they themselves beheld)
In Egypt and the wonders that he did in Zoan field.

44 Nor how he turned by his power
their waters into blood:
That no man might receive his drink
at river nor at flood.

45 Nor how he sent them swarms of flies,
which did them sore annoy:
And fill'd their country full of frogs,
which did their land destroy,

The fifth part.

46 Nor how he did commit their fruits
unto the caterpillar:

And all the labour of their hands
he gave to the grasshopper.

47 With hailstones he destroy'd their vines,
so that they were all lost:
And not so much as wild fig-trees,
but he consum'd with frost.

48 And yet with hailstones once again
the Lord their cattle smote,
And all their flocks and herds likewise
with thunderbolts full hor.

49 He cast upon them in his ire
and in his fury strong, Displeasure, wrath, and evil spirits
to trouble them among.

50 Then to his wrath he made a way,
and spared not the least :
But gave unto the pestilence
the man and eke the beast.
51 He strake also the first-born all that up in Egypt came :
And all the chief of men and beasts
within the tents of Ham.
52 But as for all his own dear folk,
he did preserve and keep :
And carried them through wilderness,
even like a flock of sheep.
53 Without all fear both safe and sound
he brought them out of thrall :
Whereas their foes with rage of seas
were overwhelmed all.
54 And brought them out into the coasts
of his own holy land, Even to the mount which he had got
by his strong arm and hand.
55 And there cast out the heathen folk,
and did their land divide :
And in their tents he set the tribes
of Israel to abide :
56 Yet for all this, their God most high
they stirr'd and tempted still,
And would not keep his testament,
nor yet obey his will.
57 But as their fathers turned back,
even so they went astray,
Much like a bow that would not bend,
but slip and start away.

The sixth part.

58 And griev'd him with their hill-altars,
with off'rings and with fire :
And with their idols vehemently
provoked him to ire.
59 Therewith his wrath began again
to kindle in his breast :
The naughtiness of Israel
he did so much detest.
60 Then he forsook the tabernacle of Silo, where he was Right conversant with earthly men,
even as his dwelling place.
61 Then suffered he his might and power
in bondage for to stand,
And gave the honour of his ark
into his enemies hand.
62 And did commit them to the sword,
wroth with his heritage :
63 Their young men were devour'd with fire,
maids had no marriage.
64 And with the sword the priests also did perish every one :

And not a widow left alive
their death for to bemoane.
65 And then the Lord began to wake
like one that slept a time,
And like a valliant man of war
refreshed after wine.
66 With emrods in the hinder parts
he strake his enemies all :
And put them then unto a shame
that was perpetual.
67 Then he the tent and tabernacle
of Joseph did refuse :
As for the tribe of Ephraim;
he would in no ways chuse :
68 But chose the tribe of Jehuda,
whereas he thought to dwell :
Even the noble mount Sion,
which he did love so well.
69 Whereas he did his temple build
both sumptuously and sure,
Like as the earth which he hath made
for ever to endure.
70 Then chole he David him to serve,
his people for to keep ;
Whom he took up and brought away
even from the folds of sheep.
71 As he did follow th' ewes with young,
The Lord did him advance
To feed his people Israel
and his inheritance.
72 Thus David with a faithful heart
his flock and charge did feed,
And prudently with all his power
did govern them indeed.

Deus, vincerunt. Psal. lxxix. 7. H.

O God, the Gentiles do invade thine heritage to spoil :
Jerusalem an heap is made,
thy temple they defile.
2 The bodies of thy saints most dear
abroad to birds they cast :
The flesh of them that do thee fear,
the beasts devour and waste.
3 Their blood throughout Jerusalem
as water spilt they have :
So that there is not one of them
to lay their dead in grave.
4 Thus are we made a laughing stock
almost the world throughout :
The enemies at us jest and mock
which dwell our coasts about.
5 Wile thou, O Lord, thus in thine ire
against us ever fume,
And shew thy wrath as hot as fire,
thy folk for to consume?

- 6 Upon those people pour the same,
which did thee never know :
All realms which call not on thy Name,
consume and overthrow.
- 7 For they have got the upper hand,
and Jacobs seed destroy'd :
His habitation and his land
they have left waste and void.
- 8 Bear not in mind our former fautes,
with speed some pity show :
And aid us, Lord, in all assaults,
for we are weak and low.

The second part.

- 9 O God that giv'st all health and grace,
on us declare the same :
Weigh not our works, our sins deface,
for honour of thy Name.
- 10 Why shall the wicked still alway,
to us as people dumb,
In thy reproach rejoyce, and say,
where is their God become?
- Require, O Lord, as thou see'st good,
before our eyes in sight,
Of all these folk thy servants bloud
which they spilt in despite.
- 11 Receive into thy sight in haste
the clamours, grief, and wrong
Of such as are in prison cast, sustaining irons strong.
- Thy force and strength to celebrate,
Lord, set them out of band
Which unto death are destinate,
and in their enemies hand.
- 12 The nations which have been so bold
as to blaspheme thy Name,
Into their laps with seven fold
repay again the same.
- 13 So we thy flock and pasture-sheep
will praise thee evermore,
And teach all ages for to keep
for thee like praise in store.

Qui regis Israel. Psal. lxxx. 7. H.

- THOU Herd that Israel dost keep,
give ear and take good heed :
Which leadest Joseph like a sheep,
and dost him watch and feed.
- 2 Thou Lord, I say, whose seat is set
on cherubims most bright, Shew forth thy self and do not let,
send down thy beams of light.
- 3 Before Ephraim and Benjamin,
Manasses cleave wide
To shew thy power do thou begin ;
come help us, Lord, and guide.
- 4 Direct our hearts unto thy grace,
convert us, Lord, to thee :

- Shew us the brightness of thy face,
and then full safe are we.
- 5 Lord God of hosts of Israel,
how long wilt thou (I say) Against thy folk in anger swell,
and wilt not hear them pray ?
- 6 Thou dost them feed with sorrows deep,
their bread with tears they eat,
And drink the tears that they do weep,
in measure full and great.
- 7 Thou hast us made a very strife,
to those that dwell about :
And that our foes do love a life,
they laugh and jest it out.
- 8 O take us, Lord, unto thy grace,
convert our hearts to thee :
Shew forth to us thy joyfull face,
and we full safe shall be.
- 9 From Egypt where it grew not well
thou brought'st a vine full dear :
The heathen folk thou didst expell,
and thou didst plant it there.
- 10 Thou didst prepare for it a place,
and set her roots full fast :
That it shd grow and spring apace,
and fill'd the land at last.

The second part.

- 11 The hills were covered round about,
with shade that from it came,
And eke the cedars strong and flour,
with branches of the same.
- 12 Why then didst thou her walls destroy ?
her hedge pluckt up thou hast :
That all the folk that pass thereby thy vine may spoil and waste.
- 13 The boar out of the wood so wild
doth dig and root it out :
The furious beasts out of the field
devour it all about.
- 14 O Lord of hosts, return again,
from heaven look betime :
Behold, and with thy help sustain
this poor vineyard of chine.
- 15 Thy plant, I say, thine Israel,
whom thy right hand hath set :
The same which thou didst love so well,
O Lord, do not forget.
- 16 They lop and cut it down apace,
they burn it eke with fire :
And through the frowning of thy face
we perish in thine ire.
- 17 Let thy right hand be with them now
whom thou hast kept so long :
And with the Son of man whom thou
To thee hast made so strong.
- 18 And so when thou hast set us free,
and saved us from shame :

Then will we never fall from thee,
but call upon thy Name.

19 O Lord of hosts, through thy good grace
convert us unto thee:

Behold us with a pleasant face,
and then full safe are we.

Deo exultate. Psal. lxxxii. J. H.

BE light and glad, in God rejoyce,
which is our strength and stay:
Be joyful and lift up your voice
to Jacobs God, I say.

2 Prepare your instruments most meet,
some joyful psalm to sing:

Strike up with harp and lute so sweet,
on every pleasant string.

3 Blow as it were in the new-moon,
with trumpets of the best:

As it is used to be done
at any any solemn feast.

4 For this is unto Israel
a statute and a trade:

A law that must be kept full well,
which Jacobs God hath made.

5 This clause with Joseph was decreed
when he from Egypt came,
That as a witness all his seed
should still observe the same.

6 When God, I say, had so prepar'd
to bring him from that land:

Whereas the speech which he had heard
he did not understand.

7 I from his shoulder took (saith he.)
the burden clean away:

And from the furnace quit him free
from burning brick of clay.

8 When thou in grief didst cry and call,
I help thee by and by:

And I did answer thee withall
in thunder secretly.

9 Yea, at the waters of discord
I did thee tempt and prove:

Whereas the goodness of the Lord
with muttering thou didst move.

10 Hear, O my folk, O Israel,
and I assure it thee:

Regard and mark my words full well,
if thou wilt cleave to me.

The second part.

11 Thou shalt no good in thee reserve,
of any land abroad:

Nor in no wife bowe to or serve
a strange or foreign god.

12 I am the Lord thy God, and I
from Egypt set thee free:

Then ask of me abundantly,
and I will give it thee.

13 And yet my people would not hear
my voice when that I spake:

Nor Israel would not obey,
but did me quite forsake.

14 Then did I leave them to their will,
in hardness of their heart:

To walk in their own counsels still,
themselves they might pervert.

15 O that my people would have heard
the words that I did say:

And eke that Israel would regard
to walk within my way!

16 How soon would I confound their foes,
and bring them down full low:

And turn my hand upon all those
that would them overthrow!

17 And they that at the Lord do rage,
as slaves should seek him till:

But of his folk the time and age
should flourish ever still.

18 I would have fed them with the crop
and finest of the wheat:

And made the rock with honey drop,
that they their fills should eat.

Deus scit. Psal. lxxxii. J. H.

A Mid the press with men of might
the Lord himself doth stand,
To plead the cause of truth and right
with judges of the land.

2 How long, said he, will you proceed
false judgment to award,

And have respect for love of meed
the wicked to regard?

3 Whereas of due you should defend:
the fatherless and weak,

And when the poor man doth contend,
in judgment justly speak.

4 If ye be wise, defend the cause
of poor men in their right:

And rid the needy from the claws
of tyrants force and might:

5 But nothing will they know or learn,
in vain to them I talk:

They will not see or ought discern,
but still in darkness walk.

6 For lo, even now the time is come that all things fall to nought:

And likewise laws both all and some
for gain are sold and bought.

I had decreed it in my sight
as gods to take you all:

And children to the most of might
for love I did you call:

7 But notwithstanding ye shall die
as men, and so decay.

O tyrants, I shall you destroy,
and pluck you quite away.

8 Up Lord, and let thy strength be known,
and judge the world with might:
For why? all nations are thine own
to take them as thy right.

Deus, quid. Psalm lxxxiii. J. H.

DO not, O God, refrain thy tongue,
in silence do not stay:

Withhold not, Lord, thy self so long,
and make no more delay.

2 For why? behold thy foes, and see how they do rage and cry:

And those that bare an hate to thee
hold up their heads on high.

3 Against thy folk they use deceit,
and craftily they enquire:

For thine elect to lie in wait
their counsel doth conspire.

4 Come on, say they, let us expell
and pluck these folk away:

So that the name of Israel
may utterly decay.

5 They all conspire within their heart
how they may thee withstand:

Against the Lord to take a part
they are in league and band.

6 The tents of all the Edomites,
the Ismaelites also:

The Hagarenes and Moabites,
with divers others mo.

7 Gebal with Ammon, and likewise
doth Amalek conspire:

The Philistines against thee rise,
with them that dwell at Tyre.

8 And Assur eke is well appaid
with them in league to be:

And doth become a fence and aid
to Lots posterity.

9 As thou didst to the Midianites,
so serve them, Lord, each one:

As to Siser, and to Jabin,
beside the brook Kison.

10 Whom thou in Endor didst destroy,
and waste them through thy might:

That they like dung on earth did lie,
and shat in open sight.

The second part.

11 Make them now and their lords appear like Zeb and Oreb than:

As Zeba and Zalmany were,
the kings of Midian.

12 Which said, let us throughout the land
in all the coasts abroad,

Possess and take into our hand
the fair houses of God.

13 Turn them, O God, with storms as fast
as wheels that have no stay:

Or like the chaff which men do cast
with winds to fly away.

14 Like as the fire with rage and fume
the mighty forrests spills;

And as the flame doth quite consume
the mountains and the hills:

15 So let the tempest of thy wrath
upon their necks be laid:

And of thy stormy wind and showre,
Lord make them all afraid.

16 Lord, bring them all, I thee desire,
to such rebuke and shame,

That it may cause them to enquire,
and learn to seek thy Name.

17 And let them evermore daily
to shame and slander fall:

And in rebuke and obloquy
to perish eke withall.

18 That they may know and feel fullwell
that thou art called Lord:

And that alone thou dost excel,
and reign throughout the world.

Quam dilecta! Psalm lxxxiv. J. H.

How pleasant is thy dwelling-place,
O Lord of hosts to me!

The tabernacles of thy grace
how pleasant (Lord) they be!

2 My soul doth long full sore to go into thy courts abroad:

My heart doth lust, my flesh also,
in thee the living God.

3 The sparrows find a room to rest
and save themselves from wrong,

And eke the swallow hath a nest
wherein to keep her young:

4 These birds full nigh thine altar may have place to sit and sing:

O Lord of hosts, thou art, I say,
my God and eke my King.

5 O they be blessed that may dwell
within thy house always:

For they all times thy facts do tell,
and ever give thee praise.

6 Yea, happy sure likewise are they,
whose stay and strength thou art:

Which to thy house do mind the way,
and seek it in their heart.

As they go through the vale of tears,
they dig up fountains still:

That as a spring it all appears,
and thou their pins dost fill.

7 From strength to strength they walk full fast,
no faintness there shall be :
And so the God of gods at last in Sion they do see.

8 O Lord of hosts, to me give heed,
and hear when I do pray :

And let it through thine ears proceed,
O Jacobs God, I say.

9 O Lord our shield, of thy good grace regard and so draw near :
Regard, I say, behold the face
of thine anointed dear.

10 For why ? within thy courts one day
is better to abide,

Than other where to keep or stay
a thousand days beside.

Much rather would I keep a door
within the house of God,
Than in the tents of wickedness
to settle mine abode.

11 For God the Lord, light and defence,
will grace and worship give :

And no good thing will he withhold
from them that purely live.

12 O Lord of hosts, that man is blest
and happy sure is he,
That is persuaded in his breast
to trust all times in thee.

Benedixisti. Psal. lxxxv. 7. H.

THou hast been merciful indeed,
O Lord, unto thy land :
For thou restoredst Jacobs seed
from thralldom out of band.

2 The wicked ways that they were in,
thou didst them clean remit :
And thou didst hide thy peoples sin,
full close thou coveredst it.

3 Thine anger eke thou didst assuage,
that all thy wrath was gone :
And so didst turn thee from thy rage,
with them to be at one.

4 O God our health, do now convert thy people unto thee :
Put all thy wrath from us apart,
and angry cease to be.

5 Why, shall thine anger never end,
but still proceed on us ?
And shall thy wrath be self extend upon all ages thus ?

6 Wilt thou not rather turn therefore and quicken us that we
And all thy folk may evermore
be glad and joy in thee ?

7 O Lord, on us do thou declare thy goodness to our wealth :

Shew forth to us, and do not spare,
thine aid and saving health.

8 I will heark what God saith, for he speaks to his people peace,
And to his saints, that never they return to foolishness.

9 For why ? his help is still at hand
to such as do him fear :

Whereby great glory in our land shall dwell and flourish there.

10 For truth and mercy there shall meet,
In one to take their place :
And peace shall justice with kiss greet,
and there they shall embrace.

11 As truth from earth shall spring apace,
and flourish pleasantly :

So righteousness shall shew her face,
and look from heaven high.

12 Yea, God himself doth take in hand
to give us each good thing :

And through the coasts of all the land
the earth her fruit shall bring.

13 Before his face shall justice go much like a guide or stay :

He shall direct his steps also,
and keep them in the way.

Inclina, Domine. Psal. lxxxvi. 7. H.

LOrd, bowe thine ear to my request,
and hear me by and by :

With grievous pain and grief opprest,
full poor and weak am I.

2 Preserve my soul, because my ways
and doings holy be :

And save thy servant, O my Lord,
that puts his trust in thee.

3 Thy mercy, Lord, on me express,
defend me eke withall :

For through the day I do not cease
on thee to cry and call.

4 Comfort, O Lord, thy servants soul
that now with pain is pin'd :

For unto thee, Lord, I extol
and lift my soul and mind.

5 For thou art good and boundful,
thy gifts of grace are free :

And eke thy mercy plentiful
to all that call on thee.

6 O Lord, likewise when I do pray,
regard and give an ear :

Mark well the words that I do say,
and all my prayers hear.

7 In time when trouble doth me move,
to thee I do complain :

For why ? I know and well do prove thou answerest me again.

8 Among the gods, O Lord, is none
with thee to be compar'd:
And none can do as thou alone,
the like hath not been heard.

The second part.

9 The Gentiles and the people all which thou didst make and frame,
Before thy face on knees shall fall
and glorifie thy Name.

10 For why? thou art so much of might,
all power is thine own:
Thou workest wonders still in sight,
for thou art God alone.

11 O teach me, Lord, thy way, and I shall in thy truth proceed:
O joyn my heart to thee so nigh
that I thy Name may dread

12 To thee my God will I give praise
with all my heart, O Lord:
And glorifie thy Name always
for ever through the world.

13 For why? thy mercy shew'd to me
is great and doth excel:
Thou sett'st my soul at liberty
out from the lower Hell.

14 O Lord, the proud against me rise,
and heaps of men of might:
Thy seek my Soul, and in no wise
will have thee in their sight.

15 Thou, Lord, art merciful and meek,
full slack and slow to wrath:
Thy goodness is full great, and eke
thy truth no measure hath.

16 O turn to me, and mercy grant,
thy strength to me apply:
O help and save thy own servant,
thy handmaids son am I.

17 On me some sign of favour show,
that all my foes may see
And be asham'd, because, Lord, thou doest help and comfort me.

Fundamenta. Pſal. lxxxvii. J. H.

That city shall full well endure,
her ground-work still doth stay
Upon the holy hills full sure,
it can no time decay.

2 God loves the gates of Zion best,
his grace doth there abide:
He loves them more than all the rest of Jacobs tents beside.

3 Full glorious things reported be in Zion and abroad:
Great things, I say, are said of thee,
thou city of our God.

4 On Rahab I will cast an eye,
and bear in mind the same:

And Babylon shall eke apply
and learn to know my Name.

5 Lo, Palestine, and Tyre also,
with Ethiope likewise,
A people old, full long ago
were born, and there did rise.

6 Of Zion they shall say abroad,
that divers men of fame
Have there sprung up, and the high God
hath founded fast the same.

7 In their records to them it shall through Gods device appear,
Of Zion, that the chief of all
had his beginning there

8 The trumpeters with such as sing,
there in great plenty be:
My fountains and my pleasant springs
are compass all in thee.

Domine Deus. Pſal. lxxxviii. J. H.

Lord God of health, the hope and stay
thou art alone to mee:
I call and cry throughout the day
and all the night to thee.

2 O let my prayer soon ascend unto thy sight on high:
Incline thine ear, O Lord, attend
and hearken to my cry.

3 For why? with wo my heart is fill'd,
and doth in trouble dwell:
My life and breath almost doth yield,
and draweth nigh to hell.

4 I am esteem'd as one of them
that in the pit do fall:
And made as one among those men
that have no strength at all.

5 As one among the dead, and free
from things that here remain:
It were more ease for me to be
with them the which are slain:

6 As those that lie in grave, I say,
whom thou hast clean forgot:
The which thy hand hath cut away,
and thou regard'st them not.

7 Yea, like to one shut up full sure
within the lower pit,
In places dark, and all obscure,
and in the depth of it.

8 Thine anger and thy wrath likewise
full sore on me doth ly:
And all thy storms against me rise,
my soul to vex and try.

9 Thou put'st my friends far off from me,
and mak'st them hate me sore:
I am shut up in prison fast,
and can come forth no more.

10 My ſight doth fail through grief and wo,
I call to thee O God :
Throughout the day my hands alſo
to thee I ſtretch abroad.

The ſecond part.

11 Doſt thou unto the dead declare thy wondrous works of fame ?
Shall dead to life again repair,
and praiſe thee for the ſame ?
12 Or ſhall thy loving kindneſs, Lord,
be preached in the grave ?
Or ſhall with them that are deſtroy'd thy truth her honour have ?
13 Shall they that lie in dark full low
of all thy wonders wor ?
Or there ſhall they thy juſtice know
where all things are forgot ?
14 But I, O Lord, to thee always do cry and call apace :
My prayer eke e're it be day
ſhall come before thy face.
15 Why doſt thou, Lord, abhor my ſoul,
in grief that ſeeketh thee ?
And now, O Lord, why doſt thou hide
thy face away from me ?
16 I am afflikt, as dying ſtill
from youth this many a year :
Thy terrors which do vex me ill
with troubled mind I bear.
17 The furies of thy wrathful rage
full fore upon me fall :
Thy terrors eke do not aſſwage,
but me oppreſs withall.
18 All day they compeſs me about,
as water at the tide :
And all at once with ſtreams full ſtoure
beſet me on each ſide.
19 Thou ſetteſt far from me my friends
and lovers every one :
Yea, and mine old acquaintance all
out of my ſight are gone.

Miſericordias. Pſal. lxxxix. J. H.

TO ſing the mercies of the Lord
my tongue ſhall never ſpare :
And with my mouth from age to age
thy truth I will declare.

2 For I have ſaid, that mercy ſhall
forevermore remain :

In that thou doſt the heavens ſtay,
thy truth appeareth plain.

3 To mine elect, ſaith God, I made a covenant and beſt:

My ſervant David to perſwade,
I ſware and did proteſt :

4 Thy ſeed for ever I will ſlay,
and ſtabliſh it full faſt :

And ſtill upho'd thy throne alway
from age to age to laſt.

5 The heavens ſhew with joy and mirth
thy wondrous works, O Lord :
Thy ſaints within thy Church on earth
thy faith and truth record.

6 Who with the Lord is equal then
in all the clouds abroad ?
Among the ſons of all the gods,
what one is like our God ?

7 God in aſſembly of the ſaints
is greatly to be dread :
And over all that dwell about
in terror to be had.

8 Lord God of hoſts, In all the world
what one is like to thee ?
On every ſide, moſt mighty Lord,
thy truth is ſeen to be.

9 The raging Sea by thine advice thou ruleſt at thy will :

And when the waves thereof ariſe,
thou mak'ſt them calm and ſtill.

10 And Egypt, Lord, thou haſt ſubdu'd,
and thou haſt it deſtroy'd ;
Yea, thou thy foes with mighty arm
haſt ſcattered all abroad.

The ſecond part.

11 The heavens are thine and ſtill have been,
likewiſe the earth and land :
The world and all that is therein
thou foundedſt with thy hand.

12 Both north and ſouth, with eaſt and weſt
thy ſelf didſt make and frame :
Both Tabor mount, and eke Hermon,
rejoyce and praiſe thy Name.

13 Thine arm is ſtrong and full of power,
a'l might therein doth lie :
The ſtrength of thy right hand each hour
thou liſteſt up on high.

14 In righteouſneſs and equity
thou haſt thy ſeat and place :
Mercy and truth are ſtill with thee,
and go before thy face.

15 That folk is bleſt that knows aright
thy preſent power, O God :

For in the favour of thy ſight
they walk full ſafe abroad,

16 For in thy Name throughout the day
they joy and much rejoyce :
And through thy righteouſneſs have they
a pleaſant ſame and noiſe.

17 For why? thy glory ſtrength, and aid
in thee alone doth lie :
Thy goodneſs eke that hath us ſtaid,
ſhall liſt our hora on high.

18 Our strength that doth defend us well
the Lord to us doth bring:
The holy one of Israel
he is our guide and King.

19 Sometimes thy will unto thy saints
in visions thou didst show:
And thus then didst thou say to them,
thy mind to make them know:
20 A man of might I have erect,
your king and guide to be:
And set him up whom I elect
among the folk to me.

The third part.

21 My servant David I appoint,
whom I have searched out:
And with mine holy oyl anoint
king of all the rout.
22 For why? my hand is ready still
with him for to remain:
And with mine arm also I will
him strengthen and sustain.
23 The enemies shall not him oppress,
they shall him nor devour:
Ne yet the sons of wickedness
on him shall have no power.
24 His foes likewise I will destroy
before his face in fight:
And those that hate him I will plague,
and strike them with my might.
25 My truth and mercy eke withall
shall still upon him lie:
and in my Name his horn eke shall be lifted up on high.
26 His kingdom I will set to be upon the sea and land:
And eke the running floods shall he embrace with his right hand.
27 He shall depend with all his heart
on me, and thus shall say,
My Father and my God thou art,
my rock of health and stay.
28 As my first born I will him take
of all on earth that springs:
His might and honour I will make above all earthly kings.
29 My mercy shall be with him still,
as I my self have told:
My faithful covenant to fulfill
my mercy I will hold.
30 And eke his seed I will sustain
for ever strong and sure:
So that his seat shall still remain
while heaven doth endure.

The fourth part.

31 If that his sons forsake my law,
and so begin to swerve:

And of my judgments have none aw,
nor will nor them observe:
32 Or if they do not use aright
my statutes to them made,
And set all my commandments light,
and will not keep my trade:

33 Then with the rod will I begin their doings to amend,
And so with scourging for their sin,
if that they do offend.
34 My mercy yet and my goodness
I will not take him fro:
Nor handle him with craftiness,
and so my truth forgo:

35 But sure my covenant I will hold,
with all that I have spoke:
No word the which my lips have told
shall alter or be broke.

36 Once sware I by my holiness,
and that perform will I:
With David I shall keep promise,
to him I will not lie.

37 His seed for evermore shall reign,
and eke his throne of might:
As doth the sun, it shall remain,
for ever in my sight.

38 And as the moon within the sky
for ever standeth fast
A faithful witness from on high,
so shall his kingdom last.

39 But now, O Lord, thou dost reject,
and now thou changest cheer:
Yea, thou art wroth with thine elect,
thine own anointed dear.

40 The covenant with thy servant made,
Lord, thou hast quite undone:
And down upon the ground also hast cast his royal crown.

The fifth part.

41 Thou pluck'st his hedges up with might,
his walls thou dost confound:
Thou bearest eke his bulworks down,
and break'st them to the ground.

42 That he is fore destroyed and torn of comers by throughout:
And so is made a mock and scorn
to all that dwell about.

43 Thou their right hand hast lifted up
that him so fore annoy:
And all his foes that him devour,
lo, thou hast made to joy.

44 His sword's edge thou dost take away,
that should his foes withstand:
To him in war no victory
thou giv'st, nor upper hand.

- 45 His glory thou dost also waste,
his throne, his joy, his mirth
By thee is overthrow, and cast
full low upon the earth.
- 46 Thou hast cut off and made full short
his youth and lusty days:
And rais'd of him an ill report
with shame and great dispraise.
- 47 How long away from me, O Lord,
for ever wilt thou turn?
And shall thine anger still alway
as fire consume and burn?
- 48 O call to mind, remember then,
my time consumeth fast:
Why hast thou made the sons of men
as things in vain to waste?
- 49 What man is he that liveth here,
and death shall never see?
Or from the hand of hell his soul
shall he deliver free?
- 50 Where is, O Lord, thine own goodness
so oft declar'd before,
Which by thy truth and uprightness
to David thou hast swore?

- 51 The great rebukes to mind I call
that on thy servants lie:
The railings of the people all
born in my breast have I,
- 52 Wherewith, O Lord, thine enemies
blasphemed have thy Name:
The steps of thine anointed one
they cease not to defame.
- 53 All praise to thee, O Lord of hosts,
both now and eke for ay:
Through sky and earth, and all the coasts,
Amen, Amen, I say.

Dominus refugium. Psal. xc. J. H.

- THou, Lord, hast been our sure defence,
our place of ease and rest
In all times past, yea so long since
as cannot be express.
- 1 E're there was made mountain or hill
the earth and world abroad:
From age to age, and always still for ever thou art God.
- 3 Thou grindest man through grief and pain
to dust or clay, and then,
And then thou rais't again, Return
again ye sons of men.
- 4 The lasting of a thousand years,
what is it in thy sight?
As yesterday it doth appear,
or as a watch by night.
- 5 So soon as thou dost scatter them,
then is their life and trade

- All as a sleep, and like the grass
whose beauty soon doth fade:
6 Which in the morning shines full bright,
but fadeth by and by:
And is cut down ere it be night,
all with'red, dead, and dry.
- 7 For through thine anger we consume,
our might is much decay'd:
And of thy fervent wrath and fume
we are full sore afraid.
- 8 The wicked works that we have wrought
thou set'st before thine eye:
Our privy faults, yea eke our thoughts
thy countenance doth spy.
- 9 For through thy wrath our days do waste,
thereof doth nought remain:
Our years consume as words or blasts,
and are not call'd again.
- 10 Our time is threescore years and ten
that we do live on mold:
If one see fourscore, surely then
we count him wondrous old.

The second part.

- 11 Yet of this time the strength and chief
the which we count upon,
Is nothing else but painful grief,
and we as blasts are gone.
- 12 Who once doth know what strength is there
what might thine anger hath?
Or in his heart who doth these fear
according to thy wrath?
- 13 Instruct us, Lord, to know and try
how long our days remain:
That then we may our hearts apply
true wisdom to attain.
- 14 Return, O Lord, how long wilt thou forth on in wrath proceed?
Shew favour to thy servants now,
and help them at their need.
- 15 Refresh us with thy mercy soon
and then our joy shall be,
All times so long as life doth last,
in heart rejoyce will we.
- 16 As thou hast plagued us before,
now also make us glad:
And for the years wherein full sore affliction we have had.
- 17 O let thy work and power appear,
and on thy servants light:
And shew unto thy children dear
thy glory and thy might.
- 18 Lord, let thy grace and glory stand
on us thy servants thus:
Confirm the works we take in hand,
Lord, prosper them to us.

Qui habet. Psal. xci. 7. H.

HE that within the secret place
of God most high doth dwell:
In shadow of the mightiest grace
at rest shall keep him well.

2 Thou art my hope and my strong hold,
I to the Lord will say:
My god is he, in him will I
my whole affiance stay.

3 He shall defend thee from the snare
the which the hunter laid:
And from the deadly plague and care
whereof thou art afraid:

4 And with his wings shall cover thee
and keep thee safely there:
His faith and truth thy fence shall be,
as sure as shield and spear.

5 So that thou shalt not need, I say,
to fear or be affright
Of all the shafts that fly by day,
nor terrors of the night:

6 Nor of the plague that privily
doth walk in dark so fast:
Nor yet of that which doth destroy,
and at noon-day doth waste.

7 Yea, at thy side as thou dost stand
a thousand dead shall be:
Ten thousand eke at thy right hand,
and yet shalt thou be free.

8 But thou shalt see it for thy parr,
thine eyes shall well regard,
That even like to their desert
the wicked have reward.

9 For why? O Lord, I only lust
to stay my hope on thee:
And in the High'st I put my trust,
my sure defence is he.

10 Thou shalt not need none ill to fear,
with thee it shall not quell:
Nor yet the plague shall once come near
the house where thou dost dwell.

11 For why? unto his angels all
with charge commanded he,
That still in all thy ways they shall
preserve and prosper thee:

12 And in their hands shall bear thee up,
still waiking thee upon:
So that thy foot shall never chance
to spurn at any stone.

13 Upon the lions thou shalt go,
the adder fell and long:

And tread upon the lions young,
with dragons stout and strong.

14 For he that trusteth unto me,
I will dispatch him quite:

And him defend, because that he doth know my Name aright.

15 When he for help on me doth cry,
an answer I will give:
And from his grief take him will I
in glory for to live.

16 With length of years, and days of wealth
I will fulfill his time:
The goodness of my saving health
I will declare to him.

Bonum est. Psal. xcii. 7. H.

IT is a thing both good and meet
to praise the highest Lord:
And to thy Name, O thou most High,
to sing with one accord:

2 To shew the kindness of the Lord,
betime ere day be light:
And eke declare his truth abroad
when it doth draw to night.

3 Upon ten-stringed instruments,
on lute and harp so sweet:
With all the mirth you can invent
of instruments most meet.

4 For thou hast made me to rejoyce
in things so wrought by thee:
And I have joy in heart and voice
thy handy-works to see.

5 O Lord, how glorious and how great
are all thy works so stout!
So deeply are thy counsels set
that none can try them out.

6 The man unwise hath not the wit
this gear to pass to bring:
And all such fools are nothing fit
to understand this thing.

7 When so the wicked at their will
as grab do spring full fast,
They when they flourish in their ill,
for ever shall be waste.

8 But thou art mighty, Lord most high,
yea thou dost reign therefore
In every time eternally,
both now and evermore.

9 For why? O Lord, behold and see,
behold thy foes, I say,
How all that work inquiry
shall perish and decay.

10 But thou, like as the unicorn,
shalt lift mine horn on high:
With fresh and new prepared oyl thineointed king an I.

11 And of my foes before mine eyes shall see the fall and shame:
Of all that up against me rise,
mine ears shall hear the same.

12 The just shall flourish up on high
as date-trees bud and blow :
And as the cedars multiply
in Libanus that grow.

13 For they are planted in the place
and dwelling of our God :

Within his courts they spring apace,
and flourish all abroad.

14 And in their age much fruit shall bring both fat and well beset :

And pleasantly both bud and spring
with boughs and branches green.

15 To shew that God is good and just,
and upright in his will :

He is my rock, my hope and trust,
in him there is none ill.

Dominus regnavit. Psal xciii. 7. H.

THe Lord as king aloft doth reign,
with glory goodly dight :
And he to shew his strength and main,
hath girt himself with might.

2 The Lord likewise the earth hath made
and shaped it so sure,

No might can make it move or fade ;
at stay it doth endure.

3 E're that the world was made or wrought,
thy feat was set before :

Beyond all time that can be thought,
thou hast been evermore.

4 The floods, O Lord, the floods do rise,
they rore and make a noise :

The floods (I say) did enterprize,
and lifted up their voice.

5 Yea, though the storms arise in fight,
though seas do rage and swell :

The Lord is strong and more of might,
for he on him doth dwell.

6 And look what promise he doth make his household to defend :

For just and true they shall it take,
all times without an end.

Deus ultionum. Psal xciv. 3. H.

O Lord, thou dost revenge all wrong,
that office 'longs to thee :

Sith vengeance doth to thee belong,
declare that all may see.

2 Set forth thy self, for thou of right
the earth dost judge and guide :

Reward the proud and men of might
according to their pride.

3 How long shall wicked men bear sway
with lifting up their voice ?

How long shall wicked men, I say,
thus triumph and rejoyce ?

4 How long shall they with brags burst out and proudly praise their fill ?

Shall they rejoyce that be so stout,
whose works are ever ill ?

5 Thy flock, O Lord, thine heritage
they spoil and vex full sore :

Against thy people they do rage
still daily more and more.

6 The widows which are comfortless,
and strangers they destroy :

They slay the children fatherless
and none doth put them by.

7 And when they take these things in hand,
this talk they have of thee,

Can Jacobs God this understand ?
tush no, he cannot see.

8 O folk unwise, and people rude,
some knowledge now discern :

Ye fools among the multitude,
at length begin to learn.

9 The Lord which made the ear of man,
he needs of right must hear :

He made the eye, all things must then
before his sight appear :

10 The Lord doth all the world correct,
and make them understand :

Shall he not then your deeds detect ?
how can ye scape his hand ?

The second part.

11 The Lord doth know the thoughts of man,
his heart he seeth full plain :

The Lord (I say) mans thoughts doth scan,
and findeth them but vain.

12 But Lord, that man is happy sure whom thou dost keep in awe,

And through correction dost procure
to teach him in thy law.

13 Whereby he shall in quiet rest
in time of trouble sit :

When wicked men shall be suppress'd,
and fall into the pit.

14 For sure the Lord will not refuse
his people for to take :

His heritage whom he did chuse
he will no time forsake.

15 Until that judgment be decreed
to justice to convert :

That all may follow her with speed
that are of upright heart.

16 But who upon my part shall stand against the cursed train ?

Or who shall rid me from their hand
that wicked works maintain ?

17 Except the Lord had been mine aid,
mine enemies to repell :

My soul and life had now been laid
almost as low as hell.

- 18 When I did say, My foot did slide,
I now am like to fall:
Thy goodness, Lord, did so provide
to stay me up withall.
- 19 When with my self I mused much,
and could no comfort find:
Then, Lord, thy goodness did me touch,
and that did ease my mind.
- 20 Wilt thou inhaunt thy self, and draw
with wicked men to sit:
Which with pretence in stead of law
much mischief do commit?
- 21 For they consult against the life
of righteous men and good:
And in their counsels they are rife
to shed the guiltless blood.
- 22 But yet the Lord he is to me
a strong defence or lock:
He is my God, to him I flee,
he is my strength and rock.
- 23 And he shall cause their mischief all,
themselves for to annoy:
And in their malice they shall fall,
our God shall them destroy.

Venit, exultemus Psal. xcvi. J. R.

- O Come let us lift up our voice
and sing unto the Lord:
In him our rock of health rejoyce
let us with one accord.
- 2 Yea, let us come before his face
to give him thanks and praise:
In singing psalms unto his grace
let us be glad always.
- 3 For why? the Lord he is no doubt
a great and mighty God,
A King above all gods thoroughout,
in all the world abroad.
- 4 The secrets of the earth so deep,
and corners of the land,
The tops of hills that are so steep,
he hath them in his hand.
- 5 The sea and waters all are his,
for he the same hath wrought:
The earth and all that therein is his hand hath made of nought.
- 6 Come let us bowe and praise the Lord,
before him let us all:
And kneel to him with one accord,
the which hath made us all.
- 7 For why? he is the Lord our God,
for us he doth provide:
We are his flock, he doth us feed;
his sheep, and he our Guide.
- 8 To day if ye his voice will hear,
then harden not your heart:

- As ye with grudging many a year
provok'd me in desert.
- 9 Whereas your fathers tempted me,
my power for to prove:
My wondrous works when they did see,
yet still they would me move.
- 10 Twice twenty years they did me grieve,
and I to them did say,
They err in heart, and not believe,
they have not known my way.
- 11 Wherefore I swear when that my wrath
was kindled in my brest,
That they should never tread the path
to enter in my rest.

Cantate Domino Psal. xcvi. J. R.

- Sing ye with praise unto the Lord
new songs with joy and mirth:
Sing unto him with one accord,
all people of the earth.
- 2 Yes, sing unto the Lord, I say,
praise ye his holy Name:
Declare and shew from day to day
salvation by the same.
- 3 Among the heathen eke declare his honour round about:
To shew his wonders do not spare
in all the world thoroughout.
- 4 For why? the Lord is much of might,
and worthy praise alway:
And he is to be dread of right,
above all gods, I say.
- 5 For all the gods of heathen folk
are idols that will fade:
But yet our God he is the Lord,
that hath the heavens made.
- 6 All praise and honour eke do dwell
for ay before his face:
Both power and might likewise excell
within his holy place.
- 7 Ascribe unto the Lord alway
ye people of the world,
All might and worship eke, I say,
ascribe unto the Lord.
- 8 Ascribe unto the Lord also
the glory of his Name:
And eke into his courts bring with gifts unto the same.

The second part.

- 9 Fall down and worship ye the Lord
within his temple bright:
Let all the people of the world
be fearful at his sight.
- 10 Tell all the world, be not silent,
the Lord doth reign above:
Yea, he hath set the earth so fast,
that it can never move.

IT And

- 11 And that it is the Lord alone
that rules with princely might,
To judge the nations every one
with equity and right, 12 The heavens shall great joy begin,
the earth eke shall rejoyce
The sea with all that is therein shall shour and make a noise.
13 The field shall joy, and every thing
that springeth on the earth:
The wood and every tree shall sing:
with gladness and with mirth:
14 Before the presence of the Lord,
and coming of his might,
When he shall justly judge the world,
and rule his folk with right.

Dominus regnavit. Psal. xcvi. J. H.

- THe Lord doth reign, wherewith the earth
may joy with pleasant voice:
And eke the illes with joyful noise
may triumph and rejoyce.
2 Both clouds and darknesses eke do swell,
and round about him beat:
Yea, right and justice ever dwell
and blide about his feat.
3 Yea, fire and heat at once do run,
and go before his face:
Which shall his foes and enemies burn abroad in every place.
4 His lightnings eke full bright did blaze,
and to the world appear:
Wherewith the earth did look and gaze
with dread and deadly fear.
5 The hills like wax did melt in sight
and presence of the Lord:
They fled before that burning sight,
which guldereth all the world.
6 The heavens eke declare and shew
his justice forth abroad,
That all the world may see and know
the glory of our God.
7 Confusion sure shall come to such as worship idols vain:
And eke to those that glory much
in dumb pictures to maintain.
8 For all the idols of the world,
which they as gods do call,
Shall, feel the power of the Lord,
and down to him shall fall.
9 With joy shall Sion hear this thing,
and Juda shall rejoyce:
For at thy judgments they shall sing,
and make a pleasant noise.
10 That thou, O Lord, art set on high,
in all the earth abroad:

And art exalted wondrously
above each other god:

- 11 All ye that love the Lord do this,
hate all things that are ill:
For he doth keep the souls of his
from such as would him spill.
12 And light doth spring up to the just,
with pleasure for his part:
Great joy with gladness mirth and lust,
to them of upright heart.
13 Ye righteous in the Lord rejoyce,
his holiness proclaim:
Be thankful eke with heart and voice,
and mindful of the same.

Cantate Domino. Psal. xcvi. J. H.

- O Sing ye now unto the Lord
a new and pleasant song:
For he hath wrought throughout the world
his wonders great and strong.
2 With his right hand full worthily
he doth his foes devour:
And get himself the victory
with his own arm and power.
3 The Lord doth make his people know
his saving health and might:
The Lord doth eke his justice shew
in all the heathens sight.
4 His grace and truth so Israel
in mind he doth record:
That all the earth hath seen, right well
the goodness of the Lord.
5 Beglad in him with joyful voyce,
all people of the earth:
Give thanks to God, sing and
to him with joy and mirth.
6 Upon the harp unto him sing,
give thanks to him with psalms:
Rejoyce before the Lord our King
with trumpets and with psalms.
7 Yea, let the sea with all therein
for joy both rore and swell:
The earth likewise let it begin withall that therein dwell.
8 And let the floods rejoyce in their
and chap their handspace.
And eke the mountains and the hills
before the Lord his face.
9 For he shall come to judge and try
the world and every right:
And rule the people mightily
with justice and with right.

Dominus regnavit. Psal. xcvi. J. H.

- THe Lord doth reign, although it be the people rage full sore:
Yea, he on cherubims doth sit,
though all the world do rore.

- 2 The Lord that doth in Sion dwell
is high and wondrous great Above all folk he doth excell,
and he aloft is set.
- 3 Let all men praise thy mighty Name,
for it is fearful sure:
And let them magnifie the same;
thar holy is and pure.
- 4 The princely power of our King
doth love judgment and right:
Thou rightly rulest every thing
in Jacob through thy might.
- 5 To praise the Lord our God devise,
all honour to him do:
Before his footstool worship him,
for he is holy too.
- 6 Moses, Aaron, and Samuel
as priests on him did call
When they did pray he heard them well,
and gave them answer all.
- 7 Within the cloud to them he spake,
then did they labour still
To keep such laws as he did make,
and pointed them untill.
- 8 O Lord our God, thou didst them hear,
and answerst them again,
Thy mercy did on them appear,
their deeds didst not maintain.
- 9 O laud and praise our God and Lord
within his holy hill:
For why? our God throughout the world is holy ever still.

Jubilate Deo. Psalm. 7. N.

- All people that on earth do dwell,
sing to the Lord with cheerful voice:
2 Him serve with fear, his praise forth tell:
come ye before him and rejoice.
- 3 The Lord ye know is God indeed:
without our aid he did us make:
We are his flock, he doth us feed:
and for his sheep he doth us take.
- 4 O enter then his gates with praise,
approach with joy his courts unto:
Praise, laud, and bless his Name always,
for it is seemly so to do.
- 5 For why? the Lord our God is good,
his mercy is for ever sure:
His truth as all times firmly stood,
and shall from age to age endure.
- Antiph. of the same. by J. H.*
- In God the Lord be glad and light,
praise him throughout the earth:
2 Serve him, and come before his sight,
with singing and with mirth.
- 3 Know that the Lord our God he is,
he did us make and keep.

- Not we our selves: for we are his own flock and pasture they.
- 4 O go into his gates always,
give thanks within the same:
Which his courts set forth his praise,
and laud his holy Name.
- 5 For why? the goodness of the Lord
for evermore doth reign:
From age to age throughout the world
his truth doth still remain.

Misererordiam. Psalm. ci. N.

- I Mercy will and judgment sing,
O Lord God, unto thee:
- 2 And wisely do in perfect way,
until thou come to me.
- And in the midst of my house walk
In pureness of my spirit:
- 3 And I no kind of wicked thing
will set before my sight.
- I hate their works that fall away
it shall not cleave to me:
- 4 From me shall pass the froward heart,
none evil will I see.
- 5 Him will I stroy that slandereth
his neighbour privily:
The lofty heart I cannot bear,
nor him that looketh high.
- 6 Mine eyes shall be on them, within
the land that faithful be:
In perfect way who walketh, shall be servant unto me.
- 7 I will no gulleful person have
within my house to dwell:
And in my presence he shall not remain that lies doth tell.
- 8 Betimes I will destroy
the wicked of the land:
That I may from Gods holy house
the wicked workers ban.

Domine, exaudi. Psalm. cxviii.

- O Hear my prayer, Lord, and receive
my cry come unto thee:
- 2 In time of trouble do not hide
thy face away from me.
- 3 Incline thine ear to me, make haste
to hear me when I call:
- For as the smoke doth fade,
my days consume and fall:
- 4 And as an hearth my bones are turned,
my heart is softened down,
And withers like the grass, that I forget to eat my bread.
- 5 By reason of my grievous voice
my bones cleave to my skin:
- 6 As pellice in wilderness,
such case now am I in.

And

And as an owl in desert is,
 Lo, I am such an one:
 I watch, and as a sparrow on the house-top am alone.
 Lo, daily in reproachful wise
 mine enemies do me scorn:
 And they that do against me rage,
 against me they have sworn.
 Surely with ashes as with bread,
 my hunger I have fill'd:
 And mingled have my drink with tears
 that from mine eyes have fill'd.
 Because of thy displeasure, Lord,
 thy wrath and thy disdain:
 For thou hast lifted me aloft,
 and cast me down again.
 The days wherein I pass my life,
 are like the fleeting shade:
 And I am with'ered like the grass
 that soon away doth fade.
 But thou, O Lord, for ever dost
 remain in steady place:
 And thy remembrance ever doth abide from race to race.

The second part

13 Thou wilt arise, and mercy thou
 to Sion wilt extend:
 The time of mercy, now the time
 foreset is come to end.
 14 For even in the stones thereof
 thy servants do delight:
 And on the dust thereof they have compassion in their spite.
 15 Then shall the heathen people fear
 the Lords most holy Name:
 And all the kings on earth shall dread
 thy glory and thy fame.
 16 Then when the Lord the mighty God again shall Sion rear:
 And then when he most nobly in his glory shall appear.
 17 To prayer of the desolate
 when he himself shall bend:
 When he shall not disdain unto their prayers to attend.
 18 This shall be written for the age
 that after shall succeed:
 The people yet uncreated
 the Lords renown shall spread.
 19 For he from his high sanctuary
 hath looked down below:
 And out of heaven hath the Lord
 beheld the earth below.
 20 That of the mourning captive he might hear the woful cry:

And that he might deliver those
 that damned are to die.
 21 That they in Sion may declare
 the Lords most holy Name:
 And in Jerusalem for forth
 the praises of the same:
 22 Then when the people of the land
 and kingdoms with accord Shall be assembled for to do their service to the Lord.

The third part.

23 My former force of strength he hath abated in the way:
 And shorter he did cut my days,
 thus I therefore did say, 24 My God, in midst of all my days
 now take me not away:
 Thy years endure eternally,
 from age to age for ay.
 25 Thou the foundations of the earth
 before all times hast laid:
 And Lord, the heavens are the work
 which thine own hands have made.
 26 Yea, they shall perish and decay,
 but thou shalt carry still:
 And they shall all in time wax old
 even as a garment will.
 27 Thou as a garment shalt them change,
 and changed shall they be:
 But thou dost still abide the same,
 thy years do never flee.
 28 The children of thy servants shall continually endure:
 And in thy sight their happy seed
 for ever shall stand sure.

Benedic, anima. Psal. ciii. T. S.

MY soul, give laud unto the Lord,
 my spirit shall do the same:
 And all the secrets of my heart,
 praise ye his holy Name.
 2 Give thanks to God for all his gifts,
 shew not thy self unkind:
 And suffer not his benefits
 to slip out of thy mind.
 3 That gave thee pardon for thy faults,
 and thee restor'd again,
 For all thy weak and frail disease,
 and heal'd thee of thy pain.
 4 That did redeem thy life from death,
 from which thou couldst not flee:
 His mercy and compassion both
 he did extend to thee.
 5 That fill'd with goodness thy desire,
 and did prolong thy youth:
 Like as the eagle casts her hill,
 whereby her age reneweth

6 The Lord with justice doth reply
all such as be oppress:
So that their sufferings and their wrongs
are turned to the best.

7 His ways and his commandments
to Moses he did show:
His counsels and his vallant acts
the Israelites did know.

8 The Lord is kind and merciful:
when sinners do him grieve:
The slowest to conceive a wrath,
and readiest to forgive.

9 He chides not us continually,
though we be full of strife:
Nor keeps our faults in memory,
for all our sinful life.

10 Nor yet according to our sins
the Lord doth us regard:
Nor after our iniquities
he doth us not reward.

11 But as the space is wondrous great
twixt earth and heaven above:
So is his goodness much more large
to them that do him love.

12 God doth remove our sins from us,
and our offences all,
As far as is the sun-rising
full distant from his fall.

The second part.

13 And look what pity parents dear
unto their children bear:
Like pity beareth God to such as worship him in fear.

14 The Lord that made us knows our shape,
our mould and fashion just:
How weak and frail our nature is,
and how we be but dust.

15 And how the time of mortal men
is like the with'ring hay:
Or like the flower right fair in field,
that fades full soon away.

16 Whose gloss and beauty stormy winds
do utterly disgrace:
And make that after their assaults
such blossoms have no place.

17 But yet the goodness of the Lord
with his shall ever stand:
Their children children do receive his righteousness at hand.

18 I mean, which keep his covenant
with all their whole desire:
And not forget to do the things
that he doth them require.

19 The heavens high are made the seat
and footstool of the Lord:

And by his power imperial
he governs all the world:

20 Ye angels which are great in power,
praise ye and bless the Lord:
Which to obey and do his will immediately accord.

21 Ye noble hosts and ministry cease not to laud him still:
Which ready are to execute
his pleasure and his will.

22 Yes, all his works in every place,
praise ye his holy Name:
My heart, my mind, and eke my soul,
praise ye also the same.

Benedic, anima mea. Psal. civ. W. K.

MY soul, praise the Lord,
speak good of his Name,
O Lord our great God,
how dost thou appear,
So passing in glory,
that great is thy fame?
Honour and majesty
in thee shine most clear.

2 With light as a robe,
thou hast thee beclad, Whereby all the earth
thy greatness may see:
The heavens in such sort
thou also hast spread,
That it to a curtain
compared may be.

3 His chamber beames lie
in the clouds full sure,
Which as his chariots,
are made him to beare:
And there with much swiftness
his course doth endure,
Upon the wings riding
of winds in the air.

4 He maketh his spirits
as heralds to go:
And lightnings to serve
we see also prest:
His will to accomplish
they run to and fro,
To save or consume things,
as seemeth him best.

5 He groundeth the earth
so firmly and fast,
That it once to move
none shall have such power.

6 The deep a fair covering
for it made thou hast:
K

Which by his own nature
the hills would devour.

7 But at thy rebuke
the waters do flee:

And so give due place
thy word to obey.

At thy voice of thunder
so fearful they be,

That in their great raging
they haste soon away.

8 The mountains full high
they then up ascend:

If thou do but speak,
thy word they fulfill.

So likewise the valleys
most quickly descend.

Where thou them appointest remain they do still.

9 Their bounds thou hast set,
how far they shall run;

So that in their rage
not that pass they can:

For God hath appointed
they shall not return.

The earth to destroy more,
which made was for man.

The second part.

10 He sendeth the springs
to strong streams or lakes,

Which run do full swift
among the huge hills:

11 Where both the wild asses
their thirst oft-times slake.

And beasts of the mountains
thereof drink their fill.

12 By these pleasant springs
of fountains full fast,

The fowls of the air
abide shall and dwell:

Who moved by nature
to hop hear and there,

Among the green branches
their songs shall excell.

13 The mountains to moist
the clouds he doth use:

The earth with his works
is wholly replete.

14 So as the brute cattle
he doth not refuse:

But grass doth provide them,
and herb for mans meat.

15 Yea, bread, wine, and oil,
he made for mans like,

His face to refresh,
and heart to make strong.

16 The cedars of Liban

this great Lord did make:

Which trees he doth nourish
that grow up so long.

17 In these may birds build and make there their nests:

In fir-trees the flocks remain and abide.

18 The high hills are succours
for wild goats to rest:

And eke the rock stony
for conies to hide.

19 The moon they in her
her seasons to run:

The days from the nights
thereby to discern:

And by the descending
also of the sun,

The cold from heat alway
thereby we do learn.

20 When darkness doth come
by Gods will and power,

Then creep forth do all
the beasts of the wood:

21 The lions range forth
their prey to devour:

But yet it is thou, Lord,
which givest them food.

22 As soon as the sun
is up, they retire:

To couch in their dens
then are they full fast:

23 That man to his work may,
as right doth require,

Till night come and call him
to take rest again.

The third part.

24 How sundry, O Lord,
are all thy works found!

With wisdom full great
they are indeed wrought:

So that the whole world
of thy praise doth sound.

And as for their riches,
they pass all mens thought.

25 So is the greatest which large is and broad,

Where things that creep swarm,
and beasts of each sort.

26 There both mighty ships fall,
and some lie at rode:

The whale huge and monstrous
there also doth spore.

27 All things on thee wait,
thou dost them relieve:

And thou in due time
full well dost them feed.

28 Now when it doth please thee
the same for to give,
They gather full gladly
those things which they need.

Thou openest thy hand,
and they find such grace.
That they with good things are filled we see.

29 But sore are they troubled
if thou turn thy face:
For if thou their breath take,
vile dust then they be.

30 Again, when thy Spirit
from thee dost proceed
All things to appoint,
and what shall ensue:
Then are they created
as thou hast decreed:
And dost by thy goodness
the dry earth renew.

31 The praise of the Lord
for ever shall last,
Who may in his works
by right well rejoyce.

32 His look can the earth make
to tremble full fast,
And likewise the mountains
to smoke at his voice.

33 To this Lord and God
sing will I always:
So long as I live,
my God praise will I.

34 Then am I most certain
my words shall him please:
I will rejoyce in him,
to him will I cry.

35 The sinners, O Lord, continue in time,
And eke the perverse
them root out with thine.
But as for my soul now,
let it still desire,
And say with the faithful,
praise ye the Lord's Name.

Confiteantur Domini.

Give praises unto God the Lord,
and call upon his Name:
Among the people eke declare his works to spread his fame.

2 Sing ye unto the Lord, O say,
and sing unto his praise:
And talk of all his wondrous works
that he hath wrought always.

3 In honour of his holy Name
rejoyce with one accord:

And let the heart also rejoyce
of them that seek the Lord.
4 Seek ye the Lord, and seek the strength of his eternal might:
And seek his face continually,
and presence of his sight.

5 The wondrous works which he hath done
keep still in mindful heart:
Ne let the judgments of his mouth
out of your mind depart.

6 Ye that of faithful Abraham
his servant are the seed:
Ye his elect, the children that of Jacob do proceed.

7 For he, he only is, I say,
the mighty Lord our God:
And his most rightful judgments are through all the earth abroad.

8 His promise and his covenant
which he hath made to his,
He hath remembered evermore
to thousands of degrees.

The second part.

9 The covenant which he hath made with Abraham long ago,
And faithful oath which he hath sworn to Isaac also:

10 And did confirm the same for law,
that Jacob should obey:
And for eternal covenant
to Israel for aye.

11 When thus he said, Lo, I to you all Canaan land will give,
The lot of your inheritance,
whereto your seed shall live.

12 Although the number at that time
did very small appear,
Yea, very small, and in the land
they then but strangers were.

13 While yet they walk from land to land
without a sure abode.
And while from sundry kingdoms they did wander all abroad.

14 And wrong at no oppressors hands
he suffered them to take:
But even the great and mighty kings
reproved for their sake.

15 And thus he said, Touch ye not those that mine anointed be:
Ne do the prophets any harm
that do pertain to me.

16 He call'd a dearth upon the land,
of bread he smote the flow:
But he against the time of need
had sent a man before.

The third part.

- 17 Even Joseph which had once been sold
to live a slave in wo:
Whose feet they hurt in stocks, whose foul
the irons pierc'd also.
18 Until the time came when his cause
was known apparently,
The mighty word of God the Lord
his faultless truth did try.
19 The king sent and delivered him
from prison where he was:
20 The ruler of the people then did freely let him pass.
21 And over all his house he made him lord to bear the sway:
And of his substance made him have
the rule and all the stay.
22 That he might to his will instruct
the princes of the land:
And wisdoms lore his ancient men
might cause to understand.
23 Then into the Egyptian land came Israel also:
And Jacob in the land of Ham
did live a stranger tho.
24 His people he exceedingly
in number made to flow:
And o'er all their enemies
in strength he made them grow.
25 Whose heart he turn'd, that they with hate
his people did inreat:
And did his servants wrongfully abuse with false deceit.

The fourth part.

- 26 His faithful servant Moses then,
and Aaron whom he chose,
He did command to go to them,
his message to disclose.
27 The wondrous message of his signs
among them he did show:
And wonders in the land of Ham
then did they work also.
28 Darkness he sent, and made it dark
in stead of brighter day:
And unto his commission
They did not disobey.
29 He turn'd their waters into bloud,
he did their fishes slay:
30 Their land brought frogs even in the place
where their king Pharaoh lay.
31 He spake, and at his voice there came great swarms of noisome flies:
And all the quarters of the land
were fill'd with crawling lice.
32 He gave them cold and stony hail
in stead of milder rain:

- And fiery flames within their land
he sent unto their pain.
33 He smote their vines and all their trees
whereon their figs did grow:
And all the trees within their coasts
down did he overthrow.
34 He spake, then caterpillers did
and grasshoppers abound:
35 Which ate the grass in all their land,
and fruit of all their ground.

The fifth part.

- 36 The first-begotten in their land
eke deadly did he smite:
Yea, the beginning and first-fruit
of all their strength and might.
37 With gold and silver he them brought from Egypt land to pass:
And in the number of their tribes
no feeble one there was.
38 Egypt was glad and joyful then
when they did thence depart:
For terror and the fear of them
was fall'n upon their heart.
39 To shroud them from the parching heat,
a cloud he did display:
And fire he sent to give them light
when night had hid the day.
40 They asked, and he caused quails
to rain at their request:
And fully with the bread of heaven
their hunger he repressit.
41 He opened the stony rock,
and waters gushed out:
And eke the dry and parched ground
like rivers ran about.
42 For of his holy covenant
ay mindful was he tho:
Which to his servant Abraham
he plightred long ago.
43 He brought his people forth with mirth,
and his elect with joy
Out of the cruel land where they had liv'd in great annoy.
44 And of the heathen men he gave
to them the fruitful lands:
The labours of the people eke
they took into their hands.
45 That they his holy statutes might observe for evermore,
And faithfully obey his laws:
praise ye the Lord therefore.

Confitemini Domino. Psal. cvi. A.

- Praise ye the Lord, for he is good,
his mercy dures for ay:
2 Who can express his noble acts,
or all his praise display?

3 They blessed are that judgment keep,
and justly do away.

4 With favour of thy people, Lord,
remember me I pray :

And with thy saving health (O Lord)
vouchsafe to visit me :

5 That I the great felicity
of thine elect may see :
And with thy peoples joy I may
a joyful mind possess ;
And may with thine inheritance
a glorying heart express.

6 Both we and eke our fathers all have sinned every one :
We have committed wickedness,
and lewdly we have done.

7 The wonders great which thou (O Lord)
hast done in Egypt land,
Our fathers though they saw them all
yet did not understand :

Nor they thy mercies multitude
did keep in thankful mind :
But at the sea, yea the Red sea,
rebelled most unkind.

8 Nevertheless he saved them
for honour of his Name :
That he might make his power known,
and spread abroad the fame.

9 The Red sea he did then rebuke,
and forthwith it was dri'd :
And as in wilderness, so through the deep he did them guide.

10 He sav'd them from the cruel hand
of their despiteful foe,
And from the enemies hand he did deliver them also.

The second part.

11 The waters their oppressours whelm'd,
nor one was left alive :

12 Then they believ'd his word, and praise
in song they did him give.

13 But by and by unthankfully
his works they clean forgot :
And for his counsel and his will
they did neglect to wait :

14 But lusted in the wilderness
with fond and greedy lust ;
And in the desert tempted God,
the stay of all their trust.

15 And then their wanton minds desire
he suffered them to have :
But wasting leaness therewithall
into their souls he gave.

16 Then when they lodged in their tents,
at Moses they did grutch :
Aaron the holy of the Lord
so did they envy much.

17 Therefore the earth did open wide,
and Dathan did devour :
And all Abirams company
did cover in that hour.

18 In their assembly kindled was the hot consuming fire :
And wasting flame did then burn up
the wicked in his ire.

19 Upon the hill of Horeb they
an idol-calf did frame :
And there the molten image they did worship of the same.

20 Into the likeness of a calf
which feedeth on the grass
Thus they their glory turn'd, and all their honour did deface.

21 And God their only Saviour
unkindly they forgot ;
Which many great and mighty things
in Egypt land had wrought :

The third part.

22 And in the land of Ham for them
most wondrous works had done,
And by the Red sea dreadful things
performed long ago.

23 Therefore for their so shewing them
forgetful and unkind,
To bring destruction on them all
he purpos'd in his mind :

Had not his chosen Moses stood
before him in the break,
To turn his wrath, lest he on them
with slaughter should him wreak.

24 They did despise the pleasant land
that he behight to give :
Yea, and the words that he had spoke
they did no whit believe.

25 But in their tents with grudging heart
they wickedly repin'd,
Nor to the voice of God the Lord
they gave an hearkening mind.

26 Therefore against them lifted he his strong revenging hand,
Them to destroy in wilderness
e're they should see the land :

27 And to destroy their seed among
the nations with his rod,
And through the countreys of the world
to scatter them abroad.

28 To Baa-peor then they did adjoyn themselves also,
And ate the offerings of the dead ;
so they forsook him so.

29 Thus with their own inventions
his wrath they did provoke :
And in his fore enkindled wrath
the plague upon them broke.

30 But Phineas stood up with zeal
the sinners vile to slay :
And judgment he did execute,
and then the plague did stay.

The fourth part.

31 It was imputed unto him
for righteousness that day :
And from thenceforth so counted is
from race to race, I say.

32 At waters eke of Meribah
they did him angry make :
Yea, so far forth, that Moses was then punisher for their sake :

33 Because they vext his spirit to sore,
that in impatient heat
His lips spake unadvisedly,
his fervour was so great.

34 Nor as the Lord commanded them,
they slew the people tho :
But were among the heathen mixt,
and learn'd their works also :

35 And did their idols serve, which were
their ruin and decay :

37 To send their sons and daughters they did offer up and slay.

38 Yea, with unkindly murdering knife
the guileless blood they spilt :
Yea, their own sons and daughters blood
without all cause of guilt.

Whom they to Canaan idols then
offred with wicked hand :
And so with blood of innocents
defiled was the land.

39 Thus were they stained with the works
of their own filthy way :
And with their own inventions,
a whoring they did stray.

40 Therefore against his people was the Lords wrath kindled fore :
And even his own inheritance
he did abhor therefore.

41 Into the hands of heathen men
he gave them for a prey,
And made their foes their lords, whom they were forced to obey.

The fifth part.

42 Yea, and their hateful enemies
opprest them in the land,
And they were humbly made to stoop
as subjects to their hand.

43 Full often times from thrall had he delivered them before :
But with their counsels they to wrath
provok'd him evermore.

Therefore they by their wickedness
were brought full low to lie :

44 Yet when he saw them in distress,
he hearkned to their cry.

45 He call'd to mind his covenant
which he to them had swore :
And by his mercies multitude repented him therefore.

46 And favour he them made to find
before the sight of those That led them captive from their land,
when e'rst they were their foes.

47 Save us, O Lord, that art our God,
save us, O Lord, we pray :
And from among the heathen folk,
Lord, gather us away.

48 That we may spread the noble praise
of thy most holy Name :
That we may glory in thy praise
and founding of thy fame.

49 The Lord the God of Israel
be blest for evermore :

Let all the people say, Amen,
praise ye the Lord therefore.

Confitemini Domino. Psal. cvii. W. K.

Give thanks unto the Lord our God,
for gracious is he :
And that his mercy hath no end
all mortal men may see.

2 Such as the Lord redeemed hath with thanks shall praise his Name :
And shew how they from foes were freed,
And how he wrought the same.

3 He gathered them forth of the Lands
that lay so far about :
From east to west, from north to south
his hand did find them out.

4 They wandred in the wilderness,
and strayed from the way :
And found no city where to dwell,
that serve might for their stay.

5 Whose thirst and hunger was so great
in these deserts so void :
That faintness did them sore assault,
and eke their souls annoy'd.

6 Then did they cry in their distress
unto the Lord for aid :
Who did remove their troublesome state,
according as they pray'd.

7 And by that way which was most right
he led them like a guide :
That they might to a city go,
and there also abide.

8 Let men therefore before the Lord
count his goodness then :
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sons of men.

- 9 For he the empty soul sustain'd,
whom thirst hath made to faint:
The hungry soul with goodness fed,
and did them else acquaint.
10 Such as do well in darkness deep,
where they on death do wait:
Fast bound to taste such troublous storms
as iron chains do threaten.

The second part.

- 11 For that against the Lords own words
they fought so to rebel:
Esteeming light his counsels high,
which do so far excell.
12 But when he humbled them full low,
they then fell down with grief:
And none was found so much to help,
whereby to get relief.
13 Then did they cry in their distress
unto the Lord for aid:
Who did remove their troublous state
according as they pray'd.
14 For he from darkness out them brought,
and from deaths dreadful shade:
Bursting with force the iron bands
which them before did lade.
15 Let men therefore before the Lord
confess his kindness then:
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sons of men.
16 For he threw down the gates of brass,
and brake them with strong hand:
The iron bars he smote in two,
nothing could him withstand.

- 17 The foolish folk great plagues do feel,
and cannot from them wend:
But heap on more to those they have,
because they do offend.
18 Their soul so much did loathe all meat,
that none they could abide:
Whereby death had them almost caught,
as they full truly tri'd.

- 19 Then did they cry in their distress
unto the Lord for aid:
Who did remove their troublous state,
according as they pray'd.
20 For then he sent to them his word,
which health did soon restore:
And brought them from those dangers deep wherein they were before.

The third part.

- 21 Let men therefore before the Lord
confess his kindness then:
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sons of men.
22 And let them offer sacrifice
with thanks, and also fear:

And speak of all his wondrous works
with glad and joyful cheer.

- 23 Such as in ships and bridle barks
into the seas descend,
Their merchandise through fearful floods
to compass and to end:

- 24 Those men are forced to behold
the Lords works what they be:
And in the dangerous deep, the same
most marvellous they see.

- 25 For at his word the stormy wind
ariseh in a rage,
And stirreth up the surges so,
as nought can them allwage.

- 26 Then are they lifted up so high,
the clouds they seem to gain:
And plunging down the depth until,
their souls consume with pain.

- 27 And like a drunkard to and fro
now here now there they reel,
As men with fear of wlt bereft,
or had of sense no feel.

- 28 Then did they cry in their distress
unto the Lord for aid:
Who did remove their troublous state,
according as they pray'd.

- 29 For with his word the Lord doth make
the sturdy storms to cease:
So that the great waves from their rage
are brought to rest and peace.

- 30 Then are men glad when rest is come,
which they so much did crave:
And are by him in heaven brought,
which they so late would have.

The fourth part.

- 31 Let men therefore before the Lord
confess his kindness then:
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sons of men.

- 32 Let them in presence of the folk
with praise extol his Name:
And where the elders do convene,
there let them do the same.

- 33 For running floods to dry deserts
he doth oft change and turn:
And drieth up as it were dust
the springing well and bourn.

- 34 A frighful land with pleasures deckt
full barren doth he make:
When on their sins that dwell therein
he doth just vengeance take.

- 35 Again the wilderness full rude
he maketh fruit to bear:
With pleasant springs of waters clear,
though none before were there.

36 Wherein such hungry souls are set
as he doth freely chule:

That they a city may them build
to dwell in for their life.

37 That they may sow their pleasant land,
and vineyards also plant,
To yeld them fruits of such increase,
as none can seem to want.

38 They multiply exceedingly,
the Lord doth bless them to:
Who doth also the brute beasts make
by numbers great to grow.

39 But when the faithful are low brought
by the oppressours flour,
And minish do through many plagues
that compass them about:

40 Then doth he prizes bring to shame
which did them fore oppress,
And likewise caused them to err,
within the wilderness.

41 But yet the poor he raised up
out of his troubles deep:
And oft-times doth his train augment,
much like a flock of sheeps.

42 The righteous shall behold this sight,
and also much rejoyce:
Whereas the wicked and perverse
with grief shall stop their voice.

43 But who is wise, that now full well
he may these things record?
For certainly such shall perceive
the kindness of the Lord.

Paratum cor. Psal. cviii. 7. H.

O God, my heart prepared is,
and eke my tongue is so,
I will advance my voice in song,
and giving praise also.

2 Awake my viol and my harp:
sweet melody to make:

And in the morning I my self
right early will awake.

3 By me among the people, Lord,
still praised shalt thou be:
And I among the heathen folk
will sing O Lord, to thee.

4 Because thy mercy, Lord, is great
above the heavens high:
And eke thy truth doth reach the clouds
within the lofty sky.

5 Above the starry heavens high exalt thy self, O God:
And Lord, display upon the earth
thy glory all abroad.

6 That thy dearly beloved may be set at liberty:
Help, O my God, with thy right hand,
and hearken unto me:

7 God in his holiness hath spoke,
wherefore my joys abound:
Sichem I will divide, and mere
the vale of Succoth-ground.

8 And Gilead shall be mine own, Manasse mine shall be:
My head-strength Ephraim; and law
shall Judah give for me.

9 Moab my washpot, and my shoe
on Edom will I throw:
Upon the land of Palestine
in triumph will I go.

10 Who shall into the city strong
be guide to conduct me?
Or how, by whom to Edom land conveyed shall I be?

11 Is it not thou, O Lord, which late hast us forsaken quite?

And thou, O Lord, which with our hosts
didst not go forth to fight?

12 Give us, O Lord, thy saving aid
when troubles do assaile:
For all the help of man is vain,
and can no whit avail.

13 Through God we shall do valiant acts
and worthy of renown:
He shall subdue our enemies
yea, he shall tread them down.

Deus, laudem tuam. Psal. cix. N.

IN speechless silence do not hold,
O God, thy tongue always:

O God, even thou, I say, that art
the God of all my praise.

2 The wicked and the guileful mouth
on me disclosed be:
And they with false and lying tongues
have spoken unto me.

3 They did beset me round about with words of hateful spite:
Without all cause of my desert
against me they did fight.

4 For my good will they were my foes
but then gan I to pray:

5 My good with ill, my friendliness
with hate they did repay.

6 Set thou the wicked over him,
to have the upper hand:
At his right hand eke suffer thou
his hateful foe to stand.

7 When he is judged, let him then condemned be therein:
And let the prayer that he makes
be turned into sin.

8 Few be his days, his charge also let thou another take:

- 9 His children let be fatherless,
his wife a widow make.
10 Let his offspring be vagabonds,
to beg and seek their bread:
Wandering out of the wasted place
where erst they have been fed.
11 Let covetous extortioners catch all his goods and store:
And let the stranger spoil the fruit
of all his toll before.
12 Let there be none to pity him,
let there be none at all That on his children fatherless
will let their mercy fall.

The second part.

- 13 And so let his posterity
for ever be destroy'd:
Their name out blotted in the age
that after shall succeed.
14 Let not his fathers wickedness
from Gods remembrance fall:
And let not thou his mothers sin
be done away at all.
15 But in the presence of the Lord
let them remain for ay:
That from the earth their memory
he may cut clean away.
16 Sith mercy he forgot to shew,
but did pursue with spite
The troubled man, and sought to slay
the woful hearted wight.
17 As he did cursing love, it shall beside unto him so:
And as he did not blessing love,
it shall be far him fro.
18 As he with cursing clad himself,
so it like water shall Into his bowels, and like oyl
into his bones befall.
19 As garment let it be to him,
to cover him for ay:
And as a girdle wherewith he shall girded be alway.
20 Lo, let the same be from the Lord
the guerdon of my foe:
Yea, and of those that evil speak against my soul also.
21 But thou, O Lord, thou art my God,
deal thou, I say with me
After thy Name, deliver me,
for good thy mercies be.
22 Because in depth of great distress
I needy am and poor:
And eke within my pained breast
my heart is wounded sore.

The third part.

- 23 Even so do I depart away
as doth declining shade:
And as the grasshopper, so I am shaken off and fade.
24 With fasting long from needful food
enfeebled are my knees:
And all her farness hath my flesh
enforced been to leese.
25 And I also a vile reproach
to them am made to be:
And they that did upon me look
did shake their heads at me.
26 But thou, O Lord, that art my God,
mine aid and succour be:
According to thy mercy, Lord,
save and deliver me.
27 And they shall know thereby, that this (Lord) is thy mighty hand:
And that thou, thou hast done it, Lord,
so shall they understand.
28 Although they curse with spite, yet thou shalt bless with loving voice:
They shall arise and come to shame;
thy servant shall rejoyce.
29 Let them be clothed all with shame
that enemies are to me:
And with confusion as a cloke
eke covered let them be.
30 But greatly I will with my mouth
give thanks unto the Lord:
And I among the multitude
his praises will record.
31 For he with help at his right hand
will stand the poor man by,
To save him from the man that would condemn his soul to die.
Dixit Dominus. Psal. cx. M.
THe Lord did say unto my Lord,
sit thou on my right hand,
Till I have made thy foes a stool
whereon thy feet shall stand.
2 The Lord shall out of Sion send the scepter of thy might:
Amid thy mortal foes be thou
the ruler in their fight.
3 And in the day on which thy reign
and power they shall see:
Then hereby free-will-offerings shall
the people offer thee.
Yea, with an holy worshipping.
Then shall they offer all:
Thy births dew is the dew that doth
from womb of morning fall.
4 The Lord hath sworn, and never will repent what he doth say:
L

By th' order of Melchisedech
thou art a priest for ay.

5 The Lord thy God, on thy right hand
that standeth for thy stay, Shall wound for thee the stately kings
upon his wrathful day.

6 The heathen he shall judge, and fill
the place with bodies dead:
And over divers countreys shall
in sunder smite the head.

7 And he shall drink out of the brook
that runneth in the way:
Wherefore he shall lift up on high
his royal head that day.

Confitebor tibi. Psal. cxi. N.

With heart I do accord
To praise and laud the Lord,

2 In presence of the just,
For great his works are found,
To search them such are bound
As do him love and trust.

3 His works are glorious,
Also his righteousness
It doth endure for ever.

4 His wondrous works he would
We still remember should,
His mercy faileth never.

5 Such as to him love bear,
A Portion full fair

He hath up for them laid:
For this they shall well find,
He will them have in mind,
And keep them as he said.

6 For he did not disdain
His works to shew them plain
By lightnings and by thunders:
When he the heathens land
Did give into their hand.

Where they beheld his wonders.

7 Of all his works ensueth
Both judgment, right and truth,
Whereto his statutes tend:

8 They are decreed sure,
For ever to endure,
Which equity doth end.

Redemption he gave
His people for to save:

9 And hath also required,
His promise not to fail,
But always to prevail:

His holy Name be feared.

10 Whoso with heart full fair
True wisdom would attain,

The Lord fear and obey:
Such as his laws do keep,
Shall knowledge have full deep,
His praise shall last for ay.

Beatus vir. Psal. cxii. W. R.

The man is blest that God doth fear,
And that his law doth love indeed:

2 His seed on earth God will uprear,
And blest such as from him proceed.

3 His house with good he will fulfill,
His righteousness endure shall still.

4 Unto the righteous doth arise
In trouble joy, in darkness light.

Compassion is in his eyes,
And mercy always in his sight.

5 Yea, pity moveth such to lend,
He doth by judgment things expend.

6 And surely such shall never fail,
For in remembrance had is he:

7 No tidings ill can make him quail
Who in the Lord sure hope doth see.

8 His heart is firm, his fear is past,
For he shall see his foes down cast.

9 He did well for the poor provide,
His righteousness shall still remain:

And his estate with praise abide,
Though that the wicked man disdain.

10 Yea, gnash his teeth thereat shall he,
And so consume his state to see.

Laudate pueri. Psal. cxiii. W. R.

Ye children which do serve the Lord,
Praise ye his Name with one accord.

2 Yea, blessed be always his Name,
3 Who from the rising of the sun,

Till it return where it began,
Is to be praised with great fame.

4 The Lord all people doth surmount;
As for his glory we may count,
Above the heavens high to be.

5 With God the Lord who may compare,
Whose dwellings in the heavens are?

Of such great power and force is he.

6 He doth abase himself, we know,
Things to behold both here below,

And also in heaven above.

7 The needy out of dust to draw,
And eke the poor which help none saw,
His only mercy did him move.

8 And so him set in high degree
With princes of great alquity.

That rule his people with great fame:

9 The barren he doth make to bear,
And with great joy her fruit to rear:
Therefore praise ye his holy Name.

In exiru Israel. Psal. cxiv. W. W.

When Israel by Gods address
from Pharaohs land was bent:

And Jacobs house the strangers left,
and in the same track went:

2 In Judah God his glory shew'd,
his holiness most bright:

o did the Iſraelites declare his kingdom, power, and might.

3 The ſea it ſaw, and ſuddenly
as all amaz'd did flee:

The roling ſtreams of Jordans flood
recoyled backwardly.

4 As rams afraid, the mountains ſkipe,
their ſtrength did them forſake:

And as the ſilly trembling lambs,
their tops did beat and ſhake.

5 What ail'd thee, ſea, as all amaz'd,
ſo ſuddenly to flee?

Ye rolling waves of Jordans flood,
why ran ye backwardly?

6 Why ſhook ye hills, as rams afraid?
why did your ſtrength ſo ſhake?

Why did your tops, as trembling lambs,
for fear quiver and quake?

7 O earth, confeſs thy ſovereign Lord,
and dread his mighty hand:

Before the face of Jacobs God
ſear ye both ſea and land.

8 I mean the God, which from hard rocks
doth cauſe main floods appear:

And from the ſtony ſint doth cauſe
gush out the fountains clear.

Non nobis, Domine. Pſal. cxv. N.

NOr unto us, Lord, nor to us,
but to thy Name give praiſe,
Both for thy mercy and thy truth
that are in thee always.

2 Why ſhall the heathen ſcorners ſay,
where is their God become?

3 Our God in heaven is, and what he will, that hath he done.

4 Their idols ſilver are and gold,
works of mens hands they be:

5 They have a mouth, and do not ſpeak;
and eyes, and do not ſee:

6 And they have ears joynd to their heads,
and do not hear at all:

And noſes eke they formed have,
and do not ſmell withall.

7 And hands they have, and handle not;
and feet, and do not go:

A throat they have, yet through the ſime
they make no ſound to blow.

8 Thoſe that make them are like to them,
and thoſe whoſe truſt they be,

9 O Iſrael truſt in the Lord,
their help and ſhield is he.

10 O Aarons houſe truſt in the Lord,
their help and ſhield is he:

11 Truſt ye the Lord that fear the Lord,
their help and ſhield is he.

12 The Lord hath mindful been of us,
and will us bleſs alſo:

On Iſrael and on Aarons houſe
his bleſſings he will ſhow.

13 Them that be fearers of the Lord,
the Lord will bleſs them all:

Even he will bleſs them every one,
the great and eke the ſmall.

14 To you (I ſay) the living Lord
will multiply his grace:

To you and to the children that
ſhall follow of your race.

15 Ye are the bleſſed of the Lord,
even of the Lord, I ſay:

Which both the heaven and the earth
hath made and ſet in ſtay.

16 The heavens, yea, the heavens high belong unto the Lord:

The earth unto the ſons of men
he gave of free accord.

17 They that be dead do not with praiſe
ſet forth the Lords renown:

Nor any that into the place
of ſilence do go down.

18 But we will praiſe the Lord our God
from henceforth and for ay:

Sound ye the praiſes of the Lord,
praiſe ye the Lord, I ſay.

Dilexi quoniam. Pſal. cxvi. N.

I Love the Lord, becauſe my voice
and prayer heard hath he:

2 When in my days I call'd on him,
he bow'd his ear to me.

3 Even when the ſnares of cruel death
about beſet me round:

When pains of hell me caught, and when I wo and ſorrow ſound:

4 Upon the Name of God my Lord,
then did I call, and ſay,

Deliver thou my ſoul, O Lord,
I do thee humbly pray.

5 The Lord is very merciful,
and juſt he is alſo:

And in our God compaſſion
doth plentifully flow.

6 The Lord in ſafety doth preſerve
all thoſe that ſimple be:

I was in woſul miſery,
and he delivered me.

7 And now my ſoul, ſich thou art ſafe,
return unto thy reſt:

For largely, lo, the Lord to thee
his bounty hath expreſt.

8 Becauſe thou haſt delivered
my ſoul from deadly threat:

My moiſtned eyes from mournful tears,
my ſliding feet from fall:

9 Before the Lord I in the land
of life will walk therefore:

10 I did believe, therefore I spake,
for I was troubled fore.

The second part.

11 I said in my distress and fear,
that all men liars be :

12 What shall I pay the Lord for all his benefits to me?

13 The wholsom cup of saving health
I thankfully will take :

And on the Lords name I will call
when I my prayer make.

14 I to the Lord will pay the vows
that I to him beight :

Yea, even at this present time
in all his peoples fight.

15 Right dear and precious in his sight
the Lord doth ay esteem

The death of all his holy ones,
whatever men do deem.

16 Thy servant, Lord, thy servant, lo,
I do my self confesse,

Son of thy handmaid : thou hast broke
the bonds of my distress.

17 And I will offer up to thee
a sacrifice of praise :

And I will call upon the Name
of God the Lord always.

18 I to the Lord will pay the vows
that I have him beight,

Yea, even at this present time
in all his peoples fight.

19 Yea, in the courts of Gods own house,
and in the midst of thee,

O thou Jerusalem, I say,
wherefore the Lord praise ye.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. cxvii. N.

O All ye nations of the world,
praise ye the Lord always :

And all ye people every where
set forth his noble praise.

2 For great his kindness is to us,
his truth endures for ay :

Wherefore praise ye the Lord our God,
praise ye the Lord, I say.

Confitemini. Psal. cxviii. N.

O Give ye thanks unto the Lord,
for gracious is he :

Because his mercy doth endure
for ever towards thee.

2 Let Israel confess and say,
his mercy dures for ay :

3 Now let the house of Aaron say,
his mercy dures for ay.

4 Let all that fear the Lord our God
even now confess and say,

The mercy of the Lord our God
endureth still for ay.

5 In trouble and in heaviness
unto the Lord I cry'd :

Which lovingly heard me at large,
my suit was not deny'd.

6 The Lord himself is on my side,
I will not stand in doubt,

Nor fear what man can do to me,
when God stands me about.

7 The Lord doth take my part with them
that help to succour me :

Therefore I shall see my desire upon mine enemy.

8 Better it is to trust in God
than in mans mortal feed :

9 Or to put confidence in kings
or princes in our need.

10 All nations have inclosed me,
and compassed me round :

But in the name of God shall I mine enemies confound.

11 They kept me in on every side,
they kept me in I say :

But in the Lords most mighty Name
I shall work their decay.

12 They came about me all like bees,
but yet in the Lords Name

I quench their thorns that were on fire,
and will destroy the same.

The second part.

13 Thou hast with force thrust fore at me
that I indeed might fall :

But through the Lord I found such help
that they were vanquish'd all.

14 The Lord is my defence and strength,
my joy, my mirth, my song :

He is become for me indeed
a Saviour most strong.

15 The right hand of the Lord our God
doth bring to pass great things :

He causeth voice of joy and health
in righteous mens dwellings.

16 The right hand of the Lord doth bring most mighty things to pass :

His hand hath the preeminence,
his force is as it was.

17 I shall not die, but ever live
to utter and declare

The Lord his might and wondrous power,
his works, and what they are.

18 The Lord himself hath chastened
and hath corrected me :

But hath not given me over yet
to death as ye may see.

19 Set open unto me the gates of truth and righteousness :

That I may enter into them
The Lords praise to express.

20 This is the gate even of the Lord,
which shall not be shut,
But good and righteous men alway
shall enter into it.

The third part.

21 I will give thanks to thee, O Lord,
because thou hast heard me,
And art become most lovingly
a Saviour unto me.
22 The stone which e're this time among
the builders was refused,
Is now become the corner-stone,
and chiefly to be used.

23 This was the mighty work of God,
This was the Lords own fact:
And it was marvellous to behold
with eyes that noble art.

24 This is the joyful day indeed,
which God himself hath wrought:
Let us be glad and joy therein
in heart, in mind, in thought.

25 Now help us, Lord, and prosper us,
we wish with one accord:

26 Blessed is he that comes to us
in the name of the Lord.

27 God is the Lord that shews us light,
blind ye therefore with cord
Your sacrifice to the altar,
and give thanks to the Lord.

28 Thou art my God, I will confess,
and render thanks to thee:
Thou art my God, and I will praise
thy mercy towards me.

29 O give ye thanks unto the Lord,
for gracious is he:
Because his mercy doth endure
for ever towards me.

Beati immaculati. Psal. cxix.

Blessed are they that perfect are,
and pure in mind and heart:
Whose lives and conversations
from Gods laws never part.

2 Blessed are they that give themselves
his statutes to observe:
Seeking the Lord with all their heart,
and never from him twerve.

3 Doubtless such men go not astray
nor do no wicked thing,
which steadfastly walk in his way
without any wandring.

4 It is thy will and commandment,
that with attentive heed
Thy noble and divine precepts
we learn and keep indeed.

5 O would to God it might thee please
my ways so to address,

That I might both in heart and voice
thy laws keep and confess!

6 So should no shame my life attain,
whilst I thus set mine eyes,
And bend my mind always to muse
on thy sacred decrees.

7 Then will I praise with upright heart,
and magnifie thy Name,
When I shall learn thy judgments just,
and likewise prove the same.

8 And wholly will I give my self
to keep thy laws most right:
For sake me not for ever, Lord,
but shew thy grace and might.

BETH. The second part.

9 By what means may a young man best
his life learn to amend?
If that he mark and keep thy word,
and therein his time spend.

10 Unfeignedly I have thee sought,
and thus seeking abide:
O never suffer me, O Lord,
from thy precepts to slide.

11 Within my heart and secret thoughts
thy words I have hid still:
That I might not at any time offend thy godly will.

12 We magnifie thy Name, O Lord,
and praise thee evermore:
Thy statutes of most worthy fame,
O Lord, teach me therefore.

13 My lips have never ceast to preach
and publish day and night,
The judgments all which did proceed
from thy mouth full of might.

14 Thy testimonies and thy ways
please me no less indeed,
Than all the treasures of the earth,
which worldlings make their need.

15 Of thy precepts I will still muse,
and thereto frame my talk:
As at a mark, so will I aim thy ways how I may walk.

16 My onely joy shall be to fix
and on thy laws to set:
That nothing can me so far blind,
that I thy words forget.

GIMEL. The third part.

17 Grant to thy servant now such grace
as may my life prolong:
Thy holy word then will I keep both in my heart and tongue.

18 Mine eyes which were dim and shut up,
so open and make bright:
That of thy law and marvellous works
I may have the clear sight.

- 19 I am a stranger in this earth,
wandering now here now there :
Thy word therefore to me disclose
my footsteps for to clear.
- 20 My soul is ravish'd with desire,
and never is at rest :
But seeks to know thy judgments high,
and what may please thee best.
- 21 The proud men and malicious
thou hast destroy'd each one :
And cursed are such as do not thy hefts attend upon.
- 22 Lord, turn from me rebuke and shame
which wicked men conspire :
For I have kept thy covenants
with zeal as hot as fire.
- 23 The princes great in counsel far,
And did against me speak :
But then thy servant thought how he thy statutes might not break.
- 24 For why ? thy covenants are my joy,
and my hearts great solace :
They serve in stead of counsellors
my masters for to please.

DALETH. The fourth part.

- 25 I am, alas, as brought to grave,
and almost turn'd to dust :
Restore therefore my life again,
as thy promise is just.
- 26 My ways when I acknowledge,
with mercy thou dost hear :
Hear now, O Lord, and me instruct thy laws to love and fear.
- 27 Teach me once thoroughly for to know
thy precepts and thy lore :
Thy works then will I meditate
and lay them up in store.
- 28 My soul I feel so sore oppress'd,
that it melteth for grief :
According to thy word therefore haste, Lord, to send relief.
- 29 From lying and deceitful lips
let thy grace me defend :
And that I may learn thee to love;
thy holy law me lend.
- 30 The way of truth both straight and sure
I have chosen and found :
I set thy judgments me before,
which keep me safe and sound.
- 31 Since then, O Lord, I fore'd my self
thy covenants to embrace :
Let me therefore have no rebuke
nor check in any case.
- 32 Then will I run with joyful cheer
where thy word doth me call :
When thou hast set my heart at large,
and rid me out of thrall.

HE. The fifth part.

- 33 Instruct me, O Lord, in the right trade
of thy statutes divine :
And let to keep even to the end
my heart will I incline.
- 34 Grant me the knowledge of thy law,
and I shall it obey :
With heart and mind and all my might
I will it keep, I say.
- 35 In the right paths of thy precepts
guide me, Lord, I require :
None other pleasure do I wish,
nor greater thing desire.
- 36 Incline my heart thy laws to keep,
and covenants to embrace :
And from all filthy wares,
Lord, shield me with thy grace.
- 37 From vain desires and worldly lusts
turn back mine eyes and sight :
Give me the spirit of life and power
to walk thy ways aright.
- 38 Confirm thy gracious promise, Lord,
which thou hast made to me,
Which am thy servant, and do love
and fear nothing but thee.
- 39 Reproach and shame which I so fear,
from me, O Lord, expel :
For thou dost judge with equity,
and therein dost excel.
- 40 Behold my hearts desire is bent
thy laws to keep for ay :
Lord, strengthen me so with thy grace
that it perform I may.

VAV. The sixth part.

- 41 Thy mercies great and manifold
let me obtain, O Lord :
Thy saving health let me enjoy,
according to thy word.
- 42 So shall I stop the slanderous mouths
of lewd men and unjust :
For in thy faithful promises
stands my comfort and trust.
- 43 The word of truth within my mouth
let ever still be prest :
For in thy judgments wonderful
my hope doth stand and rest.
- 44 And whilst that breath within my breast
doth natural life preserve, Yea, till this world shall be dissolved,
thy law will I observe.
- 45 So walk will I as free at large,
and made free from all dread :
Because I sought how for to keep
thy precepts and thy read.
- 46 Thy noble acts I will describe,
as things of most great name :

Even before kings I will them flaze,
and shrink no whit for shame.

47 I will rejoyce then to obey
thy worthy heale and will:
Which evermore I have lov'd best,
and so will love them still.

48 My hands I will lifto thy laws
which I have dearly fought:
And practise thy commandements
in will, in deed, in thought.

Z A I N. The seventh part.

49 Thy promise which thou mad'st to me
thy servant, Lord, remember:
For therein have I put my trust
and confidence for ever.

50 It is my comfort and my joy
when troubles me afill:
For were my life not by thy word
my life would soon me fall.

51 The proud and such as God contemn
still made of me a scorn:
Yet would I not thy law forsake,
as he that were forlorn.

52 But call'd to mind, Lord, thy great works
shew'd to our fathers old:
Whereby I felt thy joy surmount
my grief an hundred-fold.

53 But yet, alas, for fear I quake,
seeing how wicked men Thy law forsook, and did procure thy judgments who knows when.

54 And as for me I fram'd my thoughts
thy statutes to exak;
When I among the strangers dwell,
and thoughts 'gan me assault.

55 I thought upon thy Name, O Lord,
by night when others sleep,
As for thy law also I kept,
and ever will it keep.

56 This grace I did obtain, because thy covenants sweeter and dear
I did embrace; and also keep with reverence and with fear.

H E T H. The eighth part.

57 O God which art my part and lot,
my comfort and my stay,
I have decreed and promised
thy laws to keep alway.

58 Mine earnest heart did humbly sue
in presence of thy face,
As thou therefore hast promised,
Lord, grant me of thy grace.

59 My life I have examined,
and tr'd my secret heart:
Which to thy statutes caused me
my feet straight to convert.

60 I did not stay nor linger long as they that slothful are:
But hastily thy laws to keep
I did my self prepare.

61 The cruel bands of wicked men
have made of me their prey:
Yet would I not thy law forget,
nor from thee go astray.

62 Thy righteous judgments towards me
so great are and so high:
That even at midnight will I rise
thy Name to magnifie.

63 Companion am I to all them
which fear thee in their heart:
And never will for love nor dread
from thy commandments start.

64 Thy mercies, Lord, most plentifully
do all the world fulfill:
O teach me how I may obey
thy statutes and thy will.

T E T H. The ninth part.

65 According to thy promise, Lord, I so hast thou with me dealt:
For of thy grace in sundry sort
have I thy servant fealt.

66 Teach me to judge always aright,
and give me knowledge true:
For certainly believe I do that thy precepts are pure.

67 E're thou didst touch me with thy rod,
I err'd and went astray:
But now I keep thy holy word,
and make it all my stay.

68 Thou art both good and gracious,
and giv'st most liberally:
Thine ordinances how to keep
therefore, O Lord, teach me.

69 The proud and wicked men have forg'd
against me many a lie:
Yet thy commandments still observe
with all my heart will I.

70 Their hearts are swoll with worldly wealth,
as grease so are they fat:
But in thy law do I delight,
and nothing seek but that.

71 O happy time, my I well say,
when thou didst me correct:
For as a guide to learn thy laws
thy rod did me direct.

72 So that to me thy word and law
is dearer than gold,
Than thousands of treasures,
or ought that can be sold.

70. The tenth part.

73 Seeing thy hands have made me, Lord,
to be thy creature:

Grant

Grant knowledge likewise how to learn to put thy laws in ure.

74 So they that fear thee shall rejoyce

when-ever they may see:

Because I have learn'd by thy word

to put my trust in thee.

75 When with thy rods the world is plagu'd,

I know the cause is just:

So when thou dost correct me, Lord,

the cause just needs be must.

75 Now of thy goodness I thee pray

some comfort to me send:

As thou to me thy servant hast,

so from all ill me shend.

77 Thy tender mercies pour on me,

and I shall surely live:

For joy and consolation both

thy law to me doth give.

78 Confound the proud whose false pretence

is me for to destroy:

But as for me, thy hefts to know,

I will my self employ.

79 Who so with reverence do thee fear,

to me let them retire:

And such as do thy covenants know,

and them alone desire.

80 My heart without all wavering

let on thy laws be bent:

That no confusion come to me,

whereby I should be shent.

C A P H. The eleventh part.

81 My soul doth faint, and ceaseth not thy saving health to crave:

And for thy words like still I trust

my hearts desire to have.

82 Mine eyes do fall with looking for thy word, and thus I say:

Oh when wilt thou me comfort, Lord?

why dost thou thus delay?

83 As a skin-bottle in the smoke,

so am I parcht and dry'd:

Yet will I not out of my heart

let thy commandments slide.

84 Alas how long shall I yet live

before I see the hour?

That on my foes which me torment,

thy vengeance thou wilt pour?

85 Presumptuous men have digg'd pits,

thinking to make me sure:

Thus contrary against thy law,

my hurt, they do procure.

86 But thy commandments are all true,

and causeth they me grieve:

To thee therefore I do complain,

that thou might'st me relieve.

87 Almost they had me clean destroy'd

and brought me quite to ground:

Yet by thy statutes I abode,

and therein succour found.

88 Restore me, Lord, again to life,

for thy mercies excel:

And so shall I thy covenants keep till death my life expel.

L A M E D. The twelfth part.

89 In heaven, Lord, where thou dost dwell,

thy word is stablish'd sure:

And shall for all eternity

fast graven there endure.

90 From age to age thy truth abides,

as doth the earth witness:

Whose ground-work thou hast laid so sure

as no tongue can express.

91 Even to this day we may well see how all things persevere

According to thine ordinance,

for all things thee revere.

92 Had it not been that in thy law

my soul had comfort sought,

Long time e're now in my distress

I had been brought to nought.

93 Therefore will I thy precepts ay

in memory keep fast:

By them thou hast my life restor'd,

when I was at last cast.

94 No wight to me can title make,

for I am only thine:

Save me therefore, for to thy laws

mine ears and heart incline.

95 The wicked men do seek my hate,

and thereto lie in wait:

But I the while considered

thy noble works and great.

96 I see nothing in this wide world

at length which hath not end:

But thy commandments and thy word

beyond all end extend.

M E M. The thirteenth part.

97 What great desire and fervent love

do I bear to thy law!

All the day long my whole device

is only on thy law.

98 Thy word hath taught me far to pass

my foes in policy:

For still I hold it as a thing

of most excellency.

99 My teachers which did me instruct,

in knowledge I excell:

Because I do thy covenants keep

and them to others tell.

100 In wisdom I do pass also the ancient men indeed:

And all because to keep thy Laws

I held it ay best need.

101 My feet I have refrained eke
from every evil way:
Because that I continually
thy word might keep, I say.
102 I have not swerv'd from thy judgments,
nor yet shrunk any dell:
For why? thou hast me taught thereby
to live godly and well.
103 O Lord, how sweet unto my taste
find I thy words away!
Doubtless no honey in my mouth
feel ought so sweet I may.
104 Thy laws have me such wisdom learn'd,
that utterly I hate
All wicked and ungodly ways,
in every kind or rate.

N U N. The fourteenth part.

105 Even as a lantern to my feet,
so doth thy word shine bright,
And to my paths where ere I go
it is a flaming light.
106 I have both sworn and will perform
most certainly doubtless,
That I will keep thy judgments just,
and them in life express.
107 Affliction hath me sore oppress'd,
and brought me to death's door:
O Lord, as thou hast promised,
so me to life restore.
108 The offerings which with heart and voice
most frankly I thee give,
Accept; and teach me how I may
after thy judgments live.
109 My soul is ay so in my hand,
that dangers me assail:
Yet do I not thy law forget,
nor it to keep will fail.
110 Although the wicked laid their nets
to catch me at a bay, Yet did I not from thy precepts
once swerve or go astray.
111 Thy law I have so claim'd alway
as mine own heritage:
And why? for therein I delight,
and see my whole courage.
112 For evermore I have been bent
thy statutes to fulfill:
Even so likewise unto the end
I will continue still.

S A M E C H. The fifteenth part.

113 The crafty thoughts and double heart
I do always detest:
But as for thy law and precepts,
I love them ever best.
114 Thou art my hid and secret place,
my shield of strong defence:

Therefore have I thy promises
lookt for with patience.
115 Go to therefore ye wicked men,
depart from me anon:
For the commandments will I keep
of God my Lord alone.
116 As thou hast promis'd so perform,
that death me not assail:
Nor let my hope abuse me so,
that through distrust I quail.
117 Uphold me, and I shall be safe
for ought they do or say:
And in thy statutes pleasure take will I both night and day.
118 Thou hast trod such under thy feet
as do thy statutes break:
For nought avails their subtilty,
their counsel is but weak.
119 Like dross thou cast'st the wicked out
where ere they go or dwell:
Therefore can I as thy statutes
love nothing half so well.
120 My flesh, alas, is taken with fear,
as though it were beumm'd:
For when I see thy judgments, straight
I am as one aston'd.

A I N. The sixteenth part.

121 I do the thing that lawful is,
and give to all men right:
Resign me not to them that would oppress me with their might.
122 But for thy servant surely be in that thing that is good:
That proud men give me not the foil,
with rage as they were wood.
123 Mine eyes with waiting are now blind,
Thy health so much I crave:
And eke thy righteous promise, Lord,
Whereby thou wilt me save.
124 Entreat thy servant lovingly,
and favour so him show:
Thy statutes of most excellency
teach me also to know.
125 Thy humble servant, Lord, I am,
grant me to understand,
How by thy statutes I may know
best what to take in hand.
126 It is now time, Lord, to begin,
for truth is quite decay'd:
Thy law likewise they have transgress'd,
and none against them said.
127 This is the cause wherefore I love
thy laws better than gold:
Or Jewels fine which are esteemed
most costly to be sold.

128 I thought thy precepts all most just,
and so them laid in store:
All crafty and malicious ways
I do abhor therefore.

P E. The seventeenth part.

129 Thy cov'nants are most wonderful,
and full of things profound:
My soul therefore doth keep them sure,
when they are try'd and found.
130 When men enter into thy word.
they find a light most clear:
And very idiots understand
when they it read or hear.
131 For joy I have both gap'd and breath'd.
to know thy commandment:
That I might guide my self thereby,
I sought what thing it meant.
132 With mercy and compassion, Lord,
behold me from above,
As thou art wont to behold such as thy Name fear and love.
133 Direct my footsteps by thy words;
that I thy will may know:
And never let iniquity
thy servant overthrow.
134 From slanderous tongues and deadly harms
preserve and keep me sure:
Thy precepts then will I observe,
and put them eke in in ure.
135 Thy countenance which doth surmount
the sun in his bright hue,
Let shine on me, and by thy law
teach me what to eschew.
136 Out of mine eyes great floods gush out of dreary tears and fell,
When I behold how wicked men
thy laws keep never a dell.

Z A D E. The eighteenth part.

137 In every point, Lord, thou art just,
the wicked though they grudge:
And when thou dost sentence pronounce,
thou art a righteous judg.
138 To render right, and flee from guile,
are two chief points most high:
And such as thou hast in thy law
commanded us straitly.
139 With zeal and wrath I am consum'd
and even pin'd away,
To see my foes thy word forget,
for ought that do I may.
140 So pure and perfect is thy word,
as any heart can deem:
And I thy servant nothing more
do love or yet esteem.
141 And though I be nothing set by,
as one of base degree:

Yet do I not thy laws forget,
nor shrink away from thee.
142 Thy righteousness, Lord, is most just
for ever to endure:
Also thy law is truth it self,
most constant and most pure.
143 Trouble and grief have seiz'd on me,
and brought me wondrous low:
Yet do I still of thy precepts
delight to hear and know.
144 The righteousness of thy judgments
doth last for evermore:
Then teach them me, for even in them
my life lies up in store.

K O P H. The nineteenth part.

145 With fervent heart I call'd and cri'd,
now answer me, O Lord:
That thy commandments to observe
I may fully accord.
146 To thee, my God, I make my suit
with most humble request:
Save me therefore, and I will keep thy precepts and thyhests.
147 To thee I cry even in the morn
before the day was light:
Because that I have in thy word
my confidence whole plight.
148 Mine eyes prevent the watch by night,
and e're they call I wake:
That by devising on thy word
I might some comfort take.
149 Incline thine ears to hear my voice,
and pity on me take.
As thou wast wont, so judge me Lord,
lest life should me forsake.
150 My foes draw near, and do procure
my death maliciously,
Which from thy law are far gon back,
and stray'd from it lewdly.
151 Therefore, O Lord, approach thou near,
for need doth so require:
For all thy precepts true they are,
then help I thee desire.
152 But thy commandments have I learn'd
not now but long ago,
That they remain for evermore,
thou hast them grounded so.

R E S H. The twentieth part.

153 My trouble and affliction
consider and behold:
Deliver me, for of thy law
I ever take fast hold.
154 Defend my good and righteous cause,
with speed some succour send:
From death, as thou hast promised,
Lord, keep me and defend.

155 As for the wicked, far they are
from having health and grace:
Whereby they might thy statutes know
they enter not the trace.
156 Great are thy mercies, Lord, I grant,
what tongue can them attain?
And as thou hast me judg'd ere now,
so let me life obtain.
157 Though many men did trouble me,
and persecut me sore:
Yet from thy laws I never shrunk,
nor went awry therefore.
158 And truth it is, for grief I die
when I these traitours see:
Because they keep no whit thy word,
nor yet seek to know thee.
159 Behold, for I do love thy laws
with heart most glad and fain:
As thou art good and gracious, Lord,
restore my life again.
160 What thy word doth decree must be,
and so it hath been ever:
Thy righteous judgments are also most true, and decay never.

SCHIN. The one and twentieth part.

161 Princes have sought by cruelty
causeless to make me crouch:
But all in vain; for of thy word
the fear did my heart touch.
162 And certainly even of thy word
I was more merry and glad,
Than he that of rich spoils and prey
great stores and plenty had.
163 As for all lies and falsities,
I hate most and detest:
For why? thy holy law do I above all things love best.
164 Seven times a day I praise the Lord,
singing with heart and voice:
Thy righteous acts and wonderful
so cause me to joyce.
165 Great peace and rest shall all such have
as do thy statutes love:
No danger shall their quiet state
empair or once remove.
166 My only health and comfort, Lord,
I look for at thy hand:
And therefore have I done those things
which thou didst me command.
167 Thy laws have been my exercise,
which my soul most desired:
So much to them my love was bent
that nought else I requir'd.
168 Thy statutes and commandments
I kept (thou know'st) aright:
For all the things that I have done
are present in thy sight.

TAU. The two and twentieth part.

169 O Lord, let my complaint and cry
before thy face appear:
And as thou hast me promise made,
so teach me thee to fear.
170 Mine humble supplication
toward thee let find access:
And grant me, Lord, deliverance,
for so is thy promise.
171 Then shall my lips thy praises speak
after most ample sort:
When thou thy statutes hast me taught,
wherein stands my comfort.
172 My tongue shall sing and preach thy word,
and on this wise say shall,
Gods famous acts and noble laws
are just and perfect all.
173 Stretch out thy hand, I thee beseech,
and speedily me save:
For thy commandments to observe chosen, O Lord, I have.
174 Of thee alone, Lord, I crave health,
for other I know none:
And in thy law and nothing else
I do delight alone.
175 Grant me therefore long days to live
thy Name to magnifie:
And of thy judgments merciful
let me the favour try.
176 For I was lost and went astray
much like a wandering sheep:
Oh seek me, for I have not fail'd
thy commandments to keep.

Ad Dominum. Psal. CXX. T. S.

I N trouble and in thrall
Unto the Lord I call,
And he doth me comfort.
2 Deliver me, I say,
From liars lips away,
And tongues of false report.
3 What vantage, or what thing,
Gett'st thou thus for to sing,
Thou false and flattering liar?
4 Thy tongue doth hurt, I ween,
No less than arrows keen,
Or hot consuming fire.
5 Alas! too long I slack
Within these tents so black,
Which Kedars are by name,
By whom the flock elect
And all of Isaac's seed
Are put to open shame.
6 With them that peace did hate
I came a peace to make
And set a quiet life:
But

7 But when my tale was told,
Causeless I was controll'd.
By them that would have strife.
Levati oculos. Psal. cxxi. W. W.

I Lift mine eyes to Sion hill,
From whence I do attend
That succour God me send.

2 The mighty God me succour will,
Which heaven and earth fram'd
And all things there in named.

3 Thy foot from slip he will preserve,
And will thee safely keep,
For he will never sleep.

4 Lo he that doth Israel conserve:
No sleep at all can him ketch,
But his eyes shall ever watch.

5 The Lord is thy warrant alway,
The Lord eke doth thee cover
As at thy right hand ever:

6 The sun shall not thee parch by day,
Nor the moon nor half so bright
Shall with cold thee hurt by night.

7 The Lord will keep thee from distress,
And will thy life sure save:

8 And thou shalt also have
In all thy business good success:
Where-ever thou goest in or out,
God will thy things bring about.

Letatus sum. Psal. cxxii. W. K.

I Did in heart rejoyce
To hear the peoples voice,
In offering so willingly:

2 For let us up, say they,
And in the Lords house Pray:
Thus spake the folk full lovingly.

3 Our feet that wandred wide
Shall in thy gates abide,
O thou Jerusalem full fair,
Which art so seemly set
Much like a city near,
The like whereof is not elsewhere.

4 The tribes with one accord,
The tribes of God the Lord,
Are thither bent their way to take:
So God before did tell
That there his Israel
Their prayers should together make.

5 For there are thrones erect,
And that for this respect,
To set forth justice orderly:
Which thrones right to maintain
To Davids house pertain,
His folk to judge accordingly.

6 To pray let us not cease
For Jerusalems peace,
Thy friends God prosper mightily:

7 Peace be thy walls about,
And prosper thee throughout
Thy palaces continually.

8 I with thy prosperous state
For my poor bretherens sake,
That comfort have by means of thee,
9 Gods house doth me allure
Thy wealth for to procure
So much always as lies in me.

Ad te levavi. Psal. cxxiii. E. S.

O Lord that heaven dost possess,
I lift mine eyes to thee:

2 Even as the servant listeth his,
his masters hands to see,
As handmaids watch their mistresses hand
some grace for to achieve:
So we behold the Lord our God,
till he do us forgive.

3 Lord, grant us thy compassion,
and mercy in thy sight:
For we are fill'd and overcome
with hatred and despight.

4 Our minds be stuf with great rebuke,
the rich and worldly wile
Do make of us their mocking stocks,
the proud do us despise.

Nisi quia Dom. Psal. cxxiv. W. W.

Now Israel
may say, and chartruly,

If that the Lord
had not our cause maintain'd;

2 If that the Lord
had not our right sustain'd,
When all the world
against us furiously
Made their uprores,
and said we should all die:

3 Now long ago
they had devour'd us all,
And swallow'd quick,
for ought that we could deem:
Such was their rage
as we might well esteem.

4 And as the floods
with mighty force do fall:
So hid they now
our lives even brought to thrall.

5 The raging streams,
most proud in roaring noise,
Had long ago
o'rewhelm'd us in the deep:

6 But lov'd be God,
which doth us safely keep
From bloody death,
and their most cruel voice,
Which as a prey
to eat us would rejoyce.

7 Even as a bird
out of the fowlers grin Escapes away,
right so it fares with us :

Broke are their nets,
and we have scaped thus.

8 God that made heaven
and earth is our help then :

His Name hath sav'd
us from these wicked men.

Quis confidit. Psal. cxxv. W. K.

Such as in God the Lord do trust,
As mount Zion shall freely stand,
And be removed at no hand.
The Lord will count them right and just :
So that they shall be sure
For ever to endure :

2 As mighty mountains huge and great Jerusalem about do close :

So will the Lord do unto those Who on his godly will do wait :

Such are to him so dear
They never need to fear :

3 For though the righteous try doth he
By making wicked men his rod,
Lest they through grief forsake their God,
It shall not as their Lot still be :

4 Give, Lord, to us thy light,
Whose hearts are true and right :

5 But as for such as turn aside
By crooked ways which they our fought,
The Lord will surely bring to nought ;
With workers vile they shall abide :

But peace with Israel
For evermore shall dwell.

Another of the same, by R. W.

Those that do put their confidence
Upon the Lord our God only,
And flee to him for their defence
In all their need and misery :
Their faith is sure still to endure,
Grounded on Christ the corner-stone,
Mor'd with none ill, but standeth still Stedfast like to the mount Zion.

And as about Jerusalem
The mighty hills do it compass,
So that no enemies come to them
To hurt that town in any case :
So God indeed in every need
His faithful people doth defend,
Standing them by assuredly
From this time forth world without end.

Right wise and good is our Lord God,
And will not suffer certainly
The sinners and ungodly rod
To tarry upon his family :

Lest they also from God should go,
Falling to sin and wickedness.
O Lord, defend world without end
Thy christian flock through thy goodness.

O Lord do good to christians all
That stedfast in thy word abide :
Such as willingly from God fall,
And to false doctrine daily slide,
Such will the Lord scatter abroad
With hypocrites thrown down to hell,
God will them send pains without end :
But, Lord, grant peace to Israel.

Glory to God the Father of might,
And to the Son our Saviour,
And to the holy Ghost whose light
Shine in our hearts, and us succour :
That the right way from day to day
We may walk, and him glorify :
With hearts desire all that are here
Worship the Lord, and say, Amen.

In commendam. Psal. cxxvi. W. K.
When that the Lord
again his Son had forth brought,

From bondage great, from a hard yoke,
and also servitude extreme :

His work was such
as did surmount man's heart and thought :
So that we were
much like to them that life to dream.

2 Our mouths all were
with laughter filled then,
And eke our tongues
did shew us joyful men.

The heathen folk
were forced then this to confess,
How that the Lord
for them also great things had done.

3 But much more we
and therefore can confess no less :
Wherefore to joy
we have good cause as we begun.

4 O Lord, go forth,
thou canst our bondage end :
As to deserts
the flowing rivers send.

5 Full true it is,
that they which sow in tears indeed,
A time will come
when they shall reap in mirth and joy.

6 They wear and weep
in bearing of their freedom need
For that their feet
full often times did them annoy :

But their return
with joy they shall sure see,
Their sheaves home bring
and not impaired be.

Nisi Dom. Psal. cxxvii. W. W.

EXcept the Lord the house doth make,
And thereunto doth set his hand:
What men do build it cannot stand.
Likewise in vain men undertake
Cities and holds to watch and ward,
Except the Lord be their safeguard.

2 Though ye rise early in the morn,
And so at night go late to bed,
Feeding full hardy with brown bread,
Yet were your labour lost and worn:
But they whom God doth love and keep,
Receive all things with quiet sleep.

3 Therefore mark well when e're ye see
That men have theirs enjoy their land,
It is the gift of Gods own hand:
For God himself doth multiply
Of his great liberality
The blessing of posterity.

4 And when the children come to age
They grow in strength and activeness;
In person and in countenance:
So that a shaft shod with courage
Of one that hath a most strong arm,
Flies not so swift, nor doth like harm.

5 Oh well is he that hath his quiver
Furnished with such armourie:
For when in peril he shall be,
Such one shall never shake nor shiver,
When that he pleads before the Judge
Against his foes that bear him grudge.

Beati Omnes. Psal. cxxviii. T. S.

Blessed art thou that fearest God,
And walkest in his way:
2 For of thy labour thou shalt eat,
happy art thou, I say.
3 Like fruitful vine on thy house-side
so doth thy wife spring out:
Thy children stand like olive-plants
thy table round about.

4 Thus art thou blest that fearest God,
and he shall let thee see,
5 The promised Jerusalem
and her felicity.
6 Thou shalt thy childrens children see,
to thy great joys increase:
And likewise grace on Israel,
prosperity and peace.

Sape expugnauerunt. Psal. cxxix. N.

Oft they (now Israel may say)
me from my youth annoy:
2 Oft they assailed me from my youth,
yet never they prevail:
3 Upon my back the plowmen plow'd,
and furrows long did cast:
4 The righteous Lord hath cut the cords
of wicked foes at last.

5 They that hate me shall be ashamed, and turned back also:
6 And made as grass upon the house,
which with' reth ere it grow:
7 Whereof the mower cannot find enough to fill his hand:
Nor can he fill his lap, that goeth
to glean upon the land.
8 Nor passers by pray God on them
to let his blessing fall:
Nor say, We bless you in the Name
of God the Lord at all.

De profundis. Psal. cxxx. W. W.

Lord, to thee I make my mone
when dangers me oppress:
I call, I sigh, complain, and grone,
trusting to find release.

2 Hear now, O Lord, my request,
for 't is full due time:
And let thine ears ay be prest
unto this prayer of mine.

3 O Lord our God, if thou weigh
our sins and them peruse:
Who shall then escape and say,
I can my self excuse?

4 But, Lord, thou art merciful,
and turn it to us thy grace,
That we with hearts most careful should fear before thy face.

5 In God I put my whole trust;
my soul waits on his will:
For his promise is most just,
and I hope therein still.

6 My soul to God hath regard,
wishing for him alway
More than they that watch and ward
to see the dawning day.

7 Let Israel then boldly
in the Lord put his trust:
He is that God of mercy
that his deliver must.

8 For he it is that must save
Israel from his sin,
And all such as truly have their confidence in him.

Domine, non es. Psal. cxxxi. M. A.

O Lord, I am not puffed in mind,
I have no scornful eye:
I do not exercise my self
in things that be to high.

2 But as the child that weaned is even from his mothers breast:
So have I, Lord, behaved my self
in silence and in rest.

3 O Israel, trust in the Lord,
let him be all thy stay,

From this time forth for evermore,
from age to age, I say.

Memento Dom. Psal. cxxxii. M.

Remember Davids troubles, Lord,
how to the Lord he swore,
2 And vow'd a vow to Jacobs God,
to keep for evermore:
3 I will not come within my house,
nor climb up to my bed,
4 Nor let my temples take their rest,
nor the eyes in my head,

5 Till I have found out for the Lord
a place to sit thereon:
An house for Jacobs God to be an habitation.

6 We heard of it at Ephrata,
there did we hear this sound:
And in the fields and forests there
these voices first were found.

7 We will assay, and go in now
his tabernacle there.
Before his footstool to fall down,
and worship him in fear.

8 Arise, O Lord, arise, I say,
into thy resting place:
Both thou and the ark of thy strength,
the presence of thy grace.

9 Let all thy priests be clothed, Lord,
with truth and righteousness:
Let all thy saints and holy men
sing all with joyfulness.

10 And for thy servant Davids sake,
refuse not, Lord, I say,
The face of thine anointed, Lord,
nor turn thy face away.

The second part.

11 The Lord to David swore in truth,
and will not shrink from it, Saying, The fruit of thy body
upon thy seat shall sit.

12 And if thy sons my covenant keep,
that I shall learn each one:
Then shall their sons for ever sit upon thy princely throne.

13 The Lord himself hath chose Sion,
and loves therein to dwell,
14 Saying, This is my resting-place,
I love and like it well.

15 And I will bless with great increase her victuals every where:
And I will satisfy with bread
the needy that be there.

16 Yes, I will deck and clothe her priests
with my salvation:
And all her saints shall sing for joy
of my protection.

17 There will I surely make the horn
of David for to bud:
For there I have obtain'd for mine
a lantern bright and good.

18 As for his enemies I will clothe with shame for evermore:
But I will cause his crown to shine
more fresh than heretofore.

Ecce quam. Psal. cxxxiii. W. W.

O How happy a thing it is,
and joyful for to see,
Brethren together fast to hold
the band of amity!

2 It calls to mind that sweet perfume,
and that costly ointment,
Which on the sacrificers head
by Gods precept was spent.

It wet not Aarons head alone,
but drencht his beard throughout,
And finally it did run down
his rich attire about.

3 And as the lower ground doth drink
the dew of Hermon hill,
And Sion with his silver drops
the fields with fruit doth fill.

Even so the Lord doth pour on them
his blessings manifold, Whose hearts and minds without all guile
this knor doth keep and hold.

Ecce nunc. Psal. cxxxiv. W. W.

Behold and have regard,
ye servants of the Lord,
Which in his house by night do watch:
praise him with one accord.

2 Lift up your hands on high unto his holy place,
And give the Lord his praises due,
his benefits embrace.

3 For why? the Lord who did
both earth and heaven frame, Doth Sion bless, and will conserve
for evermore the same.

Laudate Nomen. Psal. cxxxv. M. W.

O Praise the Lord, praise him, praise him,
praise him with one accord:
O praise him still all ye that be
the servants of the Lord:

2 O praise him ye that stand and be in the house of the Lord:
Ye of his court, and of his house,
praise him with one accord.

3 Praise ye the Lord, for he is good,
sing praises to his Name:
It is a comely and good thing
always to do the same.

4 For why? the Lord hath chose Jacob
his very own ye see:

So hath he choſen Iſrael
his treaſure for to be.

5 For this I know and am right ſure
the Lord is very great:
He is indeed above all gods
moſt eaſie to intreat.

6 For whatſoever pleaſed him,
all that ſhall well he wrought:
In heaven, in earth, and in the ſea,
which he hath made of nought.

7 He liſts up clouds even from the earth,
he makes lightnings and rain.
He bringeth forth the winds alſo,
he made nothing in vain.

8 He ſmote the firſt-born of each thing
in Egypt that took reſt:
He ſpared there no living thing,
the man nor yet the beaſt.

9 He hath in thee ſhew'd wonders great,
O Egypt void of vaunts,
On Pharaoh thy curſed king,
and his ſevere ſervants.

10 He ſmote then many nations,
and did great acts and things:
He ſlew the great and mightieſt
and chiefeſt of their kings.

11 Sehon king of the Amorites,
and Og king of Baſan:
He ſlew alſo the kingdoms all
that were of Canaan:

12 And gave their land to Iſrael,
an heritage we ſee,
To Iſrael his own people,
an heritage to be.

The ſecond part.

13 Thy Name, O Lord, ſhall ſtill endure, and thy memorial
Throughout all generations
that are or ever ſhall.

14 The Lord will ſurely now avenge
his people all indeed:

And to his ſervants he will ſhew
favour in time of need.

15 The idols of heathen are made in all the coaſts and lands:
Of ſilver and of gold they be,
the work even of mens hands.

16 They have their mouths, and cannot ſpeak,
and eyes that have no ſight:

17 They have eke ears, and hear nothing
their mouths are breathleſs quite.

18 Wherefore all they are like to them
that ſo do ſet them forth:

And likewiſe thoſe that truſt in them,
or think they be ought worth.

19 O all ye houſe of Iſrael,
ſee that ye praife the Lord:

And ye that be of Aarons houſe,
praife him with one accord.

20 And ye that be of Levies houſe,
praife ye likewiſe the Lord:
And ye that ſtand in aw of him,
praife him with one accord.

21 And out of Sion ſound his praife,
the great praife of the Lord
Which dwelleth in Jeruſalem:
praife him with one accord.

Conſitemini Domino. Pſal. cxxxvi. N.

Praife ye the Lord, for he is good,
for his mercy endureth for ever.

2 Give praife unto the God of gods,
for his mercy endureth for ever.

3 Give praife unto the Lord of Lords
for his mercy endureth for ever.

4 Which only doth great wondrous works,
for his mercy endureth for ever.

5 Which by his wiſdom made the heavens,
for his mercy endureth for ever.

6 Which on the waters ſtretch the earth,
for his mercy endureth for ever:

7 Which made great lights to ſhine abroad,
for his mercy endureth for ever.

8 As ſun to rule the lightſome day,
for his mercy, &c.

9 The moon and ſtars to guide the night,
for his mercy, &c.

10 Which ſmote Egypt with their firſt-born,
for his mercy, &c.

11 And Iſrael brought out from thence,
for his mercy, &c.

12 With mighty hand and ſtretched arm,
for his mercy, &c.

13 Which cut the Red ſea in two parts,
for his mercy, &c.

14 And Iſrael made paſſ there through,
for his mercy, &c.

15 And drowned Pharaoh and his hoſt,
for his mercy,

16 Through wilderneſs his people led,
for his mercy, &c.

17 He which did ſmite great noble kings,
for his mercy, &c.

18 And which hath ſlain the mighty kings,
for his mercy, &c.

19 As Sehon king of Amorites,
for his mercy, &c.

20 And Og the king of Baſan land,
for his mercy, &c.

21 And gave their land for heritage,
for his mercy, &c.

22 Even to his ſervant Iſrael,
for his mercy, &c.

23 Remembering us in baſe eſtate,
for his mercy, &c.

24 And from oppressors rescued us,
for his mercy, &c.

25 Which giveth food unto all flesh,
for his mercy, &c.

26 Praise ye the Lord of heaven above,
for his mercy endureth for ever.

27 Give thanks unto the Lord of lords,
for his mercy endureth for ever.

O Laud the Lord benign,
Whose mercies last for ay:

2 Give thanks and praises sing
To God of gods, I say.

For certainly
His mercies dure

Both firm and sure Eternally.

3 The Lord of lords praise ye,
Whose mercies ay do dure.

4 Great wonders only he Doth work by his great power.

For certainly, &c.

5 Which God omnipotent
By his great wisdom high

The heavenly firmament
Did frame as we may see;

For certainly, &c.

6 Yea, he the heavy charge
Of all the Earth did stretch:

And on the waters large
The same he did out-reach.

For certainly, &c.

7 Great lights he made to be;
For why? his love it say:

8 Such as the sun we see,
To rule the lightsome day.

For certainly, &c.

9 And eke the moon to clear
Which shineth in our sight,

And stars that do appear
To guide the darksome night.

Super flumina. Psal. cxxxvii. W. W.

When as we far in Babylon
The rivers round about,

And in remembrance of Sion
The tears for grief burst out:

2 We hang'd our harps and instruments
The willow-trees upon:

For in that place men for their use
had planted many a one.

3 Then they to whom we prisoners were,
said to us tauntingly,

Now let us hear your Hebrew songs,
and pleasant melody.

4 Alas! said we, who can once frame
his sorrowful heart to sing

The praises of our loving God,
thus under a strange king.

5 But yet if I Jerusalem
out of my heart let slide:

Then let my fingers quite forget
the warbling harp to guide.

6 And let my tongue within my mouth
be ty'd for ever fast.
If that I joy before I see thy full deliverance past.

7 Therefore, O Lord, remember now
the cursed noise and cry
That Edoms sons against us made,
when they ras'd our cry.
Remember, Lord, their cruel words,
when as with one accord
They cry'd, On, sack, and rase their walls,
in despite of their Lord.

8 Even so shalt thou, O Babylon,
at length to dust be brought:
And happy shall that man be call'd
that our revenge hath wrought.
9 Yea, blessed shall that man be call'd,
that takes thy children young
To dash their bones against hard stones that lie the streets among.

Confitebor tibi. Psal. cxxxviii. N.
Thee will I praise with my whole heart.
my Lord my God, always:

Even in the presence of the gods
I will advance thy praise.

2 Toward thy holy temple I will look and worship thee:

And praised in my thankful mouth
thy holy Name shall be:

Even for thy loving kindness sake,
and for thy truth withall:

For thou thy Name hast by thy word
advanced over all.

3 When I did call thou heardest me,
and thou hast made also

The power of increased strength
within my soul to grow.

4 Yea, all the kings on earth they shall give praise to thee, O Lord:

For they of thy most holy mouth
have heard the mighty word.

5 They of the ways of God the Lord
in singing shall entreat:

Because the glory of the Lord
it is exceeding great.

6 The Lord is high, and yet he doth behold the lowly spirit:

But he (contemning) knows afar
the proud and lofty wight.

7 Although in midst of trouble I do walk, yet shall I stand

Renewed by thee: O my Lord,
thou wilt stretch out thy hand

Upon the wrath of all my foes,
and saved shall I be.

By thy right hand: the Lord God will perform his work to me.

8 Thy mercy, Lord, endures for ay,
Lord; do me not forsake:
Forsake me not that am the work which thine own hand did make.

Domine, probasti. Psal. cxxxix. N.
O Lord, thou hast me try'd and known,
my sitting thou dost know

2 And rising eke, my thoughts afar thou understand'st also.

3 My paths, yea and my lying down,
thou compass'st always:

And by familiar custom art acquainted with my ways.

4 No word is in my tongue, O Lord,
but known it is to thee:

5 Thou me behind hold'st and before,
thou lay'st thine hand on me.

6 Too wonderful above my reach,
Lord is thy cunning skill:

It is so high that I the same cannot attain untill.

7 From sight of thy all-seeing Spirit,
Lord, whither shall I go?

Or whither shall I flee away
thy presence to scape fro?

8 To heaven if I mount aloft,
lo, thou art present there:

In hell if I lie down below,
even there thou dost appear.

9 Yea, let me take the morning wings,
and let me go and bide

Even there where are the farthest parts,
where flowing sea doth glide.

10 Yea, even thither also shall thy reaching hand me guide:

And thy right hand shall hold me fast,
and make me to abide.

11 Yea, if I say, the darkness shall yet shroud me from thy sight:

Lo, even also the darkest night
about me shall be light.

12 Yea, darkness hideth not from thee,
but night doth shine as day:

To thee the darkness and the light
are both alike away.

The second part.

13 For thou posses'd hast my reins,
and thou hast covered me,

When I within my mothers womb
enclosed was by thee.

14 Thee will I praise, made fearfully
and wondrously I am:

Thy works are marvellous, right well
my soul doth know the same.

15 My bones they are not hid from thee,
although in secret place

I have been made, and in the earth
beneath I shaped was.

16 When I was formless, then thine eye
saw me : for in thy book
Were written all, nought was before that after fashion took.

17 The thoughts therefore of thee, O God,
how dear ear they to me !
And of them all how passing great
the endless number be !

18 If I should count them, lo their sum
more than the sand I see :
And whensoever I awake
yet am I still with thee.

19 The wicked and the bloody men
O that thou wouldst slay !
Even those O God, to whom, depart,
depart from me, I say.

20 Even those of thee, O Lord my God,
that speak full wickedly :
Those that are lifted up in vain,
being enemies to thee.

21 Hate I not them that hate thee, Lord,
and that in earnest wife ?
Contend I not against them all against thee that arise ?

22 I hate them with unfeigned hate,
even as my utter foes.

23 Try me, O God, and know my heart.
my thoughts prove and disclose.

24 Consider, Lord, if wickedness
in me there any be :
And in thy way, O God my Guide,
for ever lead thou me.

Eripe me. Psal. cxl. N.

Lord, save me from the evil man,
and from the cruel wight :

2 And from all those which evil do
imagine in their spite.

Which make on me continual war,
their tongues lo they have whet

3 Like serpents ; underneath their lips
is adders poyson set.

4 Keep me, O Lord, from wicked hands, preserve me to abide

Free from the cruel man, that means
to cause my steps to slide.

5 The proud have laid a snare for me,
and they have spread a net
With cords in my path-way, and gins
for mecke have they set.

6 Therefore I said unto the Lord,
thou art my God alone :

Hear me, O Lord, O hear the voice
wherewith I pray and moone.

7 O Lord my God, thou only art
the strength that saveth me :

My head in day of battel hath been covered still by thee.

8 Let not, O Lord, the wicked have the end of his desire :

Perform not his ill thoughts, lest he
with pride be set on fire.

9 Of them that compass me about,
the chiefeest of them all,
Lord, let the mischief of their lips
upon themselves befall.

10 Let coals fall on them, let him cast
them in consuming flame,
And in deep pits ; so as they may not rise out of the same.

11 For no backbiter shall on earth
be set in stable plight :
And evil to destruction still shall hunt the cruel wight.

12 I know the Lord th' afflicted will revenge, and judge the poor :

13 The just shall praise thy Name : just shall dwell with thee evermore.

Domine, clamavi. Psal. cxli. N.

O Lord, upon thee do I call,
Lord, haste thee unto me :

And hearken, Lord, unto my voice
when I do cry to thee.

2 As incense let my prayers be directed in thine eyes :
And the uplifting of my hands
as evening sacrifice.

3 My lord, for guiding of my mouth
set thou a watch before :

And also of my moving lips,
O Lord, keep thou the door.

4 That I should wicked works commit incline thou not my heart :
With ill men of their delicates,
Lord, let me eat no part.

5 But let the righteous smile me, Lord,
for that is good for me :

Let him reprove me, and the same
a precious oyl shall be.

Such smiling shall not break my head,
the time shall shortly fall

When I shall in their misery
make prayers for them all.

6 Then when in stony places down
their judges shall be cast :

Then shall they hear my words, for then
they have a pleasant taste.

7 Our bones about the graves mouth
lo scatter'd are they found :

As he that beweth wood, or he
that diggeth up the ground.

- 8 But, O my Lord my God, mine eyes
do look up unto thee :
In thee is all my trust, let not my soul forsaken be.
9 Which they have laid to catch me in,
Lord, keep me from the snare,
And from the subtil grins of them
that wicked workers are.
10 The wicked into their own nets
together let them fall :
While I do by thy help escape,
the danger of them all.

Voce mea. Psal. cxlii. N.

- BEfore the Lord God with my voice
I did send out my cry :
And with my strained voice unto
the Lord God prayed I.
2 My meditation in his fight
to pour I did not spare :
And in the presence of the Lord
my trouble did declare,
3 Although perplexed was my spirit,
my path was known to thee :
In way where I did walk a snare
they slyly laid for me.
4 I look'd and viewed on my right hand,
but none there would me know :
All refuge failed me, and for
my soul none cared tho.
5 Then cry'd, I, Lord, to thee, and said,
my hope thou only art :
Thou in the land of living art
my portion and my part.
6 Hark to my cry, for I am brought full low, deliver me
From them that do me persecute,
for me too strong they be.
7 That I may praise thy Name my soul from prison, Lord, bring our :
When thou art good to me, the just shall praise me round about.

Domine exaudi. Psal. Psal. cxliii. N.

- Lord, hear my prayer, heark to the plaint
that I do make to thee :
Lord, in thy native truth and in thy justice answer me.
2 In judgment with thy servant, Lord,
O enter not at all :
For justifi'd be in thy fight
not one that liveth shall.
3 The enemy hath pursu'd my soul,
my life to ground hath thrown :
And laid me in the dark, like them
that dead are long agoone.
4 Within me in perplexity
was mine accumbred spite :

And in me was my troubled heart
amazed and affright.

- 5 Yet I record time past, in all thy works I meditate :
Yea, in thy works I meditate that thy hands have create.
6 To thee, O Lord my God, lo I do stretch my craving hands :
My soul desireth after thee,
as do the thirsty lands.
7 Hear me with speed, my spirit doth fail,
hide not thy face me from :
Else shall I be like them that down into the pit do go.
8 Let me thy loving kindness in the morning hear and know :
For in thee is my trust, shew me
the way where I shall go.
9 For I lift up my soul to thee,
O Lord, deliver me
From all mine enemies : for I have hidden me with thee.
10 Teach me to do thy will, for thou,
thou art my God, I say,
Let thy good spirit unto the land
of mercy me convey.
11 For thy Names sake with quickning grace alive do thou me make :
And out of trouble bring my soul
even for thy justice sake.
12 And for thy mercy slay my foes,
O Lord, destroy them all That do oppress my soul, for I thy servant am and shall.

Benedictus Dom. Psal. cxliv. N.

- BLeft be the Lord my strength, that doth instruct my hands to fight :
The Lord that doth my fingers frame
to battel by his might.
2 He is my goodness, fort, and tower,
deliverer and shield :
In him I trust ; my people he
subdues to me to yield.
3 O Lord, what thing is man, that him,
thou holdest so in price ?
O son of man, that upon him
thou thinkest in such wise ?
4 Man is but like to vanity,
so pass his days to end
5 As fleeting shade. Bow down, O Lord,
the heavens and descend ;
6 The mountains touch, and they shall smoke ;
cast forth thy lightning flame
And scatter them : thine arrows shoot, consume them with the same.
7 Send down thine hand even from above,
O Lord, deliver me :

Take

Take me from waters great, from hand
of strangers make me free.

8 Whose subell mouth of vanity
and foundness doth entreat:

And their right hand is a right hand
of falshood and deceit.

9 A new song will I sing, O God,
and singing will I be

On viol and on instrument
ten stringed unto thee.

10 Even he it is that only gives deliverance to kings:

Unto his servant David help
from hurtful sword he brings.

11 From strangers hand me save and in eld,
whose mouth talks vanity:

And their right hand is a right hand
of guile and subtilty.

12 That our sons may be as the plants
whom growing youth doth rear.

Our daughters as carv'd corner-stones,
like to a palace fair:

13 Our garments full, and plenty may with sundry sorts be found:

Our sheep bring thousands, in our streets
ten thousands may abound.

14 Our oxen be to labour strong,
that none do us invade:

There be no goings out, nor cries
within our itaceets be made.

15 The People blessed are that with such blessings are so stor'd:

Yea, blessed all the people are whose God is God the Lord.

Exaltabo te. Psal. cxlv. N.

Thee will I land, my God and King,
and bless thy Name for ay:

2 For ever will I praise thy Name,
and bless thee day by day.

3 Great is the Lord, most worthy praise,
his greatness none can reach:

4 From race to race they shall thy works
praise, and thy power preach.

5 I of thy glorious majesty
the beauty will record:

And meditate upon thy works
most wonderful, O Lord.

6 And they shall of thy power, and of thy fearful acts declare:

And I to publish all abroad
thy greatness will not spare.

7 And they into the mention shall break of thy goodness great:

And I aloud thy righteousness
in singing shall repeat.

8 The Lord our God is gracious,
and merciful also:

Of great abounding mercy, and
to anger he is slow:

9 Yea, good to all; and all his works
his mercy doth exceed:

10 Lo, all thy works do praise thee, Lord,
and do thy honour spread.

11 Thy faints do bless thee, and they do thy kingdoms glory show:

12 And blaze thy power, to cause the sons
of men thy power to know.

The second part.

And of his mighty kingdom etc.
to spread the glorious praise.

13 Thy kingdom, Lord, a kingdom is that doth endure always:

And thy dominion through each age
endures without decay.

14 The Lord upholdeth them that fall,
their sliding he doth stay.

15 The eyes of all do wait on thee:
thou dost them all relieve:

And thou to each sufficing food
in season dost give.

16 Thou openest thy plentiful hand,
and bounteously dost fill:

All things whatsoever do live,
with gifts of thy good will.

17 The Lord is just in all his ways,
his works are holy all.

18 Near all he is that call on him,
in truth that on him call.

19 He the desires which they require that fear him will fulfill:

And he will hear them when they cry,
and save them all he will.

20 The Lord preserves all those, to him
that bear a loving heart:

But he them all that wicked are will utterly subvert.

21 My thankful mouth shall gladly speak
the praises of the Lord:

All flesh to praise his holy Name
for ever shall accord.

Lauda, anima. Psal. cxlvi. J. H.

MY soul, praise thou the Lord always,
my God I will confess:

2 While breath and life prolong my days,
my tongue no time shall cease.

3 Trust not in worldly princes then,
though they abound in wealth:

Nor in the sons of mortal men,
in whom there is no health.

4 For why, their breath doth soon depart,
to earth anon they fall:

And then the counsels of their heart
decay and perish all.

- 5 O happy is that man, I say,
whom Jacob's God doth aid,
And he whose hope doth not decay,
but on the Lord is staid.
- 6 Which made the earth and waters deep,
the heavens high withall:
Which doth his word and promise keep
in truth, and ever shall.
- 7 With right always doth he proceed
for such as suffer wrong:
The poor and hungry he doth feed,
and loose the fetters strong.
- 8 The Lord doth send the blind their sight,
the lame to limbs restore:
The Lord, I say, doth love the right
and just man evermore.
- 9 He doth defend the fatherless,
and stranger sad in heart,
And quill the widow from distress,
and ill mens ways subvert.
- 10 Thy Lord and God eternally,
O Sion, still shall reign,
In time of all posterity,
for ever to remain.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. cxlvii. N.

- Praise ye the Lord, for it is good unto our God to sing:
For it is pleasant, and to praise
it is a comely thing.
- 2 The Lord his own Jerusalem
he buildeth up alone:
And the dispersit of Israel
doth gather into one.
- 3 He heals the broken in their heart,
their sores up doth he bind:
4 He counts the number of the stars,
and nameth them in their kind.
- 5 Great is the Lord, great is his power,
his wisdom infinite.
- 6 The Lord relieves the meek, and throws
to ground the wicked wight.
- 7 Sing unto God the Lord with praise,
unto the Lord rejoyce:
And to our God upon the harp
advance your singing voice.
- 8 He covers heaven with clouds, and for
the earth prepareth rain:
And on the mountains he doth make
the grass to grow again.
- 9 He gives to beasts their food, and to young ravens when they cry:
- 10 His pleasure not in strength of horse
nor in mans legs doth lie.
- 11 But in all those that fear the Lord,
the Lord hath his delight,
And such as do attend upon his mercies shining light.

The second part.

- 12 O praise the Lord, Jerusalem,
thy God, O Sion, praise:
- 13 For he the bars hath forged strong,
wherewith thy gates he stays.
- 14 Thy children he hath blest in thee:
and in thy borders he doth settle peace, and with the flour
of wheat he filleth thee.
- 15 And his commandment upon
the earth he sendeth out:
And eke his word with speedy course
doth swiftly run about.
- 16 He giveth snow like wool, hoar-frost
like ashes he doth spread:
- 17 Like morsels casts his ice, thereof
the cold who can abide?
- 18 He sendeth forth his mighty word,
and melteth them again:
His wind he makes to blow, and then
the waters flow again.
- 19 The doctrine of his holy word
to Jacob he doth show:
His statutes and his judgments he gives Israel to know.
- 20 With every nation he hath not so dealt, nor have they known His secret judgments: ye therefore praise ye the Lord alone.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. cxlviii. J. N.

- Give laud unto the Lord,
From heaven that is so high:
Praise him in deed and word,
Above the starry skie.
- 2 And also ye,
His angels all,
Armies royal,
Praise him with glee
- 3 Praise him both moon and sun,
Which are so clear and bright:
The same of you be done,
Ye glistring stars of light:
- 4 And eke no less:
Ye heavens fair,
And clouds of th' air,
His laud express.
- 5 For at his word they were
All formed as we see:
At his voice did appear
All things in their degree;
- 6 Which he set fast;
To them he made
A law and trade
For ay to last.
- 7 Extol and praise Gods Name
On earth ye dragons fell:

All deeps do ye the same,
For it becomes ye well.

8 Him magnifie,
Fire, hail, ice, snow,
And storms that blow
at his decree.

9 The hills and mountains all,
And trees that fruitful are,
The cedars great and tall
His worthy praise declare.

10 Beasts and cattle
Ye birds flying,
And worms creeping,
That on earth dwell.

11 All kings both more and less
With all their pompous train,
Princes and all judges
That in the world remain, Exalt his Name.

12 Young men and maids,
Old men and babies,
Do ye the same.

13 For his Name shall we prove
To be most excellent,
Whose praise is far above
The earth and firmament.

14 For sure he shall Exalt with bliss,
The horn of his,
And help them all.

His saints all shall forth tell
His praise and worthiness,
The children of Israel
Each one both more and less:

And also they
That with good will
His words fulfill,
And him obey.

Cantate Domino. Psal. cxlix. N.

Sing ye unto the Lord our God
A new rejoicing song:
And let the praise of him be heard
his holy saints among.

2 Let Israel rejoyce in him
that made him of nothing:
And let the seed of Sion
be joyful in their king.

3 Let them sound praise with voice of lute
unto his holy Name,
And with the dulcimer and the harp,
sing praises of the same.

4 For why? the Lord his pleasure all hath in his people set:
And by deliverance he will raise
the meek to glory great.

5 With glory and with honour now
let all his saints rejoyce:
And now alone upon their beds
advance their singing voice.

6 And in their mouths let be the acts
of God the mighty Lord:
And in their hands eke let them bear
a double edged sword.

7 To plague the heathen, and correct
the people with their hands:
8 To bind their stately kings in chains,
their lords in iron bands:

9 To execute on them the doom
that written is before,
This honour all his saints shall have,
praise ye the Lord therefore.

Laudate dominum. Psal. cl. N.

Yield unto God the mighty Lord,
praise in his sanctuary,
And praise him in the firmament,
that shews his power on high.

2 Advance his Name, and praise him
his mighty acts always:
According to his excellency
of greatness give him praise.

3 His praises with the princely noise
of sounding trumpets blow:
Praise him upon the viol, and upon the harp also.

4 Praise him with dulcimer and with flute,
organs and virginals:
5 With sounding cymbals praise ye him,
praise him with loud cymbals.

6 What-ever hath the benefit of breathing, praise the Lord:
To praise the Name of God the Lord
agree with one accord.

The end of the Psalms.

A song to be sung before Morning Prayer. T. B.

Praise ye the Lord, ye Gentiles all,
which hath brought you into his light:
O praise him all people mortal,
as it is most worthy and right.
For he is full of mercy,
on us to pour out his mercy.

And the Lords truth be ye assured
abideth perpetually.

Glory be to God the Father,
and to Jesus Christ his true Son,
With th' holy Ghost in the manner,
now and at every season.

A song to be sung before Evening Prayer.

BEhold now give heed, such as be the Lords servants faithful and true Come praise the Lord every degree with such songs as to him are due.

O ye that stand in the Lords house,
even in our own Gods mansion,
Praise ye the Lord for bounteous
which worketh our salvation.

Lift up your hands in his holy place,
yea, and that in the time of night;
Praise ye the Lord which gives all grace,
for he is a Lord of great might.

Then shall the Lord our of Zion,
which made heaven and earth by his power,
Give to you and your nation
his blessing, mercy, and favour, &c.
Glory be to God the Father, &c.

*The ten commandments of God.
Exod. 20. W. W.*

ATtend my people and give ear,
Of ferly things I will thee call:
See that my words in mind thou bear
And to my precepts listen well.

1 I am thy sovereign Lord and God,
Which have thee brought from careful thrall,
And eke reclaim'd from Pharaohs rod:
Make thee no gods on them to call:

2 Nor fashioned form of any thing
In heaven or earth to worship it:
For I thy God by revenging
With grievous plagues this sin will smite.

3 Take not in vain Gods holy Name,
Abuse it not after thy will:
For so thou might'st soon purchase blame,
And in his wrath he would thee spill.

4 The Lord from work the seventh day ceast,
And brought all things to perfect end:
So thou and thine that day take rest,
That to Gods behests ye may attend:

5 Unto thy parents honour give,
As Gods commandments do intend:
That thou long days and good mayst live
In earth where God a place doth lend.

6 Beware of murder and cruel hate.

7 All filthy fornication fear.

8 See thou steal not at any rate.

9 False witness against no man bear.

10 Thy neighbours house with not to have,
His wife, or ought that he calls mine;
His field, his ox, his ass, his slave,
Or any thing which is his thine.

A Prayer.

The Spirit of grace grant us, O Lord,
To keep these laws our hearts restore:

And cause us all with one accord
To magnifie thy Name therefore.

For of our selves no strength we have
To keep these laws after thy will:
Thy might therefore, O Christ, we crave
That we in thee may them fulfill.

Lord, for thy Names sake grant us this,
Thou art our strength, O Saviour Christ:
Of thee to speed how should we miss
In whom our treasure doth consist.

To thee for evermore be praise
With the Father in each respect,
And with the holy spirit always
The comforter of thine elect.

The Lords Prayer. D. Cox.

Our Father which in heaven art,
And mak'st us all one brotherhood,
To call upon thee with one heart
Our heavenly Father and our God.

Grant we pray not with lips alone,
But with our hearts deep sigh and groan,
Thy blessed Name be sanctifi'd,
Thy holy word might us inflame,

In holy life for to abide
To magnifie thy holy Name,
From all errors defend and keep
The little flock of thy poor sheep.

Thy kingdom come even at this hour,
And henceforth everlastingly:
Thine holy Ghost into us poore,
With all his gifts most precious poore.

From Satans rage and filthy band
Defend us with thy mighty hand:
Thy will be done with diligence
Like as in heaven in earth also:

In trouble grant us patience,
Thee to obey in wealth and woe.
Let not flesh, blood, or any ill,
Prevail against thy holy will.

Give us this day our daily bread,
And all other good gifts of thine:
Keep us from war and from bloodshed,
Also from sickness, dearth, and pine:

That we may live in quietness,
Without all greedy carefulness,
Forgive us our offences all,
Relieve our careful conscience:

As we forgive both great and small
Which unto us have done offence,
Prepare us, Lord, for to serve thee
In perfect love and unity.

O Lord, into temptation
Lead us not; when the fiend doth rage,
To withstand his temptation
Give power and strength us every age.

Arm and make strong the feeble host
With faith, and with the holy Ghost.

O Lord, from evil deliver us,
The days and times are dangerous,
From everlasting death save us,
And in our last need comfort us:
A blessed end to us bequeath,
Into thy hands our souls receive.
For thou, O Lord, art King of kings,
And thou hast power over all:
Thy glory shineth in all things,
In the wide world universal.
Amen, let it be done, O Lord,
That we have pray'd with one accord.

The twelve Articles of the Christian Faith.

All my belief and confidence
is in the Lord of might:
The Father which all things hath made,
the day and eke the night:
The heavens and the firmament,
and also many a star;
The earth and all that is therein,
which pass many reason far.
And in like manner I believe in Christ our Lord his Son, Coequal with the Father,
and man in flesh and bone:
Conceived by the holy Ghost,
his word doth manifest;
And of his mother Mary born,
yet she a Virgin pure.
Because mankind to Satan was
for sin in bond and thrall;
He came and offered up himself
to death to save us all:
And suffering most grievous pain,
then Pilate being judge,
Was crucified on the cross,
and thereas did not grudge.
And so he died in the flesh,
but quickned in the spirit:
His body then was buried,
as is our use and rite.
His soul did after this descend
into the lower parts;
A dread unto the wicked sprites,
but joy to faithful hearts.
And in the third day of his death
he rose to life again,
To th' end he might be glorified,
our of all grief and pain.
Ascending to the heavens high,
to sit in glory still;
On Gods right hand his Father dear,
according to his will:
Until the day of judgment come,
when he shall come again
With angels power (yet of that day
we all be uncertain)

To judge all people righteously,
whom he hath dearly bought;
The living and the dead also,
which he hath made of nought.
And in the holy Spirit of God,
my faith to justify;
The third person in Trinity
believe I stedfastly:
The holy and the Catholick Church
that Gods word doth maintain,
And holy Scripture doth allow,
which Saran doth disdain.
And also I do trust to have
by Jesus Christ his death Release and pardon of my sins,
and that only by faith:
What time all flesh shall rise again
before the Lord of might;
And see him with their bodily eyes,
which now do give them light.
And then shall Christ our Saviour
the sheep and goats divide,
And give life everlastingly
to those whom he hath tried:
Within his realm celestial
in glory for to rest;
With all his holy company
of saints and angels blest:
Which serve the Lord omnipotent
obediently each hour:
To whom be all dominion
and praise for evermore.

A Prayer to the holy Ghost to be sung before the Sermon.

Come holy Spirit the God of might,
Comforter of us all:
Teach us to know thy word aright,
That we do never fall.
O holy Ghost, visit our coast,
defend us with thy shield;
Against all sin and wickedness,
Lord, help us win the field.
Lord keep our king and his counsel,
and give them will and might:
To persevere in thy Gospel,
which can put sin to flight.
O Lord, that giv'st thy holy word,
send preachers plentifully,
That to the same we may accord,
and therein live and die.
O holy Spirit, direct aright
the preachers of thy word,
That thou by them mayst cut down sin
as it were with a sword,
Depart not from thy pastures pure,
but aid them at their need:
Which break to us the bread of life,
wherewith our souls do feed.

O blessed Spirit of truth keep us
in peace and unity,
Keep us from sects and errors all,
and from all Papistry.

Convert all those that are our foes,
and bring them to thy light:
That they and we may well agree,
and praise thee day and night.

O Lord, increase our faith in us,
and love so to abound;

Thar man and wife be void of strife,
and neighbours 'bout us round.

In our time give thy peace, O Lord,
to nations far and nigh:
And teach them all thy holy word,
that we may sing to thee.

All glory to the trinity
that is of mighties most:
The living Father, and the Son,
and eke the holy Ghost:
As it hath been in all the time
that hath been heretofore:
As it is now, and so shall be henceforth for evermore.

Da pacem, Domine:

Give peace in these our days, O Lord,
Great dangers are now at hand:
Thine enemies with one accord
Christ's Name in every land
Seek to deface,
Rout out and race
Thy true right worship indeed.
Be thou the stay,
Lord, we thee pray,
Thou help'st alone in all need.

Give us that peace that we do lack,
Through misbelief and ill life:
Thy word to offer thou dost not slack,
Which we unkindly gain strive
With fire and sword:
This healthful word
Some persecute and oppress:
Some with the mouth
Confess the truth
Without sincere godliness.

Give peace, and us thy Spirit downsend,
With grief and repentance true:
Do pierce our hearts, our lives to amend,
And by faith in Christ renew:
That fear and dread,
War and bloodshed,
Through thy sweet mercy and grace,
May from us slide:
thy truth may abide,
And shine in every place.

The Lamentation.

O Lord, in thee is all my trust,
give ear unto my woful cry:

Refuse me not that am unjust,
but bowing down thy heavenly eye,
Behold how I do still lament
my sins wherein I do offend:

O Lord, for these shall I be silent,
such thee to please I do intend:

No, no; not so thy will is bent
to deal with sinners in thine lent:
But when in heart they shall repent,
thou grant'st with speed their just desire.

To thee therefore still shall I cry,
to wash away my sinful crime:
Thy blood, O Lord, is not yet dry,
but that in may help me in time.

Haste thee, O Lord, haste thee, I say,
to pour on us thy gifts of grace:
That when this life shall fly away
in heaven with thee I may have place:
Where thou dost reign eternally with God which once did down thee send,
Where angels sing continually
to thee be praise world without end.

A thanksgiving after the receiving of the Lord's supper.

The Lord be thanked for his gifts
and mercies evermore:
That he doth shew unto his saints:
to him be laud therefore.
Our tongues cannot so praise the Lord
as he doth right deserve:
Our hearts cannot of him so think
as he doth us preserve.

His benefits they be so great
to us that be but sin,
That at our hands for recompence
there is no hope to win:
O sinful flesh that thou shouldst have such mercies of the Lord!
Thou dost deserve most worthily
of him to be abhorr'd.

Nought else but sin and wretchedness
doth rest within our hearts:
And rudely against the Lord
we daily play our parts.

The sun above in firmament
that is to us a light, Doth shew it self more clear and pure
than we be in his sight.

The heavens above and all therein
more holy are than we:
They serve the Lord in their estate,
each one in his degree:
They do not strive for mastery,
nor slack their office set:

But serve the Lord and do his will,
have is to them no let.

Also the earth and all therein
of God it is in awe.

It doth observe the formers will,
by skilful natures law.

The sea and all that is therein
doth bend when God doth beck.

The spirits beneath do tremble all,
and fear his wrathful check.

But we (alas!) for whom all these were made them for to rule,

Do not so know or love the Lord
as doth the ox or mule.

A law he gave for us to know,
what was his holy will:

He would us good, but we would not avoid the thing is ill.

Not one of us that seeketh out
the Lord of life to please:

Not doth the thing that might us lead
to Christ and quier ease.

Thus are we all his enemies,
we can it not deny:

And he again of his good will
would not that we should die.

Therefore when remedy was none
to bring us unto life,

The Son of God our flesh he took
to end our mortal strife.

And all the law of God the Lord
he did it full obey:

And for our sin upon the cross
his blood our debts did pay.

And that we should not yet forget
what good he to us wrought,

A sign he left our eyes to tell
that he our bodies bought.

In bread and wine here visible
unto thine eyes and taste,

His mercies great thou may'st record,
if that his Spirit thou hast.

As once the corn did live and grow,
and was cut down with sickle,

And threshed out with many stripes,
out from his husk to drive:

And as the mill with violence
did rear it out so small,

And made it like to earthly dust,
not sparing it at all,

And as the oven with fire hot
did close it up with hear,

And all this done that I have said
that is should be our meat:

So was the Lord of life the ager down by cruel death:

His soul he gave in torment great,
and yielded up his breath.

Because that he to us might be an everlasting bread,

With much reproch and troubles great
on earth his life he led.

And as the grapes in pleasant time
are pressed very fore,

And plucked down when they be ripe,
and let to grow no more;

Because the juice that in them is
as comfortable drink

We might receive, and joyful be
when sorrows make us shrink:

So Christ his blood our pressed was,
with nails and cke with spear:

The juice thereof doth save all those
that rightly do him fear.

And as the corns of unley
into one loaf are knit:

So is the Lord and his whole Church,
though he in heaven sit.

As many grapes make but one wine,
so should we be but one

In faith and love in Christ above,
and unto Christ alone:

Leading a life without all strife,
in quiet rest and peace:

From envy and from malice both
our hearts and tongues to cease

Which if we do, then shall we stay that we his chosen be:

By faith in him to lead a life
as always willed he.

And that we may so do indeed,
God send us all his grace:

Then after death we shall be sure
with him to have a place.

Preserve us, Lord, by thy dear word
From Turk and Pope defend us Lord:

Which both would thrust out of his throne
Our Lord Jesus Christ thy dear Son,

Lord Jesus Christ, shew forth thy might,
That thou art Lord of lords by right:

Thy poor afflicted flock defend,
That we may praise thee without end.

God holy Ghost our comforter,
Be our patron, help, and succour:

Give us one mind, and perfect peace,
All gifts of grace in us increase.

Thou living God in person three,
Thy Name be praised in unity:

In all our need so us defend,
That we may praise thee without end.

P R A Y E R S.

A Form of Prayer to be used in private Houses every Morning and Evening.

Morning Prayer.

A Almighty God and most merciful Father, we do not present our selves here before thy Majesty, trusting in our own merits or worthiness, but in thy manifold mercies, which hast promised to hear our prayers, and grant our requests which we shall make to thee in the Name of thy beloved Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who also hath commanded us to assemble our selves together in his Name, with full assurance that he will not only be amongst us, but also be our Mediatour and Advocate towards thy Majesty, that we may obtain all things which shall seem expedient to thy blessed will, for our necessities. Therefore we beseech, thee most merciful Father, to turn thy loving countenance towards us, and impute not unto us our manifold sins and offences, whereby we justly deserve thy wrath and sharp punishment, but rather receive us to thy mercy, for Jesus Christs sake accepting his Death and passion as a just recompense for all our offences, in whom thou art well pleased, and through whom thou canst not be offended with us. And seeing that of thy great mercies we have quietly passed this night: grant (O heavenly Father) that we may bestow this day wholly in thy service, so that all our thoughts, words, and deeds may redound to the glory of thy great name, and good example to all men, who seeing our good works may glorifie thee our heavenly Father.

And forasmuch as of thy meer favour and love thou hast not only created us to thine own similitude and likeness, but also hast chosen us to be helms with thy dear Son Jesus Christ, of that immortal kingdom which thou preparedst for us from the beginning of the world; we beseech thee to increase our faith and knowledge, and to lighten our hearts with thy holy Spirit, that we may in the mean time live in godly conversation and integrity of life, knowing that idolaters, adulterers, covetous men, contentious persons, drunkards, gluttons, and such like, shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

And because thou hast commanded us to pray one for another, we do not only make request, O Lord, for our selves, and for them that thou hast already called to the true understanding of thy heavenly will, but for all people and nations of the world; who as they know by thy wonderful works that thou art God over all, so they may be instructed by thy holy Spirit to believe in thee their only Saviour and Redeemer. But forasmuch as they cannot believe except they hear, nor cannot hear but by preaching, and none can preach except they be sent; therefore, O Lord, raise up faithful distributors of thy mysteries, who setting apart all worldly respects, may both in their lives, and doctrine only seek thy glory. Contrarily, confound Satan and Antichrist, with all hirelings, whom thou hast already cast off into a reprobate sense, that they may not by sects, schisms, heresies and errors disquiet thy little flock. And because O Lord, we be fallen into the latter days and dangerous times, wherein Ignorance hath gotten the upper hand; and Satan by his ministers seeketh by all means to quench the light of thy gospel; we beseech thee to maintain thy cause against those ravening wolves, and strengthen all thy servants whom they keep in prison and bondage. Let not thy long-suffering be an occasion either to increase their tyranny, or to discourage thy children: neither yet let our sins and wickedness be an hindrance to thy mercies, but with speed, O Lord, consider these great miseries. For thy people Israel many times by their sins provoked thine anger, and thou punishedst them by thy just judgement: yet though their sins were never so grievous, if they once returned from their iniquity, thou receivedst them to mercy. We therefore, most wretched sinners, bewail our manifold sins, and earnestly repent us of our former wickedness, and ungodly behaviour towards thee: and whereas we cannot of our selves purchase thy pardon, yet we humbly beseech thee for Jesus Christs sake, to shew thy mercies upon us, and receive us again to thy favour. Grant us, dear Father, these our requests, and all other things necessary for us and thy whole Church, according to thy promise in Jesus Christ our Lord: In whose name we beseech thee as he hath taught us, saying, Our Father which art, &c.

Evening Prayer.

O Lord God, Father everlasting, and full of pity, we acknowledge and confess that we be not worthy to lift up our eyes to heaven, much less to present our selves before thy Majesty with confidence that thou wilt hear our prayers, and grant our requests, if we consider our own deservings; for our consciences do accuse us, and our sins do witness against us, and we know that thou art an upright Judge, which dost not justify the sinners and wicked men, but punishest the faults of all such as transgress thy commandments: yet most merciful Father, since it hath pleased thee to command us to call on thee in all our troubles and adversities, promising even then to help us, when we feel our selves as it were swallowed up of death and desparation; we utterly renounce all worldly confidence, and flee to sovereign bounty as our only stay and refuge: beseeching thee not to call to remembrance our manifold sins and wickedness, whereby we continually provoke thy wrath and indignation against us; neither our negligence and unkindness, which have neither worthily esteemed, nor in our lives sufficiently expressed the sweet comfort of the gospel revealed unto us: but rather to accept of our obedience and death of thy Son Jesus Christ, who by offering up his body in sacrifice once for all, hath made a sufficient recompense for all our sins. Have mercy therefore upon us, O Lord, and forgive us our offences. Teach us by thy holy Spirit that we may rightly weigh them, and earnestly repent us for the same. And so much the rather, O Lord, because that the reprobate and such

such as thou hast forsaken cannot praise thee, nor call upon thy name, but the repenting heart, the sorrowful mind, the conscience oppressed, hungering and thirsting for grace, shall ever set forth thy praise and glory. And albeit we be but worms and dust, yet thou art our Creatour, and we be the work of thy hands; yea, thou art our Father, and we thy children; thou art our Shepherd, and we thy flock; thou art our Redeemer, and we thy people whom thou hast bought; thou art our God, and we thine Inheritance. Correct us not therefore in thine anger, O Lord, neither according to our deserts punish us, but mercifully chastise us with a Fatherly affection, that all the world may know, that at what time soever, a sinner doth repent him of his sins from the bottom of his heart, thou wilt put away all his wickedness out of thy remembrance, as thou hast promised by thy holy prophet.

Finally, soasmuch as it hath pleased thee to make him the night for man to rest in, as thou hast ordained him the day to travel in; grant, O dear Father, that we may so take our bodily rest, that our souls may continually watch for the time that our Lord Jesus Christ shall appear for our deliverance out of this mortal life: and in the mean season that we not overcome by any fantasies, dreams, or other temptations, may fully set our minds upon thee, love thee, fear thee, and rest in thee: furthermore, that our sleep be not excessive or over-much, after the insatiable desires of the flesh, but only sufficient to content our weak nature, that we may be the better disposed to live in all godly conversation, to the glory of thy most holy Name, and the profit of our brethren. So be it.

A godly Prayer to be said at all times.

Honour and praise be given to thee, O Lord God Almighty, most dear Father of heaven, for all thy mercies and loving kindness shewed unto us, in that it hath pleased thy gracious goodness, freely and of thine own accord, to elect and choose us to salvation, before the beginning of the world; and even like continual thanks be given to thee for creating us after thine own Image, for redeeming us with the precious blood of thy dear Son when we were utterly lost, for sanctifying us with thy holy Spirit in the revelation and knowledge of thy holy word, for helping and succouring us in all our needs and necessities, for saving us from all dangers of body and soul, for comforting us so fatherly in all our tribulations and persecutions, for sparing us so long and giving us so large a time of repentance. These benefits, O most merciful Father, like as we acknowledge to have received them of thy only goodness; even so we beseech thee for thy dear Son Jesus Christ's sake, grant us always thy holy Spirit, that we may continually grow in thankfulness towards thee, to be led in all truth, and comforted in all our adversities. O Lord, strengthen our faith, kindle it more in ferventness and love towards thee, and our neighbours for thy sake. Suffer us not, most dear Father, to receive thy word any more in vain: but grant us always the assistance of thy grace and holy Spirit, that in heart, word and deed we may sanctify and do worship to thy name, help to amplify and increase thy kingdom, and whatsoever thou sendest, we may be heartily well content with thy good pleasure and will. Let us not lack the thing, O Father, without the which we cannot serve thee; but bless thou so all the works of our hands, that we may have sufficient, and not be chargeable, but rather helpful to others. Be merciful, O Lord, to our offences; and seeing our debt is great, which thou hast forgiven us in Jesus Christ, make us to love thee and our neighbours so much the more. Be thou our Father, our captain and defender in all temptations, hold thou us by thy merciful hand, that we may be delivered from all inconveniences, and end our lives in the sanctifying and honour of thy holy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord and only Saviour. So be it.

Let thy mighty hand and out-stretched arm, O Lord, be still our defence; thy mercy and loving kindness in Jesus Christ thy dear Son, our Salvation; thy true and holy word, our instruction; thy grace and holy Spirit, our comfort and consolation, unto the end and in the end. So be it.

O Lord increase our faith.

A confession for all states and times.

O Eternal God and most merciful Father, we confess and acknowledge here before thy Divine Majesty, that we are miserable sinners conceived and born in sin and iniquity, so that in us there is no goodness. For the flesh evermore rebelleth against the spirit, whereby we continually transgress thy holy precepts and commandments, and so purchase to our selves through thy just judgment, death and damnation. Notwithstanding, O heavenly Father, soasmuch as we are displeased with our selves for the sins we have committed against thee, and do unfeignedly repent us of the same, we most humbly beseech thee for Jesus Christ's sake to shew thy mercy upon us, to forgive us all our sins, and increase thy holy Spirit in us, that we acknowledging from the bottom of our hearts our own unrighteousness, may from henceforth not only mortifie our sinful lusts and affections, but also bring forth such fruits as may be agreeable to thy most blessed will, not for the worthiness thereof, but for the merits of thy dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ our only Saviour, whom thou hast already given an oblation and offering for our sins, and for whose sake we are certainly persuaded that thou wilt deny us nothing that we shall ask in his name, according to thy will; for thy Spirit doth assure our consciences that thou art our merciful Father, and so lovest us thy children through him, that nothing is able to remove thy heavenly grace and favour from us. To thee therefore, O Father, with

P R A Y E R S.

with thy Son, and the holy Ghost, be all honour and glory world without end. Amen.

A Prayer to be said before a man begin his work.

O Lord God most merciful Father and Saviour, seeing it hath pleased thee to command us to travel, that we may relieve our need; we beseech thee of thy grace so to bless our labours, that thy blessings may extend unto us, without the which we are not able to continue; and that this great favour may be a witness unto us of thy boundfulness and assistance, so that thereby we may know the fatherly care that thou hast over us. Moreover, O Lord, we beseech thee, that thou wouldest strengthen us with thy holy Spirit, that we may faithfully travel in our estate and vocation, without fraud or deceit; and that we may endeavour our selves to follow thy holy ordinance, rather than to seek to satisfy our greedy affections, or desire to gain. And if it please thee, O Lord, to prosper our labour, give us a mind also to help them that have need, according to that ability that thou of thy mercy shalt give us. And knowing that all good things come of thee, grant that we may humble our selves to our neighbours; and not by any means lift up our selves above them which have not received so liberal a portion as thou of thy mercy hast given unto us. And if it please thee to try and exercise us by greater poverty and need than our flesh would desire, that thou wouldest yet, O Lord, grant us grace to know that thou wilt nourish us continually through thy bountiful liberality, that we be not so tempted that we fall into distrust, but that we may patiently wait till thou fill us, not only with corporal graces and benefits, but chiefly with thy heavenly and spiritual treasures, to the intent that we may always have more ample occasion to give thee thanks, and so wholly to rest upon thy mercies. Hear us, O Lord of mercy, through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

A prayer for the whole estate of Christs Church.

A Almighty God and most merciful Father, we humbly submit our selves, and fall down before thy divine Majesty, beseeching thee from the bottom of our hearts, that the seed of thy word now sown amongst us, may take such deep root, that neither the burning heat of persecution cause it to wither, neither the thorny cares of this life choke it; but that as seed sown in good ground, it may bring forth thirty, sixty, and an hundred fold, as thy heavenly wisdom hath appointed. And because we have need continually to crave many things at thy hands, we humbly beseech thee, O heavenly Father, to grant us thy holy Spirit to direct our petitions, that they may proceed from such a fervent mind, as may be agreeable to thy most blessed will. And seeing that our infirmity is able to do nothing without thy help, and that thou art not ignorant with how many and great temptations we poor wretches are on every side enclosed and compassed; let thy strength, O Lord, sustain our weakness, that we being defended with the force of thy grace, may be safely preserved against all assaults of Satan, who goeth about continually like a roaring lion seeking to devour us. Increase our faith, O merciful Father, that we do not swerve at any time from thy heavenly word; but augment in us hope and love, with a careful keeping of all thy commandments, that no hardness of heart, no hypocrisy, no concupiscence of the eyes, nor incitements of the world, do draw us away from thy obedience. And seeing we live now in these most perilous times, let thy fatherly providence defend us against the violence of our enemies which do seek by all means to oppress thy truth.

Furthermore, so far as by thy holy apostle we be taught to make our prayers and supplications for all men; we pray not only for our selves here present, but beseech thee also, to reduce all such as be yet ignorant, from the miserable captivity of blindness and error, to the pure understanding and knowledge of thy heavenly truth, that we all with one consent, and unity of mind, may worship thee our only God and Saviour: and that all pastors, shepherds and ministers, to whom thou hast committed the dispensation of thy holy word and charge of thy chosen people, may both in their life and doctrine be found faithful, setting onely before their eyes thy glory; and that by them all poor sheep which wander and go astray, may be gathered and brought whom to thy fold. Moreover, because the hearts of all rulers are in thy hands, we beseech thee to direct and govern the hearts of all kings, princes, and magistrates, to whom thou hast committed the sword. Especially, O Lord, according to our bounden duty, we beseech thee to maintain and increase the honourable estate of the Kings Majesty, and all his most noble counsellors and magistrates, with all the spiritual pastors and ministers, and all the whole body of this Common-wealth. Let thy fatherly favour preserve them, and thy holy Spirit to govern their hearts, that they may in such sort execute their office, that thy religion may be purely maintained, manners reformed, and sin punished, according to the precise rule of thy holy word. And for that we be all members of the mystical body of Jesus Christ, we make our requests unto thee, O heavenly Father, for all such as are afflicted with any kind of cross or tribulation, as war, plague, famine, sickness, poverty, imprisonment, persecution, banishment, or any other kind of thy rods, whether it be calamity of body, or vexation of mind; that it would please thee to give them patience and constancy, till thou send them full deliverance out of all their troubles. Root out from hence, O Lord, all ravening wolves, which to fill their bellies seek to destroy thy flock. And shew thy great mercies upon those our brethren in other countreys, which are persecuted, cast into prison, and daily condemned for the testimony of thy truth: and although they be utterly destitute of all man's aid, yet let thy sweet comfort never depart from them; but so influence their hearts with thy holy Spirit, that they may boldly and cheerfully abide such trial, as thy good wisdom shall appoint; so that at length, as well by their death as by their life, the kingdom of thy dear Son Jesus Christ may increase and shine through all the world. In whose name we make our humble petitions unto thee as he hath taught us.

Our Father which art, &c.

A Confession of the Christian faith.

I Believe and confess my Lord God eternal, infinite, unmeasurable, incomprehensible, and invisible, one in substance, and three in person, Father, Son, and holy Ghost: who by his almighty power and wisdom, hath not onely of nothing created heaven and earth, and all things therein contained, and man after his own image, that he might in him be glorified; but also by his fatherly providence governeth, maintaineth, and preserveth the same according to the purpose of his will.

I believe also and confess Jesus Christ the only Saviour and Medias: who being equal with God, made himself of no reputation, but took on him the shape of a servant, and became man in all things like unto us, except sin, to assure us of mercy and forgiveness. For when through our father Adams transgression, we were become children of perdition, there was no means to bring us from the yoke of sin and damnation, but only Jesus Christ our Lord; who giving us that by grace, which was his by nature, made us through faith the children of God: Who when the fullness of time was come, was conceived by the power of the holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary according to the flesh, and preached in earth the gospel of salvation: till at length by tyranny of the priests, he was guiltless condemned under Pontius Pilate, then President of Jewry, and most scandalously hanged on the cross between two thieves, as a notorious trespasser, where taking upon him the punishment of our sins, he delivered us from the curse of the law. And forasmuch as he being only God, could not feel death, neither being only man could overcome death; he joyned both together, and suffered his humanity to be punished with most cruel death, feeling in himself the anger and severe judgment of God, even as he had been in extreme torments of hell, and therefore cried with a loud voice, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? Thus of his mercy without compulsion, he offered up himself as the only sacrifice to purge the sins of all the world: So that all other sacrifices for sin are blasphemous, and derogate from the sufficiency hereof. Which death albeit it did sufficiently reconcile us to God, yet the Scriptures commonly do attribute our regeneration to his resurrection. For as by rising again from the grave the third day, he conquered death; even so through our faith standeth in his resurrection: and therefore without the one we cannot feel the benefits of the other. For as by his death sin was taken away, so our righteousness was restored by his resurrection. And because he would accomplish all things, and take possession for us in his kingdom, he ascended into heaven to enlarge the same kingdom by the abundant power of his Spirit, by whom we are most assured of his continual intercession towards God the Father for us. And although he be in heaven as touching his corporal presence, where the Father hath now set him at his right hand, committing unto him the administration of all things as well in heaven above as in the earth beneath, yet is he present with us his members, even to the end of the world, in preserving and governing us with his eternal power and grace: Who, when all things are fulfilled which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his prophets since the world began, will come in the same visible form in the which he ascended, with an unspeakable Majesty, power, and company, to separate the lambs from the goats, the elect from the Reprobate: so that none whether he be alive then, or dead before, shall escape his judgment.

Moreover, The Father and the Son, the holy Ghost, God equal with the Father and the Son; who regenerateth and sanctifieth us, witheth and guideth us unto all truth, preserving most assuredly in our consciences, that we be the children of God, brethren to Jesus Christ, and fellow heirs with him of life everlasting.

Yet notwithstanding it is not sufficient to believe that God is omnipotent and merciful, that Christ hath made satisfaction, or that the holy Ghost hath his power and effect, except we do apply the same benefits to us which are Gods elect. I believe therefore and confess our holy Church: which (as members of Jesus Christ the only Head thereof) consent in faith, hope, and charity, using the gifts of God, whether they be temporal or spiritual, to the profit and furtherance of the same. Which Church is not seen to mans eye, but only known to God: who of the lost sons of Adam hath ordained some as vessels of wrath to damnation, and hath chosen others as vessels of his mercy to be saved; the which in due time he calleth to integrity of life, and godly conversation, to make them a glorious Church in himself. But that Church which is visible and seen to the eye, hath three tokens and marks whereby it may be known: First, the word of God contained in the old and new testament: Which as it becometh the authority of the same Church, and only sufficient to instruct us in all things concerning salvation, so it is left for all degrees of men, to read and understand. For without this word, neither Church, Council, nor Decree can establish any point touching salvation. The second is the holy Sacraments, to wit, of Baptism, and the Lords Supper. Which Sacraments Christ hath left unto us as holy signs and seals of his promises. For as by Baptism once received, is signified, that we (as well infants, as others of age and discretion) being strangers from God by original sin, are received into his family and congregation, with full assurance that although this root of sin lie hid in us, yet to the elect it shall not be imputed: so the Lords Supper declareth, that God as a most provident Father doth not only feed our bodies, but also spiritually nourisheth our souls with the grace and benefits of Jesus Christ, which the Scripture calleth eating of his flesh, and drinking of his blood. Neither must we in the administration of these Sacraments follow mans fantasy; but as Christ himself hath ordained, so must they be ministered, and by such as ordinary vocation are thereunto called. Therefore who so ever revereth and worshippeth these Sacraments, or contrariwise contemneth them in time and place, procureth to himself damnation. The third part of this Church is Ecclesiastical Discipline, which standeth in admonition, and correction of faults. The final end whereof is excommunication by the consent of the Church determined. If the offender be obstinate. And besides this ecclesiastical Discipline, I acknowledge to belong to this Church apostolick Magistrate, who ministereth to every man justice, defending the good, and punishing the evil; to whom we must render honour and obedience in all things which are not contrary to the word of God. And as for the Church, Joseph, and other good rulers: purged the Church of God from superstition and idolatry: so the duties of Christ's Church appertaineth to Christian Magistrates, against all idolaters and hereticks, as Papists, Anabaptists, with such like limbs of Antichrist, to root out all such evil doers and men; as the mass, purgatory, limbo patrum, purgatory to saints, and days, vows of single life, preference of idol service, mans merits, with such like, which draw us from the society of Christs Church wherein standeth only redemption of sins, purchased by Christs blood to all them that believe, whether they be Jews or Gentiles, and lead us to a vain confidence in creatures, and trust in our own imaginations. The punishment whereof although Gods mercies sometimes deferreth in this life, yet after the general resurrection, when our souls and bodies shall rise again to immortality, they shall be damned to unquenchable fire: and then we which have forsaken all mans wisdom to cleave unto Christ, shall hear the joyful voice, Come ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the beginning of the world; and so shall go triumphing with him in heaven and shall remain everlastingly in glory, where we shall see the God face to face, and shall no more need to instruct one another: we shall all know him from the highest to the lowest. To whom with the Son and the holy Ghost, be all praise, honour, and glory, now and ever, &c. to be.
